ST. GEORGE'S CHAPEL, WINDSOR CASTLE

St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle

By KENNETH BUCKINGHAM

HER Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George rises within the walls of Windsor Castle, residence of kings and queens of England, a magnificent example of the Perpendicular style of architecture; but its bells are hung in the Curfew Tower, which is very plain by comparison and was completed in 1230 as part of the outer defences.

It is interesting to note that neither the present chapel nor its predecessor, built by Henry III, included a tower suitable for bells within its structure, and the bells have hung throughout their 700 years' history in detached towers. The first was built to the King's order, dated 20th August, 1243, which concluded "... and a stone turret at the front of the same chapel in which may be hung three or four bells." This was followed on 11th February, 1249-1250, by a writ issued to Edward Fitz Odo of Westminster "That he cause to be made by Master John de Seynt, of the metal which remained from the great bell of Westminster, four bells to be put in the chapel of the Castle of Windsor, namely two like those which are in the King's chapel of St. Stephen, Westminster, and another two according as the subprior of Westminster shall tell him for the King."

The tower was in need of repair by the end of the century, and eventually the foundation of the Order of the Garter by Edward III in 1348 led to improvements to the chapel, including the building of a new bell tower in 1359-60. This was a fine square tower surmounted by a spire which served its purpose well for over a century until the bells were transferred to the Clewer Tower in 1478/9. The old bell tower became the residence of the Governor of the Military Knights and may still be seen in the middle of a line of military knights' residences facing the south side of the chapel.

DOMED CUPOLA

The bells had become a ring of five named Aston, George, John, Mary and Jesu by the time of their transfer, and they were hung in a bell cage surmounted by a domed cupola rising above the level of the ramparts. The tenor was recast by Richard Eldridge in 1598 but in 1612 John Wallis, a well-known bellfounder of Salisbury, recast all the bells, together with a large clock bell, to make a ring of six. Three still remain, the present 4th, 6th and 7th, but he had trouble with the tenor which was recast five times before being sold to defray College debts. Nine years later, in 1623, they bought another tenor which was evidently second-hand for it is dated 1614. Although cast by John Wallis, this is clearly not the original tenor for the plain lettering and English inscription are quite different from the special ornate letters and Latin inscriptions used in 1612.

In 1650, during the occupation of the Castle by Cromwell's army, the bells were augmented to eight by recasting the treble and the addition of two smaller bells. The work was carried out by William Whitmore, an itinerant bellfounder, who was in the district casting bells at Langley Marsh in 1649, and two of his bells, the 2nd and 3rd, remain to this day. Thomas Lester, of the Whitechapel Foundry, recast Whitmore's treble in 1741 and also the fifth by Wallis in 1745; but the fifth was recast again in 1898 by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, when they rehung all the bells with new headstocks, bearings, clappers, wheels and pulleys. This was the last major work on the bells, although the tenor was rehung in roller bearings in 1922 and the rest of the bells in 1948.

THE INSCRIPTIONS

The bells, with their inscriptions, are as follows:—

Treble.—THOMAS LESTER OF LONDON MADE ME FEBRUARY THE 20 1741.

Second.—1650 W. WHITMORE MADE ME. INCIPIT DVLCCE CEQVAR.

Third.—1650 W W.

Fourth.—VENITE EXVLTEMVS IW 1612.

Fifth.—MEARS ET STAINBANK LONDINI FECERUNT. On waist: IN HDNORE S: GEORGH MARTIRIS ET S: EDVARDI REGIS AC CONFESSARIS A.D. 1898.

Sixth.—VOX DEI GLORIOSA EST IW 1615.

Seventh.—NOS AVRIBVS NOBIS VOS CORDIBVS DEO SONATE IW 1612.

Tenor.—SEARAE THE LORD WITH FERE IW 1614.

The only bell of known weight is the 5th which is 12 cwt. 22 lb., while the tenor, with a diameter of 52 inches, tuned to D, is approximately 26 cwt.

The bells are chimed by means of an Ellacombe apparatus for the daily services by a steeplekeeper who until recently lived within the tower. They are also rung on certain special occasions throughout the year, mainly royal birthdays, by eight ringers appointed by the Dean and Chapter of St. George's.

On the first floor there is a clock by John Davis, of Windsor, dated 1689, which chimes the quarters and hours on the bells, together with the tune "St. David's" every three hours at 3, 6, 9 and 12 night and day.

NINE PEALS

Only nine peals have been rung on these bells, the first being on 21st February, 1748, 5,040 Union Trebles, and the next on 10th April, 1787, a 5,040 Grandsire Triples by the College Youths, with two men on the 7th and two on the tenor! The Cumberland Youths rang Holt's "Original" on 24th October, 1891, and the last six peals have been rung for the Oxford Diocesan Guild, namely:—

6th May, 1935.—5,056 Plain Bob Major: Conducted by E. S. T. Farr—for the Silver Jubilee of King George V.

8th June, 1956.—5,040 Grandsire Triples: Conducted by N. V. Harding—for Victory Day.

9th May, 1951.—5,040 Grandsire Triples: Conducted by L. Stilwell—for the Installation of King Frederick of Denmark as a Knight of the Garter and for the Festival of Britain.

19th February, 1960.—5,040 Grandsire Triples: Conducted by F. T. Blagrove—for the birth of Prince Andrew.

3rd November, 1961.—5,040 Grandsire Triples: Conducted by E. S. T. Farr—for the birth of Viscount Linley.

11th March, 1964.—5,040 Grandsire Triples: Conducted by F. T. Blagrove—for the birth of Prince Edward.

The Curfew Tower itself is a massive stone structure shaped like the letter D with the flat side towards the chapel and walls 13 feet thick at the base. It had been used as a storehouse and prison until 1478-9, when the bells were transferred thereto, but since then the interior has altered little. There is a stone-vaulted basement and on the ground floor a ringing chamber surrounded by rooms previously occupied by the steeplekeeper but which are now the offices of the Friends of St. George's. The first floor contains the clock mechanism, also an old cannon aimed at Windsor Bridge, and the bells hang in their frame in the storey above that.

The exterior received an extensive face-lift in the late 19th century, when the houses backing on to it from the town were removed. The walls were then completely refaced and a new roof added, styled on the Tour de la Peyre at Carcassonne in Southern France. Thus it remains to this day, an impressive home for the bells of St. George's Chapel, looking out across the town and the River Thames.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY RINGING

Dear Sir,—We were delighted to see Mr. Tonge reopen the debate on the disgraceful and scandalous "closed shop" attitude at Westminster Abbey. This issue needs to be fought with vigour until victory is won. If the Exercise is prepared to sit back and accept the status quo, or passively to adopt a defeatist attitude to this situation, this anachronism will never be swept away. The frequency with which the Westminster Abbey attitude towards ringing crops up everywhere in conversations between bellringers proves that it is a running sore needing urgent treatment.

It has always seemed to us a cowardly way out for the Abbey ringers to lay the blame completely upon the Abbey authorities. We are sure that no church bellringer worthy of the name would tolerate such a narrow-minded and selfish attitude in his own belfry, but would make a ceaseless agitation for its removal and would call in the support of all ringing organisations whose weight could be added to the fight.

We wonder how much effort the Abbey ringers themselves have put into making the authorities aware of how out-of-step with present-day ringing they are, and with what disdain and disgust they and their ringers are held for perpetuating this belfry "closed shop." There must be very many able diplomats on the Central Council who could have resolved this problem had their counsel or intervention been invited—that is, of course, if the Abbey ringers had really desired it!

