METHOD NAMES.

Lancashire ringers evidently do not relish the suggestion made by Mr. Burton that the method which has been named after their county should have its title changed to that of the county town. We are not surprised at the attitude which has been taken up by those whose opinions are voiced through the letters in our columns—and we happen to know that our correspondents' views are very generally shared in the County Palatine. Mr. Burton's suggestion was prompted, we feel sure, by the best of motives, but what we like most about the discussion is the fact that ringers are, after all, really interested in the names which are given to methods. About many things connected with the Exercise, members are often inarticulate, but Lancashire ringers, at any rate, are proud to have a method named after their county, and will make their voices heard when a proposal is put forward to change it.

We had begun to think that ringers cared nothing at all for the nomenclature of methods, but since it is pretty obvious that they do, we should like to recall to their minds the fact that the Central Council, jockeyed into the acceptance of a report by the threat of resignation on the part of one of their committees, foisted upon the Exercise at their last meeting a batch of names for methods that are out of place and stupid in a science based on mathematics. The committee entrusted with the naming of the Minor methods had a splendid opportunity of purging ringing of some of those ludicrous names which have come down to us from the past, and have frequently made the Exercise a laughing-stock. Instead, they emphasised and perpetuated them, by adding to a class of titles which are positively silly when applied to ringing.

As to whether we call a method Lancashire or Lancaster, Yorkshire or York, is of little importance while we have such titles as Marigold or Geranium. Happily the resolutions of the Central Council are not as unalterable as the laws of the Medes and Persians, and we yet hope we may see the whole collection of garden, and other equally unsuitable names, swept away. After all, ringing has passed beyond the nursery stage, and it is due to those who treat the science seriously that, when they want to ring a new method, they should be able to publish their performance under some title that will not bring ridicule upon them or upon the art they seek to foster. And there is danger in the future. If the Exercise is going to swallow the kind of thing that was foisted on it at the last Council meeting, worse may follow when the Major methods come to be dealt with, but it would be a simple thing for the Council to wipe out those present titles, and substitute something more rational and more in accord with the seriousness of the art.

CORRECTIONS TO PEAL COLLECTION.

AMENDMENTS TO SECTION II.

The following amendments to Section II, of the Central Council's Peal Collection are to be issued as a Corrigenda, but for the benefit of those who already possess a copy of this publication, the details are here given so that ringers may make the alterations in the copies already in their hands:

Page 145, No. 2.—For 'single halfway and end,' read 'single for bob at M in 6th and 12th parts.'

Page 153, No. 21.—For 'fifth course-ends,' read 'fifth course.' Omit the following note: 'If the 4th and 5th courses . . . 5088.' This calling produces rounds at the first part-end.

Page 170, No. 65.—FALSE (5200 by J. H. Pilkington). The peal will be true if M be substituted for R in the calling throughout the Peal, and the figures be altered, as follows:

23456 W B M

53462 — 1 —

45236 — — —

24653 — — —

62345 — — —

42356 — 1 —

34625 — — —

63542 — — —

58234 — — —

35264 — — —

Page 185, No. 97.—The calling of the last course but one should read '64235, 4 B M,' not '4 B R.'

Page 208, No. 139.—Add Bob under R in 7th course, thus:— '53462 M R.' In 15th course, read '24536' for '23536.'

Page 255, No. 2.—For 'W B M R,' read 'M B W R.'

Page 261—265.—For 'H. H. Wilde,' read 'H. W. Wilde.'

Page 267, No. 26.—FALSE (7008 by A. P. Heywood). But a true peal of 7392 is had by calling the first part as the second. For a true 7008 call the Peal as printed except for the 1st and 9th courses, the calling of which must be transposed, thus:—

M B W R

First course 42356

Ninth course 52364 — — —

The opening course of all the remaining parts will have one call at R only, as shown.

A FALSE PEAL.

DISCOVERED AFTER 35 YEARS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir.—As it has been found that the composition of our peal No. 186, 7,008 Double Oxford Bob Major, rung at Duffield on April 23rd, 1887, is false, we have no option but to withdraw the peal from our records.—Yours faithfully,

A. C. WRIGHT.

Hon. Sec., Midland Counties Association.