The Abbey is not only a national shrine to which ringers as well as other people are drawn, but also a church, where services of worship are regularly held, and one would think that here of all places the bells should be rung frequently and regularly, and that if the "resident" band is incapable of ringing twice on Sundays and for all the major Church festivals, then competent bands from elsewhere should be not only allowed but invited to assist with the maintenance of a regular (not a casual) ringing programme.

The reply given to Mr. Tonge that if the bells were rung at other than the prescribed times the "people near the Abbey would wonder why," is the most ludicrous statement we have read for a long time. If a regular ringing programme were arranged then people would no longer "wonder why" any more than they would wonder why St. Margaret's bells were being rung. The author of the reply sent to Mr. Tonge must surely be the laughing stock of ringers everywhere.

Even the Roman Catholic Curia, as reactionary a body as one can find anywhere, is changing with the times. The Anglican authorities at Westminster Abbey are a hundred years behind the times—if it is they who are responsible for this antiquated, obstinate and selfish attitude!—Yours faithfully,

17s. 6d. A ROPE

Dear Sir,—I was interested to read the letter by Mr. Frank Tonge re the ridiculous, pathetic and childish closed shop that operates at Westminster Abbey.

The late Bill Hewitt once told me that he and others did their utmost to get the Abbey bells rung alternately with St. Margaret's. This was at the time of the restoration in 1919, but two people made it their business to veto this and the present "tradition" grew up.

The crux of the matter, of course, is the paying of ringing fees; no one is going to climb the endless steps and ring these very indifferent bells unless it is for 17s. 6d. a rope, and Mr. Editor, I submit that 17s. 6d. a rope is the sole reason for the closed shop.—Yours sincerely,

W. FRANK HANSARD.

SHERWOOD YOUTHS NEW SECRETARY

The annual general meeting of the Society of Sherwood Youths was held at St. Mary's, Nottingham, on December 30th. There was a good attendance and methods rung ranged from rounds to Surprise Royal. Tea was kindly arranged by Mrs. Foskett and helpers.

At the commencement of the business meeting members stood in silence to the memory of Mr. F. A. Salter, a past Master.

The secretary (Mrs. Foskett) reported a good year. The membership passing the 100 mark. She expressed the meeting's thanks to Mr. G. A. Dawson for renovating the Society's set of handbells. The secretary regretted that due to ill-health she would be unable to continue in office.

Officers elected were: Master, Mr. J. A. Dawson; Master-elect, Mr. D. Whetton; secretary, Mr. D. Stainsby; treasurer, Mr. W. Nichols; steward, Mr. R. Inglis.

The dates for meetings for 1968 are March 30th, June 29th, August 31st, November 30th and December 28th (A.G.M.).

The following were elected honorary life members: Miss I. Thompson, Mr. W. Nichols, Mr. E. C. Shepherd and Mr. C. W. Towers.

The secretary and treasurer were asked to investigate the ownership of the Doubleday Crofts Manuscripts which were thought to be the property of the Society. Mr. E. Hutchby reported that W. Doubleday Crofts' grave was falling into disrepair and it was agreed that this matter should also be investigated.

Mr. S. Fossey proposed a comprehensive vote of thanks to all those involved in making the meeting a success. D. S.

LONGER, BUT NOT PROGRESSIVE LENGTH

The record length of 11,872 Glasgow Surprise Major rung at Edgbaston on November 25th has been surpassed by 12,096 rung at Accrington on January 6th.

In view of the conditions of the Central Council governing progressive lengths not having been complied with, no claim is made for this to be so recorded. The organisers have asked for it to be recorded as a "long length." The ringers are content with the knowledge that what Birmingham has achieved in regard to Glasgow Surprise Major has been "unofficially" surpassed by Lancashire.

RECORD PEAL ATTEMPTS

Dear Sir,—With reference to the letter printed in "The Ringing World", of December 15th, 1967, written by Brian J. Woodruffe, it appears that several points have been raised requiring some elucidation.

(i) B. J. W. quotes from my notification letter (re 20,160 of Plain Bob Minor) that I "specifically request that no attempt be made to enquire about the progress of the peal". It is a pity that he has not quoted me accurately and completely, for had he done so the reasons would have become obvious why this request was made.

(ii) B. J. W. states:—

(a) "Why such hide-away measures?"—May I make it perfectly clear that there were no such measures and none intended.

(b) "The attempt should have taken place in a building where ringers could come and go at will."—Whilst there seems some merit in this statement it was considered that such a record attempt justified the most suitable and comfortable environment—there is no such building (or belfry) locally available—and further that compliance with the quote would not be conducive to our best ringing. However, having come to the decision of "where" and "why", I invited an observer from both the University of London and Winchester and Portsmouth Guilds to be present. (Those Guilds claim the two current handbell peal records that we were striving to exceed.)

(c) "What would A. H. Pulling have said to such secrecy."—I consider it untimely to B. J. W. to have been so discourteously presumptuous as to have made this remark of that much-respected ringer.

It appears that a further and more deep-rooted suggestion has been inferred by B. J. W.—that of the credibility of all handbell peal ringing in private places. If this be so then I consider he ought to be more trusting in his fellow ringers (I personally invite Brian to come and ring a handbell peal with us in Berkshire.)

In conclusion I would state that I had, previous to my giving notice in conformity with the rules, discussed the issue of this attempt (i.e., notification and composition) with both Wilfrid G. Wilson and Frank T. Blagrove. It would seem that these rules need some reform in both clarity and modernisation; if so, let us hope that consideration be given to this end at the next session of the Central Council.—Yours sincerely,

FRANK C. PRICE.

PLAIN BOB MINOR WITHOUT SINGLES

Dear Sir,—I am sure the whole Exercise are looking for the answer to Mr. F. Hector Bennett's request in "Belfry Gossip" ("Ringing World," page 935) for the composition of Mr. Frank Blagrove's peal of Plain Bob Minor at Dorney, Bucks ("Ringing World," page 882). This was of seven different extents, each obtained without singles.

Has Mr. Blagrove found a way to reverse the coursing order of a pair of bells in Plain Bob Minor to obtain the extent, by some new means?

Come on, Frank, don't keep me in suspense!—Yours sincerely,

JOHN A. ACRES.

OBITUARY

MR. ARTHUR CATTELL

Many will regret to hear of the passing of Mr. Arthur Cattell, of Leicester, at the age of 65, after a long illness. Over 50 years ago he joined the choir of All Saints', Leicester, and not long afterwards took up ringing. His whole life was spent in the furtherance of Christian activities. During the years that ringing was not possible at All Saints' he rang at the neighbouring Church of St. Margaret, but always nipped out smartly to attend service at his own church. His personal drive in 1946 enabled the tower of All Saints' to be repaired and the bells rehung. About this time he was made Vicar's warden.

A builder all his life, his last five years were spent as foreman on the new "do-it-yourself" church at Stocking Farm, Leicester, organising voluntary labour. This is one of the few modern church buildings having a tower ready to receive a small ring of six bells. The church was consecrated in the presence of H.R.H. Princess Margaret a year ago. Mr. Cattell's ashes have now been placed in the church's Garden of Remembrance.

MR. E. WILCOX

One of the oldest members of the Midland Counties Guild, which he joined in 1905, has died at Nuthall, Notts. He was Mr. E. Wilcox, aged 84, who died on January 5th. For many years he was a member of the Nuthall band.

MR. J. E. FIELDING

A former bellringer at Christ Church, Friezeand, Mr. John E. Fielding, died on January 2nd, aged 64 years. He was taught to ring at Friezeand and spent many years with their contest team. He had also been very active in the church life at St. John the Baptist's, Roughtown, where he had served as churchwarden for 15 years.

More recently Mr. Fielding had to cease his ringing activities due to ill-health, although he was still closely connected with his own team at Roughtown.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

THE FIRST TEN YEARS

Ten years ago the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association made an experiment in introducing a social meeting at Chester-le-Street. The original date chosen was January 18th, 1958, but this had to be changed to January 4th because of a prior booking of the Church Institute. The function was held on January 4th but before January 18th severe gales damaged the newly-restored spire and caused ringing to be suspended. Perhaps this was a good augury!

After the initial experiment as a combined District meeting the function was elevated to full Association status. It has continued at Chester-le-Street throughout the ten years, contending with very inclement weather on some occasions and a bus strike on another, and the latest gathering on January 6th, 1968, achieved a new record with almost all the 90 places set for tea occupied—and the correct number of names was received beforehand!

Ringing was available from 2 to 5 p.m. and concluded with a competition in striking between the three reorganised districts. The judges, from the Northern and Central Districts, showed that all was fair by awarding the prize to the Southern District. They had no hesitation in doing this as the Southern's course of Grandsire Triples was free from any serious blemish.

After tea the Rector led prayers to introduce carol singing, conducted by Ken Cheeseman, and then there followed a programme of dancing and games. Music for dancing was arranged by Ian Wintrip, Fred Hodgson provided another puzzle with his tape-recorder and Denis Bayles tried to provide one or two new twists to the games which have proved popular in past years.

A quarter peal of 1,320 Oxford Treble Bob Minor was rung at the Sunday evening memorial service at Roughtown on January 7th by A. Wheeler 1, W. H. Nield 2, B. D. Holt 3, G. Rigby 4, A. Farrand 5, G. Nield (cond.) 6.

MR. LESLIE WARNER

A ringer at Cranleigh Parish Church since the age of 15, Mr. Leslie Warner suffered a heart attack on Tuesday, January 10th, and died the next morning at St. Luke's Hospital, Guildford.

He was a chorister at the parish church for several years and a ringer for just over 50 years. He had not rung many peals but was a conscientious service ringer, always punctual for practices and service ringing. He had taught many young boys and girls to ring, from handling a bell to ringing the simpler methods.

Being a skilled carpenter, after the bells had been recast in 1951 he fixed an extra ceiling in the ringing room and filled the space between with soundproofing material. He also made a new stairway up to the bell chamber and designed and made many peal boards. This he did at no cost to the church: to him it was a labour of love.

It may interest some ringers to know that Cranleigh was famous for its oak and, before iron frames were used, Messrs. Holden and Sons, the predecessors of his employers, made bell frames of this material and sent them all over the country.

The funeral service took place at Cranleigh Parish Church on Monday, January 15th, at 2.30 p.m. E. R. W.

MR. W. THORNLEY, SEN.

We have received news of the death on November 25th, 1967, of Mr. W. Thornley, sen., at his home, 159, Brookhill Street, Stapleford, Notts. He was elected to the Midland Counties Guild in 1924 and later joined the Southwell Guild. Little is known of his ringing career. He was always at Stapleford Church on Sundays and as far back as 1944 he had rung over 100 peals. S. A.

All too soon it was time for the ladies to brew up again so that what remained from tea could be consumed for supper before the party dispersed. The reputation of the ladies of Chester-le-Street was sustained by their latest efforts, and these were duly acknowledged by Bill Tyson in an omnibus vote of thanks to them and all who had contributed to the success of the evening. D. A. B.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

Ringers from a wide area attended the annual general meeting of the North East Branch of the Devon Guild at Tiverton on January 6th. The service in St. Peter's Church was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. C. S. Nye), and the Guild president (Preb. J. H. B. Andrews) was present.

Reporting on the past year, Mr. G. W. Hollis (secretary-treasurer) said that membership had fallen a little, but financially the Branch was holding its own and had £66 in the bank.

Officers elected were: Chairman, Preb. G. Hodgson; Ringing Master, W. H. Ware; secretary-treasurer, G. W. Hollis; committee, the officers and H. Ransom, F. Down and P. Cook.

Ringing included good touches of Grandsire, Plain Bob Major and Stedman. Tea was served by lady members and wives of members of the local band.

Next quarterly meeting: Bampton (provisional).

DEVIZES BRANCH RECEIVE TROPHY

The official acceptance of a trophy presented to the Branch by the Ringing Masters for an annual striking competition took place at the annual general meeting of the Devizes Branch held at Westbury on June 6th.

Features of the service conducted by the Rev. G. W. Lighton were a reading by Mr. E. C. Shepherd and handbell ringing by a combined Warmminster and North Bradley band. The lesson was read by Hugh Lawrence, of Dauntsey's School. Sixty-five ringers were present representing 21 towers. An excellent tea followed, provided by the All Saints' ringers and their ladies.

Mr. C. F. Andrews (Branch chairman) presided at the meeting, with Mr. Graham Davies as secretary. The company stood in silent tribute to the late Mr. D. Hughes, of Bromham.

The accounts show a healthy credit balance, due to the hard-working efforts of Mr. G. Davis, who in his secretary's report was hard on those of the advanced ringers who did not, in his opinion, help the learners enough at meetings.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Chairman, Mr. C. F. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Mr. G. Davis; hon. auditor, Mr. B. Carter; vice-chairman, Mr. A. T. Weeks; Ringing Masters, Mr. R. Purnell (Melksham), Mr. E. Norris and Mr. N. G. Knee (Warmminster). Power was given to co-opt, Messrs. E. J. Hitchins, L. E. Hitchins and F. S. Slatford to the Branch Committee. Nineteen new members were elected.

Methods of getting instruction to the learners more easily were discussed, and it was agreed to let the Branch Committee discuss this and report to the next quarterly meeting. A standard charge for teas at meetings was fixed at 2s. 6d., with half-price for juniors under nine years old.

Ringing followed under the guidance of Mr. R. Purnell. The large number of young ringers present augurs well for the future.

EAST GRINSTEAD & DISTRICT

While 1967 was not a good year for the East Grinstead and District Guild, as no peals had been rung, a happy spirit pervaded at the Guild's annual dinner at Royal Mount Ephraim Hotel, Tunbridge Wells, on January 9th.

Mr. B. E. Jeffery, the chairman, presided, and the toast of "The Church" was submitted by Mr. P. R. Everest, to which the president, the Rev. J. R. Missin, replied. Mr. R. W. H. Hayes, who was recently elected secretary of the Tonbridge District, Kent County Association, proposed "The Guild" and the chairman replied. Mr. Jeffery pointed out that 1967 had been a bad year for the Guild, with attendances falling off at meetings. This year's annual general meeting would be at Edenbridge, "The Visitors" was a toast on the call of Mr. A. R. Large, and Mr. P. A. Corby replied.

The entertainment opened brightly with dancing routines by the local Amateur Musical Society. Mr. C. A. Osbon did a Hertfordshire monologue, which was much enjoyed, and Mr. G. Fry did a slapstick Kentish monologue. Songs from Gilbert and Sullivan's operas were sung by Mr. R. A. Large, and C. A. Osbon joined him for the "Gendarme's Song." The entertainment finished with the "can-can" performed by the "L.A.M.P.S." R. J. E.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The Northern Division had a very successful Christmas party at Balcombe on January 6th instead of the usual meeting. About 60 members enjoyed games and entertainment organised by the Ringing Master, Mr. George Francis. Buffet refreshments were served and our thanks go to Mr. Fred Roberts and his helpers at Balcombe for all the work they put in on our behalf. The lucky programmes and raffles were drawn for at 9.45 p.m., after which we sang "Auld Lang Syne" and departed our various ways for home in the snow. J. O.