LANCASHIRE SURPRISE.To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Will you allow me to make a few remarks in reply to Mr. Burton, in your issue of November 9th, in which he advocates changing the title of the above method to Lancaster. Firstly, the Lancashire Association has no power either to name or re-name a method. Secondly, in this case the right to re-name rests either with, or by consent of the author. No doubt Mr. Craven's idea was to give Lancashire ringers a method named after their own county and association, as with Yorkshire Surprise, which seems quite logical, as appealing to ringers in its broadest sense. Mr. Burton appears to cast ridicule on the shires. Well, Lancaster is noted for its ancient 'jail,' its asylum, and its total indifference in matters pertaining to change ringing. After this we can have another method named after the county town if necessary, but that Lancashire Surprise should remain as it stands is the wish of, Yours truly,

J. MARTIN.

12, Bankfield Street, Liverpool.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Dear Sir,—I do heartily agree with good Mr. Burton when he says 'Rochester' is a pretty name, but I don't agree with him when he says 'Lancashire' is not pretty. I would remind good Mr. Burton that from a Lancastrian's point of view 'Norfolk' is not as pretty as Lancashire, and that's that in a nutshell. Opinions in all quarters differ on the subject of 'Names for Methods,' but, after all, does it matter? We all know why things have names, and perhaps if methods could speak they would be as wroth with their sponsors as some of those mortals who are condemned to go through life with 'Jezebel Jane' and 'Mafeking John' tacked to their necks. I, on my part, did venture to read ye paragraph by ye good Squire Bracondale to Good Mistress Peppery who did remark—yes, Worcestershire sauce is good, so is ye Cheshire cheese, especially ye one hard by St. Bride's, noted for its steak puddings, but ye good Squire has forgotten that Yorkshire relish is great as a Surprise. Norfolk dumplings are a real delicacy (I have one and I know how nice they are), and ye good Method of Double Norwich, of which I did prate so often did at once call to her mind ye delicacy known as 'Coleman's Mustard.' So what's in a name after all? And did wind up by reminding me to remind ye good Squire that Lancashire is also noted for its clogs, and the finesse with which ye denizens of ye County Palatine can use 'em to displace over-prominent shurt buttons.—Yours very sincerely,

SAMIWELL PEPPERY.

GLOUCESTER & BRISTOL ASSOCIATION.

The Bristol branch of the above Association held its quarterly meeting on Saturday, November 10th. Ringing took place at St. Nicholas' Church in the afternoon, several lady members taking part. Service, at which the Rev. W. Parton officiated, was followed by tea at the C.E.M.S. House, St. Stephen Street. At the meeting over 40 members were present, representing the following towers: St. Nicholas, St. Stephen's, S. Werburgh's, SS. Philip and James', St. Matthew's, St. Michael's, St. Thomas', S. James', S. Leonard's, Henbury, Mangotsfield, Coalpit Heath, Olveston, Winterbourne, and Westbury-on-Trym. The Rev. E. J. Phillips presided. — Miss Dorothy and Miss Bertha Gordon, of St. Philip's, and Mr. G. Gihben, of St. Michael's, were elected members. The meeting for December was fixed for Brislington on Saturday, the 8th, while the annual meeting of the branch is to take place at St. Philip and St. Jacob on Saturday, January 26th.

The Rev. T. C. Fowler proposed a hearty vote of thanks for the use of the bells, and to the Rev. W. Parton for his address, also to the authorities of the C.E.M.S. House for kindly allowing the use of the rooms.

This concluded the business, which was followed by a meeting of the Bristol United Guilds in connection with the third annual dinner, which is to take place at the Grand Hotel, Broad Street, Bristol, on Saturday, January 12th.

CONDUCTORS ALL.To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In your last issue a correspondent from Milton, Kent, asks if six extents of London Surprise Minor have ever been called before by six separate conductors. I answer in the affirmative. When I was a member of the band of ringers at Bucknall, Staffs, we not only rang London Surprise in this way, but other Surprise and Treble Bob Methods. On Tuesday, August 25th, 1896, we rang a hand-conducted Surprise peal (5,040 changes) in seven methods, the tenor man calling the first 720 and the last one. And on Saturday, April 6th, 1897, we rang a silent peal of Surprise in seven methods. Now that there are so many conductors in the Milton band I would suggest they try to emulate the above two peals, the latter especially will provide them with occasion for practice for some time to come. Wishing the band every success, and hoping they will continue to make progress in the noble art of bell ringing, Yours truly,

JOHN E. WHEELDON.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The one hundredth peal of Stedman Cinques by the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild was rung at Bow, Cheapside, on Saturday. Probably the only two other societies which have this distinction are the College Youths, and the St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham. Of the Middlesex Association's peals, 39 have been on handbells.