THE SOCIETY OF RAVING RINGERS

Friday, January 5th, saw car-loads of ringers heading towards Worcester for the annual reunion of 'he above Society Ringing had been arranged at Powick for those who managed to arrive early enough before going on to the Talbot Hotel in Worcester.

Claines was the first tower on Saturday. Stedman Caters and Cambridge Royal were enjoyed on the light ten before moving on to Pershore Abbey, where the frightening ringing chamber cage was a little unnerving, resulting in unsettled ringing. The six at Kempsey were rung to a variety of methods before travelling back to Worcester for lunch. The afternoon was spent in the city, ringing at St. Swithun's, St. John's and All Saints'. A touch of 8-Spliced Surprise Major was rung at St. John's, while the tricky bells of All Saints' sounded out to Yorkshire Royal and Stedman Caters.

The organiser had asked the hotel to provide a dinner in the evening, and this they did. A large room was provided, complete with Christmas decorations, well away from the other guests. The social evening which followed included a film show of the last tour and the latest Ravers' song, sung by Ron Russ and accompanied by Roger Smith on the guitar.

The Society split up for service ringing on Sunday morning. Some went to Malvern Link and afterwards climbed the snow-covered Malvern Hills, whilst the rest went to Dodderhill and Droitwich. Originally only the latter tower had been included in the programme, but Paul Cattermole had extended an invitation to ring on the very good eight at Dodderhill. Lunch over, and the hotel was left behind as the Ravers headed for home via the two 6-bell towers of Welland and Ripple, and the octave at Upton-on-Severn, where the bells were put to good use for an hour before Evening-song.

The thanks of the Society go to all the incumbents and tower captains of the churches visited, as well as to the organiser, Peter Heritage, who arranged things so well.

SELBY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The 22nd annual general meeting of the Selby and District Society was held at Selby Abbey on January 6th. The president, the Rev. J. A. P. Kent, Vicar at the Abbey, officiated at the service.

At the business meeting, which followed tea, the secretary, Mr. L. M. Woodhead, produced his annual report, which showed a paid-up membership of 104, and a healthy balance in the bank for this "non-profit-making learners' Society."

The Vicar of Selby Abbey was re-elected president, Mr. H. Walker (York Minster) chairman, and Mr. L. M. Woodhead (Goole) secretary-treasurer.

The retiring Ringing Master, Mr. R. Warford, having married and moved out of the district, did not seek re-election; Mr. A. Sheppard (Sherburn-in-Elmet) was elected to that office.

The committee for 1968 is Miss M. E. Wilkinson (York Minster), Mr. T. H. Foster (Selby Abbey) and Mr. G. F. Terry (Hemingbrough).

Mr. W. F. Moreton (Wakefield Cathedral), general secretary of the Yorkshire Association and a regular visitor to the Society's meetings, proposed the composite vote of thanks, which included everyone who had contributed in any way to "make the day."

Up and Coming Youngsters — No. 37

DAVID C. BROWN
(Oxford Diocesan Guild)

A quiet, unassuming young ringer, who has just passed his 15th birthday, has been earning the respect of the members of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild. He is David Christopher Brown, of Langley, in the Borough of Slough, who has recently conducted his first peal.

His entry into our art was somewhat unusual. With his father, he was looking round St. Mary's Church, Langley, and stopped to read the notices in the porch. The clock-winder arrived and invited them into the belfry to witness the clock being wound. He saw the ropes, but nothing of the bells. An invitation was given him to return that evening and see the ringers at practice. He was fascinated by what he saw and accepted a further invitation to try his hand the next week. He was then about 11 years of age, but as he had joined an isolated call change band he knew nothing of the existence of such an art as change ringing.

Having safely negotiated the "11-plus" obstacle he found himself at Slough Boys' Grammar School in the same Form as a young ringer from Slough Parish Church. This boy's elder brother was also in the same school and wearing his Oxford Guild badge. David asked what was the significance of this and the younger brother explained, at the same time remarking that he also rang at Slough Parish Church. David then put in an appearance at Slough belfry and asked if he, too, could be taught change ringing.

From that moment he never looked back. He "saw the light" very quickly and in a matter of weeks had overtaken his two school friends. He began change ringing at the beginning of 1966, and by September 4th had rung his first quarter, Plain Bob Major "inside." October 8th found him ringing his first peal at Burnham, also Plain Bob Major "inside." He demonstrated at once what a good striker and safe ringer he is. He rang one other peal in 1966, the treble to a peal of Plain Bob on the heavy eight at Bray. In 1967

he really "went to town," scoring 20 peals, including his first as conductor. His list includes six peals only on the treble, viz.: Quornden Surprise Major, nine Major methods, Plain Bob Major (2), St. Clement's Triples and Wexham Surprise Royal. He has rung "inside" to the following peals:—

Minor: Cambridge (the eight extents), seven methods, Plain Bob (no singles).

Triples: Grandsire.

Major: Plain Bob 2 (conducted 1), New Cambridge Surprise, Cambridge Surprise 2, Yorkshire Surprise, Fordcombe Surprise, Stand Surprise, Jedburgh Surprise, Purbeck Surprise, Kent Treble Bob.

Royal: Yorkshire Surprise.

David has rung in 165 towers. Of these, his favourite is the lovely little light eight at Easthampstead, Berks, where he called his first peal. He says he has so far no favourite method, but he greatly enjoyed a course of Treble Twelve at Buckfast Abbey. The performance which gave him most satisfaction was piloting a band of "rabbits" through a quarter peal of Plain Bob Doubles at Langley for the Flower Festival opening service. His only ringing ambition at the moment is to ring a peal in his own tower. This may be difficult to achieve. Although told that it would take three hours, the Vicar stopped the last attempt, after having given his consent to a peal for the wedding of one of his ringers—because he had had a telephone and a personal complaint! No attempts have been allowed since. We hope young David can break the spell. With all the spade-work he has done at Langley he deserves to be granted this wish.

David says he would like to acknowledge the debt he owes to Mr. William Birmingham, of Slough, for, as he says, "putting me on the road to being a ringer, and for getting me into all my early peals." He wishes also to thank Messrs. Alan Pink and Frank Blagrove for including him in their peal bands.

Outside the tower David's interests are music, reading, and writing out the blue line of new methods published in "The Ringing World." He has been playing the piano for four years and is now about to sit his Grade 5 examination.

David has an older sister, Rosamund, who is learning ringing. She took up the art with a view to getting her Girl Guides ringers' badge, but had to push this ambition aside until she had won the distinction of becoming a Queen's Guide. She has now resumed serious ringing and is mastering the basic methods on six and eight bells.

The writer would like to add his personal tribute to David Brown for the many hours each week he devotes to helping with the teaching of young ringers at Slough and Dorney, and to David's modest and most unassuming character.

BELL RINGING AT MARKET WEIGHTON

The newly-formed School Handbell Tune Ringing Team made their debut by playing Christmas carols at two functions at the County Secondary School recently.

A team of ringers from the County Secondary School rang Market Weighton Parish Church bells prior to the school's carol service there on Friday, December 22nd. Ringers taking part were Mrs. L. Gaukroger, Mr. N. Thwaites, Mr. N. Chaddock, Janet Martin, John Jobley and Roy Gibson.