It will not be long before the one hundredth peal of Stedman Cinques on the famous bells in the Bull Ring will be rung. This is quite a unique record for any church.

It is interesting to note that the peal of Stedman Cinques rung at High Wycombe, the report of which was published last week, was the first by parishioners of Wycombe. A week previously the All Saints' Society rang the first peal of Stedman Triples by Wycombe men.

The report of a peal rung at Radstock, Somerset, has been sent without the time.

In the long history of record peal attempts is a peal which was rung on November 23rd, 1732, at St. Giles', Cripplegate. This was 6,012 Grandsire Caters rung by the Society of City Scholars, a long defunct organisation, in which it took three men to ring the tenor.

The same length in the same method was rung at Southwark on November 28th, 1735.

On November 25th, 1737, one of the earliest and longest peals of Bob Major was rung at West Ham. This was a 15,120 rung by the Eastern Scholars, and although a similar length was rung at Oldham in 1807, we believe it is still the longest peal rung in the method.

To-morrow is the anniversary of the first peal of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus on handbells, which was rung at Sheffield on November 24th, 1816. It is also the 80th anniversary of a peal of 5,295 Stedman Caters rung at St. Andrew's, Norwich.

Recorded on a tablet in the tower of St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, are particulars of a peal of 6,006 Grandsire Cinques rung on November 25th, 1799, by the old Union Society. This, of course, was not the longest length in the method at the time, for the same length had been rung more than 70 years earlier by the London Scholars, and an 8,008 was rung in 1735 at Southwark, but it was a good performance for a provincial tower in those days.

The centenary of a peal of Treble Bob at St. Andrew's, Norwich, will occur on December 5th. From the present condition of affairs in that tower, there is, we are afraid, no likelihood of an anniversary celebration at St. Andrew's, at all events.

The Rev. F. R. Bonsey, president of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, has been appointed Rector of Wrentham, Suffolk, and on Saturday a peal of 'welcome' was rung for him.

His many friends throughout the Exercise will learn with regret that Mr. John Carter, who was unable to attend the College Youths dinner on account of ill-health, is still very unwell.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

The monthly meeting of the Devizes Branch was held at Bratton on Saturday, October 27th. After ringing during the afternoon, the usual Guild service was held, conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. W. A. Jeayes. The bells of Edington Church were also available during the afternoon, and a goodly number assembled there. About 20 sat down to tea, including the Vicar and Dr. Locket (Bratton). The following towers were represented: Trowbridge, Bradford-on-Avon, Westbury, Devizes, St. John's and St. Mary's Keovil; Holt, Rowde and Bratton. — The Branch Chairman (Mr. C. D. Heginbotham) heartily thanked the Rev. Jeayes for his kindness, to which the Vicar suitably replied. A hearty welcome was also given to Dr. Locket. Further ringing was afterwards indulged in.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES FAITHFULL.

For 35 years steeplekeeper at St. Mary's, Acton, Mr. James Faithfull has passed away. Locally known as 'Jimmy, the Bellringer,' he was every Sunday 'faithful' in name and faithful to his calling in ringing the faithful to the church.

He was buried on Thursday of last week, and in the evening a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled: F. Goodfellow 1, W. Lawrence 2, S. D. Breeze 3, Miss P. Moss 4, H. Wincote 5, R. Fardon (conductor) 6, G. W. Coulson 7, J. W. Fruin 8.

COLLEGE YOUTHS' NEW MASTER.MR. TOM HIBBERT'S ELECTION.

At their meeting last week the College Youths elected Mr. R. T. Hibbert as Master for the ensuing year. Mr. A. A. Hughes was re-elected hon. treasurer; Mr. P. E. Clark was elected senior steward; Mr. W. Hibbert junior steward; Messrs. C. F. Winney and Walter Prime were re-appointed trustees, and Mr. W. T. Cockerill hon. secretary.

Mr. W. E. Garrard, the retiring Master, is the leading spirit among the ringers at the famous Church of St. Mary Abbot, Kensington, where since 1893, he has laboured assiduously in the art. At that time the bells were rung by a 'stone' band, but Mr. Garrard trained a company of change ringers, and for the last twenty-six years the bells have been rung every Sunday for morning and evening service. What that has meant in labour to the man responsible is known only to those who have carried out a similar task, and in Mr. Garrard, London ringing has one of its most able as well as one of its most modest exponents.

The election of Mr. Tom Hibbert, of Reading, as Master of the Ancient Society, is a notable event, for it is long since a 'provincial' member, residing as far from London as Reading, has filled the principal office. But Mr. Hibbert is an old member of the Society, he has taken part with them in more than one memorable performance, and during the period he has served as steward, he has been constant in his attendance, despite the journey that has been involved.

There are many in the long list of Masters of the Ancient Society of College Youths who have made a distinct contribution of personality in attaining to this high office, but none more so than he who has just been elected for the ensuing twelve months. A true son of the Berkshire Downs, he is strongly attached by many ties to the little village of East Ilsley, his native place, where greatly to his joy, and very largely to his credit, there is now a beautiful little ring of eight bells replacing the old peal of five upon which he commenced his ringing career.

His work for the G.W.R. Company has taken him into various parts of the country, where he has always made friends, and where he has left behind him a reputation of as fine a handler of a bell, big or little, as one could wish to see.

A member of many associations, his longest connection has been with the Oxford Diocesan Guild, of which he is the valued secretary, and that society of which he is now Master. He has for many years resided at Caversham, where he is a staunch member of the St. Peter's Society, and deputy foreman. Chief among his many ringing achievements are perhaps the record peal of Stedman Cinques at Southwark, and the longest peal ever rung by ten men (Stedman Caters at Appleton).

Mention may also be made of the fact that he has rung peals at the heavy end on the three heaviest rings of eight, ten, and twelve in the kingdom.

His speeches are plain, straight and vigorous, with occasional touches of a quaint humour which is absolutely his own. He is possessed of a frown which has been known to alarm strangers; it is, however, merely indicative of concentration of thought and tenacity of purpose, except when the ringing is bad, when it signifies a state of feelings quite beyond words.

He is known to all his friends as 'Old Tom,' and to know him is to love him.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Hinckley District was held at Earl Shilton on Saturday, November 3rd, a large number attending from Barwell, Croft, Chilvers Coton, Earl Shilton, Hinckley, Leicester, Sharnford, Stoney Stanton, Stockingford and Wigston.

A short service was held in church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. V. Williams), and an interesting address was given by the Rev. R. P. Farrow (Rector of Stoney Stanton). Tea was partaken of in the Schools, the Vicar and his wife kindly inviting the visitors to be their guests.

The business meeting was presided over by the vice-president (Mr. C. H. Webb), supported by the Vicar.—One new member from Earl Shilton was elected to the association.

A vote of condolence with Mr. and Mrs. J. Needham, of Barwell, in the loss of their son was carried, the company showing their sympathy by standing for a minute in silence.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Barwell.

Votes of thanks were accorded to all who assisted in arrangements for tea, especially the ladies, and thanks were also given to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the Rev. R. P. Farrow for his interesting address.

The Vicar afterwards delivered an address on bell ringing, from the viewpoint of a non-ringing clergyman. Members then visited the belfry and rang touches in Standard Methods, including Grand-sire and Stedman Triples. Erin Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich Major, and Kent Treble Bob Major.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT SECRETARY'S RESIGNATION.

The annual meeting of the Portsmouth district was held at Fareham on Saturday last, when 30 members were present from Alverstoke, Bishops Waltham, Curdridge, Fareham, Gosport, Portsmouth, Southampton, Swanmore, Titchfield and Wickham. Messrs. F. S. Bayley, G. Williams (Master) and Rev. E. Banks James were also present; an apology for absence was received from the general secretary (Mr. G. Pullinger). A short service was held in the church, the Guild's form of service being used, at which the Vicar of Fareham (the Rev. J. E. Tarbat) officiated.