Letters to the Editor

MR. JOHN WILLIS

Dear Sir,—As Mr. Willis liked records to be correct as far as possible, I would like to put right one small error in paragraph 3 of "P.A.C.'s" excellent contribution on page 912.

John Willis did, in fact, take part in at least two peals after his return to Kent. Both were rung in my old tower, St. Martin's, Cheriton, Folkestone. I also took part, and the second one, I believe, was rung for my benefit.

On May 10th, 1947, he trebled to a peal of 5,040 Grandsire Triples conducted by Charles Turner. On January 3rd, 1948, he rang the fifth to a peal of 5,184 Kent Treble Bob Major (my "first" in this method), conducted by Reginald A. Reed.

I do recall that he had some physical disability, which made it inadvisable for him to stand for long periods, but he agreed to take part in these peals as they were being rung on the very light eight at Cheriton. I have a feeling that there was a second peal of Kent around this time but I cannot now trace it.

One of his last acts, as far as I personally am concerned, was when he gave a small farewell party to my wife and myself before we left Folkestone to come to Cambridge in April, 1966. We shall always treasure this memory of him, together with the beautifully written card in his writing which accompanied our wedding gift from the Folkestone ringers in 1949. — Yours sincerely,

WALTER C. CHANDLER.

KENT—THE CRITIC CONCLUDES

Dear Sir,—In making my final reply to the letters about Kent, to comply with Mr. Lewis' request, I wish to make the following points.

I believe that for any improvement to take place in East Kent the Districts must be partitioned into easily worked units. This suggestion was rejected by a committee of Association members, and my letter was intended to make them take a much closer look at an apparently healthy state of affairs.

I do not expect Districts to change to suit me. I do expect them to change to better themselves, and not remain complacent. I have not been asked for any advice or to give any help, the latter being a facility offered at College practices before and since my arrival with method ringing up to London. I have, however, met with abuse from some Ashford District ringers. The difficulty in finding peal ringers is, as I have said before, lack of capable people, and not as one of the aforementioned people would have others believe.

Mr. Lewis classes me as a visitor. As a resident member of the Kent County Association, spending more than three-quarters of my year here that is a matter of opinion. The Ashford District secretary is presumptuous in concluding that I am a "bird of passing."

Unfortunately I am unable to accept Mr. Lewis' invitation to go to Rochester as I have prior engagements. I do look forward to meeting him to discuss the matter further, as I am sure he can act sensibly about the problem.—Yours sincerely,

JAMES HEDGCOCK.

Canterbury.

P.S.—My correspondence is now closed.— J. H.

TAPERING STEEL WASHERS

Dear Sir,—Reading that most excellent article by "Ty Tennit" in the recent editions of "R.W." I was most interested in "Tackling odd-struck bells", not knowing until now that this was possible. However, as an engineer, I feel, although I may be wrong, that a leather washer would not be a very long-lasting article. May I therefore offer a few hints on tapering a steel washer, for the benefit of those not "in the know" but wishing to tackle this problem?

Having obtained the required size of washers first of all file two flats as in Fig. 1: this allows the washer to be held in a vice without it tending to turn over. Then, holding the washer in a vice as in Fig. 2, it may be filed down to the required taper.

Hoping this may be a useful addition to "Ty Tennit's" steeplekeeping.—Yours faithfully,

PAUL EBSWORTH.

INSTRUCTIONAL PAMPHLET

Dear Sir,—When I received the proof indicating that you were preparing to publish a report of my talk to the Joint Council of Yorkshire Ringing Societies at Normanton last April it seemed to me that it might be worthwhile to obtain some reprints in pamphlet form.

A year or two ago the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association, as part of its educational programme, started an Education Fund which might finance modest publications, and the Ringing Master and I thought that this opportunity might be taken to make a trial. I ordered a hundred copies which were supplied for £4 and several of these have already been sold at sixpence to our own members. If anyone else is interested in acquiring these reprints I shall be pleased to supply at this same price of sixpence per copy plus threepence for postage (this would cover postage up to about six copies).

The subject matter appeared in two instalments in "The Ringing World", December 1st and 8th, pp. 887 and 907. I hope this trial may be of interest and perhaps encourage other people to make reprints available, thereby increasing the literature of the Exercise.—Yours sincerely,

DENIS A. BAYLES.

GRANDISON AND A STORY

Dear Sir,—Geoff Bubb in his "Ringer's Story" is somewhat confusing regarding dates. Grandison at Exeter Cathedral was recast by Taylor in 1902 and I rang it single-handed on dedication day that same year. My Dad and Rev. G. F. Coleridge rang it to a peal of Grandsire Caters also in 1902. My Uncle Edwin was the last of the ringing Shepherds in Exeter; he died in 1946, so he would not have received a 1947 letter from James George. Mr. Bubb is very much out of his reckoning when he says Mr. George was about 85 in 1947, but I make it 94, seeing he was born in 1853 and died in 1951—much too late in life to tackle a bell of 72½ cwt. for a peal.—Yours sincerely,

WILLIAM SHEPHERD.

RUTLAND RINGERS' TOUR

Dear Sir,—When I wrote my previous letter regarding the Rutland Ringers' tour of Leicestershire, I endeavoured to voice my protests in a reasonably mild form, and I think I succeeded. Although I expected Mr. A. C. B. to reply to my letter, I had hoped that I would not feel obliged to write a further one myself. However, I do. Incidentally, although Mr. A. C. B. apparently knows me well enough to refer to me as plain "Judy Cox", I have no idea at all who he is and would be pleased if he could enlighten me.

On reading Mr. A. C. B.'s latest letter, I now find that he has progressed from writing disparaging remarks about our bells to disparaging remarks about me! Let me hasten to assure Mr. A. C. B. that to the best of my knowledge I suffer from no "common faults", including that of regarding the bells at my home tower irreproachable. Does the gentleman really think that I can have rung at Humberstone four times a week for 12 years without being fully aware of the shortcomings of the bells. I, too, Mr. A. C. B., go on ringing outings, and have certainly visited enough churches to know that our heavy six could hardly be rated as the pride and joy of the county. This was not my point in writing originally. I wrote to bring attention to what I still consider to be a lapse in good manners and not to necessarily disagree with the comments contained in the article.

Did my letter really give the impression that it was merely a fit of feminine pique because someone had dared to criticise "my" bells? Surely not! Giving Mr. A. C. B. the benefit of the doubt it is possible that he really did misunderstand the meaning of my letter, but I cannot help but wonder if he did not really choose to in order to excuse himself from my criticism.—Yours faithfully,

JUDY A. M. COX.

CHRISTMAS DAY BROADCAST

Dear Sir,—Having had some small part in the arrangement of the Christmas Day broadcast, I was pleased to read that it had given pleasure to Mr. R. H. Mansell ("R.W.", Jan. 12th, p. 22).

However, I am sure that there will be many who will disagree with the opening sentence of his second paragraph: "Transmission was perfect and the striking second to none" (the emphasis is mine). These are the very highest standards and are not descriptions to be applied lightly. I doubt whether such terms have ever been merited by a whole Christmas Day broadcast.—Yours sincerely,

DENIS A. BAYLES.

Skipton Parish Church Handbell Ringers.—The handbells were purchased in 1890 by the Skipton Church Institute, and Mr. Lockwood, of Leeds, was engaged as tutor. The bells, a second-hand set, were cast by Shaw, of Bradford. Nine more bells were purchased in 1893 to make up the present full medium ring of 53 bells. All the members of the first team were still living 59 years later! A second team was started early in 1900 and it continued until the setback of the 1914-18 war. Every member was called into H.M. Service and every man gave his life.