An excellent tea awaited the company at Foster's Restaurant, where the business meeting was also held, Mr. W. Tate occupying the chair. The balance sheet was presented by the auditor (Mr. H. G. Reynolds), and was unanimously adopted. — One new member and two probationers were elected.

The election of officers was the next item, and the hon. secretary (Mr. E. J. Harding, sen.) informed those present that he had made up his mind to relinquish the post. He had been an officer of the district for the past 18 years, and had found during recent years that he could not pay attention to the affairs of the district as he would like. At the present time the district was in a healthy condition, and he thought that by retiring now he would be doing it honourably.—He was urged by the members and also by the Master to reconsider the question, but he thought the time had come when a young enthusiastic secretary was what the district required. It was with regret that the members accepted his resignation, and thanked him for his past services. At the request of the members Mr. F. W. Rogers was asked to fill the vacancy.

As he is Recorder of Peals for the Guild he thought it was not in order, but said that if he could do the Guild more good by accepting he would do so. The work of the Peal Recorder was rather a tame one, and at the members' request he decided to accept.

The rest of the officers were elected en bloc, viz. Hon. auditor (Mr. H. G. Reynolds); representatives on Central Committee, Messrs. H. J. Smith and W. Tate.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Curdridge on March 1st, due notice of which will appear in the 'Ringing World.'

SUGGESTED NEW TITLE FOR THE GUILD.

A letter from the general secretary with reference to the division of the diocese was next placed before the meeting for consideration and discussion.

The Chairman mentioned that a resolution had already been forwarded from the district to the effect that the district was strongly in favour of the whole Guild continuing as such, and the meeting endorsed that resolution.

The Rev. E. Banks James thought it would be a disastrous thing to contemplate a splitting up of the Guild. He had attended the meeting especially to place before the members a title which he thought would cover the whole area of the present Guild. The full title which he proposed was 'The Wessex Association for the Dioceses of Winchester, Guildford and Portsmouth.' The Guild would then be known in short as 'The Wessex Association.' Continuing, he said that if we looked back in history we would find that Winchester was the capital of ancient Wessex, which latter covered the proposed three dioceses, and he thought that 'The Wessex Association' would be an admirable title for the Guild to accept.

This proposed title was accepted unanimously, the Rev. E. Banks James being thanked for his fine suggestion.

The Chairman proposed the usual vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for conducting the service, after which the ringers returned to the tower. The methods rung were: Grand-sire and Stedman Triples, Bob and Double Norwich Major, Superlative, Cambridge and London Surprise.

THE ARTHUR T. KING MEMORIAL FUND.To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly publish the balance sheet of the above-mentioned fund, which I append? My committee wish to convey to the numerous friends of the late Mr. King, who subscribed to this fund, their sincere thanks for enabling us to erect two permanent and appropriate tablets to his memory. It is very gratifying to know that many, other than members of his own association, wished to identify themselves with his memorial, and to them, as well as to our members, we are grateful.—Yours faithfully,

C. T. COLES.

THE COLLEGE YOUTHS' DINNER.

Mr. G. R. Fardon next proposed the toast of 'The London and Provincial Ringing Societies,' and referred to the feeling of brotherhood which existed between the College Youths and the kindred organisations of the country. He threw out the suggestion that it would be nice if the College Youths could be given the opportunity of ringing a peal occasionally at St. Martin's, or some other tower of the Cumberland Youths in London. He went on to express regret at the disappearance from among the ringing societies of London of the old Waterloo Society, which formerly was the means of bringing on many young ringers. Mr. Fardon added that while in the Isle of Wight last year he and some other ringers visited the grave of William Raynor, who founded the society of Union Youths in the Isle of Wight about the year 1777. They rang the handbells round the tomb, which he regretted to see was in a sad state of decay. He suggested that the Winchester Guild might consider the restoration of this memorial, as the Kent County Association had dealt with the tombstone of the great James Barham at Leeds.

INCREASING DIFFICULTIES.

Mr. J. D. Matthews, who first responded, said he looked upon their chairman and himself as the godfathers of the ringing brotherhood, by virtue of the position which they held as Masters of the two old London Societies (applause). They were the two oldest ringing societies in existence, and all the county associations and diocesan guilds were more or less offshoots of them. With regard to inviting the College Youths to ring peals in Cumberland towers, he would be very glad if Mr. Fardon would tell him how he could get one of the Cumberland towers for a peal for his own society, much less for someone else (laughter). Continuing, Mr. Matthews said an article had appeared that week in 'The Ringing World' telling them how to put their house in order in London, but he was afraid the difficulties in connection with ringing in London were not fully appreciated by those outside the Metropolis. The officers of the College Youths would know that the difficulties were increasing in regard to the twelve bell towers in London. People complained about the bells being rung for peals, and it was impossible to keep a regular Sunday company going at many of these towers. When some of the towers had been shut up, it had been the towers where peal ringing had been most frequent, and it behooved them to consider whether the closing of some of these towers had not been due to their own selfish action. Directly a peal of bells was put into order, if they were asked to furnish a Sunday band they would not be able to do so, but the Vicar would be flooded with applications for permission for peals. He thought this was a position which they as London ringers ought to safeguard and in their own interests see that these towers did not get closed through over-use for peal ringing. In view of the difficulties which they were experiencing, he thought the next best thing they could do was to try and ring peals together on handbells (applause).

The Rev. F. L. Edwards responded for the Provincial Societies, and referred to the courtesy which country ringers always experienced when they visited the London Societies in their towers. He trusted that this spirit of good fellowship would ever continue, and that the time would never come when London ringers would fail to give such a hearty welcome and fraternal greeting to their brothers from the country (applause).

Mr. C. H. Horton submitted the toast of 'The Visitors,' and read some amusing extracts from ancient records, showing how visitors were sometimes treated in olden days. The Ancient Society of College Youths was proud that evening to welcome so many guests, and he assured those connected with the various churches in London that the Society was always ready to help them in any way connected with the bells of their churches, for they recognised that it was by the kindly courtesy of the church authorities that they were able to progress and to accomplish those peals, of which they had the records in their peal books (applause).

THE BELLS AS A PARABLE.

The Rector of Stepney replied in a thoughtful speech, which was lit up by many touches of humour. Briefly referring to some of the historical associations between his church and the city, he mentioned that the tenor bell at Stepney was cast for the Monastery in the Minorites, in 1346. In thanking the Society for their invitation to the visitors, he remarked that the clergy appreciated the opportunity once a year of thanking the ringers for what they did. He was very much indebted to Mr. Langdon for his personal help, and he also wanted to thank Mrs. Hughes for the great assistance she gave him, by her handbell ringing, at a parochial soiree. Personally, he continued, he would love a peal at Stepney every week, but that was not possible on account of the inhabitants and the shopkeepers who had to carry on their business right under the walls of the tower. They had to admit that constant peals would be a little difficult for those people who lived close to the bells. At the same time, even if business was carried on round the tower there was something wonderful in the ringing of the bells which permeated the whole commercial life going on beneath it. Through it all there was the sounding of a note which, by awakening a religious consciousness, created an atmosphere that must raise the tone of the secular life going on around. It was indeed a parable of what religion ought to be at any time, permeating the whole secular life of the nation, raising it to heaven, as the notes of the bells raised the thoughts of them all to higher things. For that he rendered them most cordial thanks (applause).

Mr. W. D. Smith proposed the toast of 'The Press,' and referring to 'The Ringing World,' expressed regret that in so many towers the ringers were content to take only one copy for the whole band instead of supporting it by taking a copy each, and thus enabling the scope of the paper to be extended by the fact of its much larger circulation.

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith (Editor of 'The Ringing World'), responded, and remarked upon the increasing notice which was being taken of bells by some of the leading journals in the land, articles having appeared which were likely to encourage public appreciation of ringing. With regard to the College Youths, he said he felt sure that the members of the society throughout the country, and ringers generally, would like to see published more details of what the society was doing. At present very little was ever heard of them except for the peals they rang, and on the occasion of that gathering, but some more frequent notice of their activities would be greatly interesting, for there was no need for such an ancient and honourable society to hide its light under a bushel.

This concluded the speechmaking, and the very pleasant gathering came to a close with 'Auld Lang Syne' and the National Anthem.