The third team was started in 1924, the music used being that of Walham Gordon, of Stockport. It continued until the Second World War. In 1946 Mr. J. Wiseman started a team of boys but had to discontinue after 12 months. Six girls from the Girl Guides who could read music made a new team and wonderful progress. In 1949 they broadcast carols on the children's Northern programme from Manchester. This was very popular and resulted in enquiries from all over the British Isles. The bells were later reconditioned and another broadcast, with photograph in the "Radio Times", took place in 1962. The team was stretched to the limit with demands for their services and many concerts were given on behalf of the National Children's Homes. At this time they were ringing their best with such music as the "Hallelujah Chorus" and "The Blue Danube".

Stokesay Handbell Ringers.—Formed in little over a year, are a mixed team unable to read music, and thus the music is set to numbers. The original 12 handbells (size 15 in C) were purchased from Mears in 1829 by eight parishioners. After a successful jumble sale the bells were sent to Taylor's for overhaul and an additional seven bells purchased.

Thurkstone Handbell Ringers were formed in 1885, the bells being bought by public subscription. There have been five conductors—Messrs. Belleliffe, F. Taylor, A. Jenkinson (guest conductor), T. Sykes and the present musical director, R. Proud.

Owing to National Service, etc., the ringers disbanded in 1950 and re-formed in 1962 and have never looked back. The junior team is progressing steadily under the watchful eye and patience of Mr. R. Proud. Perhaps the current team is not the best in the Society's long history but the team spirit is 100 per cent.

Warburton W.I. Handbell Ringers came into being in March, 1964, when the County Federation asked all institutes to present musical items at the group meeting. The eight church handbells were borrowed. Five volunteers met together, four as ringers and one as leader, and by trial and error managed to regulate tone and volume and performed at the meeting. Having only eight bells, music was limited.

Later, by kindness of the rector and captain of the belfry, 17 handbells were bor-

MR. JOHN P. PARTINGTON
Secretary, Handbell Ringers of Great Britain

THE first secretary of the Handbell Ringers of Great Britain, Mr. John P. Partington, comes of a ringing family. He started at St. Luke's, Heywood, Lancs, in 1952. His great-grandfather rang from the time the bells were installed in 1863 until he retired, after ringing

100 blows for the dying of the 19th century. Grandfather and father were ringers here for most of their lives, as also were numerous other relatives. The family has had continuous ringing at St. Luke's since 1963, and Mr. John P. Partington has been Ringing Master here since 1961.

From Rochdale Grammar School he went to the University of Leicester, where he not only obtained his degree in mathematics but founded the University of Leicester Guild in 1956, being its first secretary-treasurer. He teaches mathematics at Ashton-under-Lyne Grammar School, having joined the staff of the school in 1958. The same year he founded the school handbell team. Over 50 pupils have been taught to ring and they have played in public on some 50 occasions. Since 1960 he has rung with the St. Thomas', Moorside, Oldham, handbell team.

With a flair for organisation, Mr. Partington has held various offices with the Lancashire Association. He was secretary of the Rochdale Branch from 1961 to 1964; ringing secretary of the Association since 1963; and a representative of the Association on the Central Council since 1964.

His peal total to the end of 1947 was 235 (conducted 3). Of these, 94 were Surprise Major (36 different plus splice to twelve methods). His peals have been rung in 62 different towers with 239 different ringers and 43 different conductors. He claims to have rung in every county in England and all ringable towers in Scotland and Ireland.

PURBECK YOUTHS INVADE DORSET

ANOTHER anniversary of the Ancient Society of Purbeck Youths was celebrated in Wareham on New Year's Eve. The week-end got off to a good start with all at Wareham for the complex briefing session.

Friday morning we struck. Lyme Regis succumbed in a 2½-hour encounter, even though our tenors got separated for a while, and Maiden Newton was taken by the other battalion in 2 hours and 38 minutes. Full of optimism and Cornish pasties, we advanced to Thorncombe where, although we outnumbered the bells by one, the latter won handsomely inside half-an-hour. The other platoon, being one short as a result, were not able to make an attempt at Piddlehinton.

The campaign continued on Saturday at Puddletown and Lytchett Matravers. A bump upstairs at the former caused confusion in the ranks, while at the latter a lack of generalship caused a retreat after 1½ hours. "Matchbox" was promoted to the rank of conductor that afternoon but tried to defeat methods as well as bells and lost, but in a minor skirmish scored a quarter of Kent. The main platoon rowed from Lymm Parish Church, with their music. Regular practices have been held since November, 1965, and the band have performed at various functions and have worked to raise money for a full set; but the waiting list is long. Perhaps some second-hand bells will be found before October, 1968, when their own will be ready. "We are greatly indebted to Lymm for their generosity."

meanwhile were finding their level at Wimborne St. Giles, "Operation Lincolnshire" proving a comfortable success. Recreation for the troops was provided at the bowling alley in Bournemouth.

Sunday saw a 24-hour truce, with a visit to Poole in the morning, enabling George to chalk up his 200th tower of the year, and then a hasty chase to Kingston for a very rewarding afternoon.

We did find an old bell, about 3 cwt., and thus with a bit of luck Kingston bells will be in perfect order before long. Although the fifth has no clapper at present, ropes were put on the rest so that a quarter could be rung for Evensong. Cold was starting to penetrate, so a quick trip to a tea house in Corfe Castle was called for. Here by chance we ran into Mike Austin, of Waltham Abbey, and he joined us for a most enjoyable quarter on what must surely be the finest bells in Dorset.

The dinner followed. Lewis Cobb, that well-known plunger, who had come last the previous year, turned up first, to universal surprise, and the traditionally excellent meal was very much appreciated. The short speeches included a toast to the new A.S.P.Y. president, the Rev. H. Lloyd, Rector of Kingston.

Mick Shelton welcomed us at the New Inn where, with Lewis and Malcolm at the piano, we were in fine voice both before and after the New Year had been rung in.

Monday was a beautiful day, but the troops were in poor shape. At Wareham an excellent peal of Bob Major was rung, while Private Bellamy was recovering in the back of the mini-ambulance. Coffee and crumpets, and then homewards through the snow, leaving peace in the wake of a very enjoyable if only moderately successful invasion. The regiment would like to thank Mary for a masterly piece of organisation.

BELFRY GOSSIP

All Saints', Tooting Graveney, is to have eight bells, not six, as was inadvertently mentioned last week.

What is the most Doubles methods rung to a peal in Wales? At St. Florence, Pembro, 50 methods were rung on January 6th. Is a claim to most methods correct?

The back six of Christ Church, Ebbw Vale, will be heard at the beginning of the programme "Songs of Praise", to be televised at 6.50 p.m. on January 28th on B.B.C.-1.

Mr. Walter F. Judge became a proud grand-father on January 9th. At St. Ebbe's, Oxford, he conducted a peal of Grandire Triples in which two of his grandsons took part. Christo-pher P. Turner (12) rang his first peal, and his brother Martin (15) his first in the method.

Llandaff Cathedral Guild at its annual general meeting on January 2nd elected the following officers: Nevil James, captain; Stephen Fenwick, vice-captain; Miss Felicity Cooke, secretary (13, Rookwood Avenue, Llan-daff); Nicholas Simon, trustee.

Dagenham, Essex, has a very keen body of youngsters. There were seven firsts in a quarter of Double Norwich rung in December, and five firsts in a quarter of Cambridge Surprise Minor this month. Only Mr. J. Arm-strong, the conductor, had had previous expe-rience of these methods to quarters and peals.