The musical programme included two fine songs by Capt. Freeborn, 'Songs of Araby,' and 'I pass by your window,' sung in response to the demand for an encore. Mr. James Bullock was also encoered for the song 'Down Vauxhall Way,' and sang 'Come to the Fair.' Mr. H. Castell, the accompanist, also sang. The feature of this part of the programme was, however, again the handbell playing of Mrs. A. A. Hughes, who, to harp accompaniment by Mr. E. A. Young, played 'Meditation' (Bach-Gounod), of which she gave a beautiful rendering, and an old favourite in 'Ash Grove,' in which her skill in handling the large number of bells was fully manifested.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The Central Committee of the Kent County Association held their autumn meeting at Tonbridge on Saturday. Among other business, it was decided to hold the annual general meeting on Whitsun Monday, either at Sevenoaks or Westerham.

Grants from the Belfry Repairs Fund were made to Eltham, Lamberhurst, Cheriton, Teynham, and S. Nicholas-at-Wade.

The secretary was authorised to settle Messrs. Mears and Stainbank's account for the erection of the two trebles at Canterbury; and it was decided that by permission of the Dean and Chapter a marble tablet should be placed in one of the panels under the tower recording the fact that the two bells were hung in the tower above as a memorial to the fifty-six members of the association who fell in the war.

LEWISHAM DISTRICT SECRETARYSHIP.

The annual meeting of the Lewisham District was held at Lewisham on Saturday, Oct. 27th. During the afternoon and evening, touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Treble Bob, Double Norwich, and Cambridge Surprise Major were accomplished, London Surprise Major failing. Owing to the illness of the Vicar (Canon Roseveare) the Rev. J. H. A. Chanvel (curate) officiated at the service, and gave a very interesting address on church workers.—Mr. W. Whitehead (organist) kindly presided at the organ.

Tea followed in the Schools, the Rev. Chanvel joining the party, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him for taking the service and giving the address.

The business meeting followed, Mr. W. J. Jeffries presiding.—Twelve new members were elected, and Dartford was selected as the place of next meeting on the last Saturday in January.

The District Secretary (Mr. T. Groombridge) then read his annual report, which was adopted.

The Chairman announced that Mr. T. Groombridge wished to be released from office, and it had been hoped Mr. H. Audsley would have filled the post, but he stated that he found it would be impossible, and no one seemed anxious to take it on. Mr. A. G. Hill, of Erith, volunteered to act as assistant secretary, and thereupon Mr. T. Groombridge was re-elected, with Mr. A. G. Hill as assistant, to carry on for the year.

Mr. W. J. Jeffries and Mr. I. Emery were re-elected as representatives on the Association Committee.—The assistant secretary was asked to write a letter of sympathy to Canon Roseveare, who had undergone an operation, and also to thank him for granting permission to hold the meeting at Lewisham.

A hearty vote of thanks to the organist, Mr. H. Warnett, the caretaker of the schools, and the chairman, concluded the meeting, the members returning to the church for ringing until 9 p.m.

RUTLAND SURPRISE.

Dear Sir,—I am rather surprised at the contents of Mr. Carter's letter, regarding the definition of Surprise. Mr. Carter was one of the members of the committee (and all the other members with the exception of Mr. Dains are still living) that framed the definition. Mr. Carter does not make himself very clear regarding his objection to 'Bristol' and 'Rutland,' but I imagine he thinks an internal place should be made at the treble's whole pull behind. I do not take that position as a cross section of the treble's path. It is like the whole pull at lead. A dead end, the only way out is to go back. It is the starting and finishing place.

Mr. Carter also states that 'Rutland' Major, Royal and Maximus are three different methods. I must respectfully inform him that he is mistaken, and I ask him to extend the same on to 14 and 16 bells, when he will find that on all numbers where there are an odd number of pairs of bells (i.e., Royal 5 pairs, 14 bells 7 pairs) the pivot place will be made in 3rd's place instead of 1st's place, as is the case on all numbers with an even number of pairs of bells. The odd pair of bells dodge in 1-2. This is a new feature and I expected some comment.—Yours truly,

ARTHUR CRAVEN.

Stannington near Sheffield, Nov. 5th, 1923.

BIRTH.

GILBERT.—On November 14th, at Rainham, Kent, to the wife of C.Q.M.S. Geo. Gilbert, R.E., a son.

ANOTHER PEAL OF SIX IN DEVON.SHUTE BELLS REHUNG.

Shute, a Devon village, between Axminster and Honiton, has just had its ring of bells increased to six. This has been made possible by the efforts of Mr. Arthur S. Hutchinson (Diocesan reader, and captain of the ringers), who raised funds for the addition of a new treble and the rehanging of the whole. The dedication was performed by the Bishop of Exeter, who, in the course of an interesting address, said a peal of bells was absolutely English. "When you listen to a peal of bells," said the Bishop, "it is not merely the sound you hear, but the notes, that tell of England's greatness, from those iron tongues." There was a time when they were going to take down the bells in some towers, and put up things which would make a clanging noise. There were still some towers where the bells were not rung as they should be. In every town he would like to see the bells properly rung, according to the good old custom of England—rung round in full peal. Concluding, his Lordship appealed to ringers to ring the bells with reverence—with a double reverence—for, firstly, they were a part of the country—with all its peculiarities, with all its greatness—and, secondly, because they were a part of the worship of God, and preached a sermon. "As you ring, whether it be at a practice or before a service, whether you toll for a death or ring a merry peal after a marriage, say a prayer that the peal you ring may bring to the hearts of people that message of penitence to the sinner, a thought to the careless, peace to the troubled, and, above all, to true-hearted worshippers, carry a message to come to God's house, and there sing those praises which the bells had begun."

Ringings afterwards took place, by teams from Taunton, Honiton, Clyst, East Budleigh, Chaffcombe, Colyton, Bucknell, Uplyme, Cotleigh, Northleigh, Seaton, Offwell, Widworthy, Musbury, Dalwood, Kilmington, and members of the old Colyton band of ringers. A notable visitor was the Rev. E. V. Cox.

Tea was served in the Schoolroom, and a large company sat down at the tables.—The Vicar extended a cordial welcome to the Bishop, and voiced the pleasure felt at his Lordship's presence at the church service. The Vicar also paid a tribute to Mr. A. Hutchinson, to whose energy the improvements in the belfry were entirely due.—The Bishop, in reply, said Mr. Hutchinson was of the type of men who, by their unselfish work, had made England great.

The whole of the restoration was entrusted to Messrs. T. Doble and Son, Taunton, who have carried out the work in a highly satisfactory manner. Great satisfaction was expressed with the 'go' of the bells by the large number of ringers present.

A RESTORED WELSH RING.HAVERFORDWEST BELLS DEDICATED.

St. Mary's Parish Church, Haverfordwest, is now in proud possession of a melodious ring of eight bells. Up to some years ago there hung in the belfry eight old bells, in a dilapidated timber framework. The fittings were quite worn out, and unable to carry the bells with safety. It was, therefore, decided to send the bells to the famous foundry of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, who are to be congratulated on the excellent quality of their work. The bells are now of splendid tone. The tenor has been recast, and is worthy of special note. Its weight is one ton; and it bears the inscription, 'I will do my best for Haverfordwest.' The other seven bells have been returned, and hung with self-aligning ball bearings in totally enclosed dustproof housings. The old oak frame has been bolted together, and the 'go' of the bells is now most satisfactory.

The dedication was performed by the Very Rev. the Archdeacon of St. Davids on November 8th. Special hymns were sung, and the Archdeacon gave a very interesting and inspiring address to a large number of the inhabitants of the town and district who had assembled to witness the ceremony. After the Blessing, the band of St. Catherine's, Gorsemonon, made their way to the ringing chamber, raised the bells in peal, and rang a well-struck touch of 616 Grand-sire Triples: C. Willis 1, R. Baird 2, J. Williams 3, H. Willis 4, A. Sluman 5, W. Dobbins 6, J. Williams (conductor) 7, W. Dobbins 8. The Vicar and churchwardens came, and congratulated the band on their fine ringing and striking. The bells had not previously been rung since 1890. The ringers were entertained to dinner at the Mariner's Hotel, and afterwards further ringing took place in several methods, including two 504 of Grand-sire Triples by R. Dobbins 1, H. Willis 2, J. Williams 3, R. Baird 4, A. Sluman 5, W. Dobbins 6, J. Williams (conductor) 7, W. Dobbins 8. The bells were lowered in peal. Afterwards an excellent tea was enjoyed by the ringers.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar and churchwardens for their welcome and hospitality.

It is interesting to note that those old bells are the same that rang Oliver Cromwell to Haverfordwest.