All Saints' Church, Hertford, is at the moment unsafe for ringing.

The Gloucester and Bristol Association is holding a dinner this year (September 28th), the first time in its 90 years' existence.

Mr. Aubrey L. Bennett wishes to make a correction to his article regarding "Ringing in Devon, 1967." One peal attempt was successful—Stedman Cinques at Buckfast Abbey, conducted by Mr. Frank Harris.

Correction.—The peal of Cambridge Sur-prise Major at Basingstoke (page 28) was rung at All Saints' Church, and not St. Michael's, as published. The name of the ringer of the sixth was Anthony R. Carter. These errors are much regretted.

The Society of Raving Ringers decided to exclude Worcester Cathedral from their pro-gramme of ringing during their reunion at Worcester because of their lack of experience of 12-bell ringing. They hope the Cathedral ringers will not be disappointed.

Mr. J. R. Worrall's three visits to England in the last eight or nine years have been in and out quick! Appropriately a quarter of Stedman was arranged for him at Romsey Abbey on January 14th. Those assembling at Bristol for the U.B.S.C.R. dinner will easily recognise him. The same bearded Jack still rings well and still speaks English!!

WASHINGTON BAND ATTEMPT GRANDSIRE CATERS PEAL

There was a reunion at Washington Cathedral on December 27th and 28th. Geoffrey Davies, Derek Sawyer, John Owen and Eric Roberts joined Richard S. Dirksen and some of the girls to attempt a quarter peal on open bells and a full peal (on closed bells) of Grandsire Caters. Both unfortunately were unsuccessful—the quarter at about the half-way point and the peal in the last half of the second part.

However, a very enjoyable time was spent with several touches of Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples on handbells and some excellent 10-bell ringing. All are looking forward to the next "get together" in the early summer and a tour in Eastern America (Kent, Groton and the new bells at Smith College).

Mr Dirksen concludes with his apologies to the unnamed ringer mentioned in the issue of December 1st. The slip-up arose through the Sunday practice being cancelled at the last minute.

LONG LENGTH OF MINOR CALLED OFF

The attempt by Mr. Frank C. Price's band to ring 20,160 Plain Bob Minor "in hand" at Crowthorne on December 16th was not successful.

Mr. Price writes: "The ringing was very good until the 14th extent, which was most unsettled. However, we continued well until the 22nd extent, when the striking began to deteriorate due to tiredness of one of the band, and I stopped the ringing after 5 hours and 8 minutes, with only six extents to go."

Mr. Price states that all being well a further attempt will be made in March/April.

IN AMERICA IN MAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Price are going to U.S.A. on May 7th until May 28th, during which time they hope to ring with the Grotonians and also with the Whitechapel Guild, Washington. Perhaps the bells ordered for Smith's College, Northampton, will be installed and dedicated by then and they may be able to visit them.

HOST WAS NOT THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON

The Lord Mayor of London did not entertain to dinner the ringers of Leighton Buzzard who rang a peal for his election as Lord Mayor. This excellent meal was paid for by two Leighton ringers—Bert Whitney and Bill Inley. Edgar Conquest was not ringing his first peal, as was stated in the report. His first peal was Grandsire Caters on November 24th, 1945, conducted by J. F. Arnold.

PROGRESS AT HANNINGTON

A few years ago the unringable five bells at Hannington, Wiltshire, were rehung and a local band formed to ring them. Two years ago, under the instruction of Brian Bladon, assisted by Anita D. O'Brien, a start was made on method ringing. A gift from Mr. Hussey-Freke, of Hannington, enabled the five bells to be augmented to six, and with help the band soon progressed to Plain Bob Minor. The peal at Stratton St. Margaret, Wiltshire, on Friday, January 12th, was the last of four to enable the most advanced of the band to ring their first peal. Congratulations to the Hannington band and especially to the last of the first-pealers, 60-year-old Harold Hedges, the Hannington tower captain.

"IT'S FUN FINDING OUT"

Barry England is a little boy, just 11 years of age, who has been learning to ring at Chepstow for nearly a year.

He started at Chepstow Grammar School in September and for his first term's project could choose any environmental study. Barry chose "bells" and has produced during the term an excellent 40-page special study with an attractive cover. Included are chapters on bell founding, bell tuning, the "Evans" bell foundry at Chepstow, learning to ring a bell, method ringing (using Bob Minor to illustrate), descriptions of local churches and their bells, weights and inscriptions, also an interesting chapter called "Church Bells Peal for Many Things." He has described a bellringers meeting, has included his membership card and a drawing of his badge, also the collect for ringers and a ringers hymn. Throughout, his illustrations are good and interesting, including even a carillon, a Hindu temple bell and a cluster of bells used by Shinto priests in Japan!

He has also put in a copy of "The Ringing World," and his comment to go with this says: "The magazine on the opposite page is one which you can order each week; it tells you all about quarter peals!"

Barry was awarded 91 per cent. for his work, the highest mark in three forms. His teacher comments: "An excellent project; you have put a great deal of work, time and effort into this and your enthusiasm is obvious."

Barry borrowed many books from the public library, including Arthur Wright's "Church Bells of Monmouthshire." Time alone will tell if bellringing remains one of Barry's chief interests, but it has provided an impetus to hard work and he has discovered that it really is "fun finding out."

KINGSTON'S SPONSORED WALK

A sponsored walk from Kingston upon Thames to Cambridge in aid of the 99,000 shillings appeal for Kingston bells will be held on four days at Easter. Ringers participating will only have to cover approximately 15 miles per day. Entrants have to find someone who will sponsor them at 3d. or 6d. a mile. For details write to Miss Bryony Moorby, 133, Barnfield Avenue, Kingston upon Thames, Surrey. There will be opportunities for ringing en route.

A NEW YEAR SOCIAL AT SOPLEY

The ringers of Sopley, Hants, were "at home" to about 20 members of the neighbouring towers of Christchurch Priory, Fordingbridge, Hordle and Ringwood, who were able to accept their invitation to a New Year Social Hour on January 2nd.

First of all there was ringing on the Sopley six, which ranged from call-changes to London Minor; the company then repaired to a cosy room at the Woolpack. Here Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young had prepared a delicious buffet supper, which was enjoyed by everyone in a warm atmosphere of good fellowship. Mr. F. E. Collins had thoughtfully brought along his handbells—perhaps the Grandsire Triples rung on them would not have impressed the experts but they added to the jollity of the occasion.

When the local captain, Mr. Bill Freeman, was invited by Mrs. Young to cut a large Christmas cake, he took the opportunity to thank her and her husband and also churchwardens Harrison and Blandon (both of them ringers) for all their hard work and generosity which had made the evening possible. Mr. L. F. Cobb endorsed his remarks on behalf of the visitors. A. V. D.

PORTSMOUTH CATHEDRAL GUILD

The resignation was received as Guild chairman of Mr. Albert York-Bramble "to make way for a younger member" at the 11th general meeting of Portsmouth Cathedral Guild on January 8th. His successor is Mr. Alan Hicks, a lecturer in mathematics at the local College of Education. Mr. York-Bramble remains a life vice-president of the Guild.

The president, the Very Rev. E. N. Porter-Goff, Provost of Portsmouth, in a tribute said that as founder chairman and founder of the Cathedral School of Ringing Mr. York-Bramble had succeeded in resuscitating ringing at the Cathedral and in 1957 in bringing about the augmentation from eight to ten bells with rehanging. Neither of these achievements at the time appeared possible.

The tower captain, Mr. A. A. J. Buswell, and the secretary/treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Jones, were warmly thanked for their services, mention being made of the decorating and equipping of the ringing chamber to make it one of the best in existence.

A supper, generously provided by Mrs. E. H. Jones, brought another successful gathering to a happy close.

AUSTRALIAN PEN-FRIEND WANTED

After reading Mr. Philip Gray's article on ringing in Sydney and Melbourne, a 17-year-old ringer 5 ft. 7½ in. tall, blonde hair and blue eyes asks for an Australian bellringer as a pen-friend, male or female, between the ages of 18 and 23.

She writes: "I have been ringing for only two years and know only six-bell methods. Other interests include handbell ringing, horse riding and a little sailing."

OUR "RINGING WORLD" 1968

YES, everyone's, yours, mine, the editor's, the editorial staff, "The Ringing World" Committee and everyone concerned (and a few that are not) with producing and trying to perfect it.

What then, 1968, and still 17 per cent of dissatisfied and disgruntled dissenters, after all that has been done for them to improve our "Ringing World"; what the devil do they want? One gets heartily sick and tired of their moanings.

Read the accusations on a recent front page, the writers want consigning to the waste paper baskets along with their accusations. Talk about "Fleet Street," and that is nothing to be proud of, there is hardly one decent national newspaper—including Sunday's—and if your Fleet Street ringer's opinion is unprintable—that proves this paragraph—let him keep it in "F.S.," we don't want it in our "Ringing World."

I am neither a peal-grabber nor great ringer, just a modest 24 or so, but that does not prevent me from loving and appreciating peal ringers, ordinary ringers, bellfounders, churches with bells and those without and our lovely cathedrals. (Have you seen and read "The Cathedrals of England," by Alec Clifton-Taylor (Thames and Hudson)?)

How the devil the Editor tolerates these dissatisfied disgruntled dictators I do not know: I consider he deserves both the "V.C." and "Order of Merit" annually.

One neither has to be a know-all nor a nitwit to appreciate all that has and is still being done to improve our "Ringing World," so if you are one of the above, stop your grumbling and grouching and let other people—rightly concerned—get on with their proper job.

ANOTHER APPLETON ATTEMPT . . . Dear Sir,—I wish to give notice that an attempt will be made to ring 24,119 Grandsire Caters on Saturday, February 10th, at St. Laurence's Church, Appleton, Berkshire, starting at 7 a.m., the composition being the one published on page 714 of "The Ringing World" of October 6th, 1967.—Yours faithfully,

BRIAN R. WHITE.

Appleton, Berks.

PEAL RECORDS FOR 1967

We are planning to publish, as in previous years, individual peal totals for 1967. This list is being prepared by Mr. David A. Burt, assisted by his wife, of 49, Ambleside Road, Kingsway, Bath. For the purpose of checking, ringers are asked to submit their totals (tower and hand), and also the number conducted, to him.

No 1967 peals received after the end of this month can be included in this record or that of the Peals Analysis Committee.

While Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have enjoyed the work they feel they have not the time available to continue the recordings for 1968. They will be pleased to give particulars to anyone interested.

COMPETITION URANGWOT—II

"WELL, Tom," I said to a ringer friend of mine when I bumped into him the other day at the bus stop, "have you been on any of your tower snatches recently?" I guessed that he would rise to this bait and, sure enough, I received my lecture about the bad features of "snatching" and the merits of Tom's plan. Tom has quite strong opinions on this subject and his ideas are a little bit out of the ordinary to say the least. He is happiest with six-bell ringing and he likes to go to a six-bell tower and ring a 720 to "give the bells a fair trial." He insists on ringing the treble throughout, including the leading-up and the leading-down at the finish. Since he does the arranging and provides the transport in his Jaguar the others have to fit in with his ideas.

"Well, whatever you call it, have you been anywhere interesting lately?" "Yes, we've just visited St. Peter's, Gowell, and St. Paul's, Notsowell." It did not surprise me that he mentioned two towers for this was his usual arrangement—two towers on the Saturday afternoon when there was no District meeting. As I have said, Tom always rang the treble on these outings, but he insisted that no other ringer rang the same bell in both towers. "Usual arrangement? Just six of you in the party and you made the other five all swap round for the second tower?" "Correct," said Tom, "but this time I went a bit further and told them that they had to have two different neighbours in each case in the second tower." "Who did you have with you this time and which bells did they ring in each tower?" said I, fishing for my pen so that I could check whether he had managed it. "I'll name the ringers and you can puzzle it out for yourself," he replied with a twinkle in his eye.

"All right then. Name the 'inner six' or, rather, the five bells besides yourself."

"Alan, Bob, Chris, Denis and Ernie. There you are, in alphabetical order just to make it easy," smiled Tom. "Thank you very much indeed," I said, quoting the president of the Central Council, and went on to remark that he had one or two untidy handlers in his party on this occasion. Tom wholeheartedly agreed with this observation and explained that this had made things a little bit complicated. Alan is a particularly bad handler and I knew that Tom would not want to be next to him, so I was not surprised to learn that Alan had been kept off 2 and 6 in both towers and that he had landed beside Ernie in the second tower. I had visions of trouble if Bob and Chris were ringing beside each other, but Tom had seen that this situation did not arise in either tower. Tom happened to let slip that Denis, the one really good handler in the party, had been ringing on Bob's right in the first tower, but, try as I might, I could not extract any more details from him before his bus came. He left me with "Try it out at your next ringers' social—it might make a change!" He was grinning from the safety of the bus by then or I would have crowned him.

Still, I enjoyed working it out and you might like to try it yourself. After all, to solve it you don't need to have been to Cambridge!—Sorry, it must be infectious!

BATH & WELLS ASSOCIATION

Despite the inclement weather and counter attractions, close on 40 ringers attended the Ilchester Branch's first 1968 practice at Stoke-sub-Hamdon on January 6th. The Belfry Office was conducted by the Rev. F. W. Thomas, who welcomed the visitors. Mr. W. E. Turner, Assistant Ringing Master, was in charge, and Stedman, Cambridge and Kent T.B. were rung on the good-going 17 cwt. six apart from rounds and Doubles.

Next practice meeting, Drayton (8), February 3rd, 7-9 p.m.; Branch Dinner, King's Arms, Montacute, February 27th (13s. 6d.), tickets limited, apply early to Branch hon. secretary.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The county president, Mr. E. Newman, took the chair at the annual general meeting of the Eastern District held at Broxbourne on January 13th. Towers open in the afternoon were St. Andrew's, Hertford, and St. Mary's, Ware. A short service was conducted by the Vicar at Broxbourne.

After the minutes, Mr. E. Barnes, of Little Munden, thanked the secretary (Mr. P. M. F. Searles) and members of the Tewin band for their great help to the Munden band on practice nights.

Officers elected: District secretary, Mr. P. M. F. Searles; Ringing Master, Mr. E. Newman (vice Mr. S. James); Deputy Ringing Master, Mr. D. Harris; "Ringing World" representative, Mr. B. J. W. Foley; Association representative, Mr. R. Berry. New members: Mr. F. Stacey (Bengeo), Miss Susan Rasmussen and Mr. C. White (Cheshunt).

The next annual meeting will be at All Saints', Hertford, providing that the tower is safe. February meeting: Amwell and Hoddesdon.

The suggestion of Mrs. L. James of an organised visit to a bell foundry is to be followed up by the District secretary, who offered to make the arrangements.

The concluding vote of thanks to the Vicar and the ladies for an enjoyable tea was proposed from the chair. Ringing followed.
