ETIQUETTE

Comparatively few ringers, except those who are members of the Hereford Diocesan Guild, have heard of the little town of Kington. Hitherto the name has conveyed nothing save a place name, but in future it is likely to have a permanent niche in the vocabulary of the Exercise. An incident in this quiet Hereford township has brought to a head the unwritten rule—the etiquette which governs the general practice of peal ringing.

What are the facts that have up to the present transpired as narrated in our correspondence columns? The ringers of Kington raised £186 towards the provision of two new bells, and under their veteran captain were planning the first peal on the rehung ring of six. A telephone call is put through to the incumbent by a responsible ringer holding office in the Guild, and the Vicar, not knowing the general etiquette governing peals, gives permission without consulting the captain of his ringers. The peal is rung on January 13th, within a few hours after receiving permission, but it is not until the issue of March 7th that the Exercise learns the names of the ringers.

The legal position was explained last week by the Rev. J. M. Turner, president of the East Devon Guild. The belfry is the freehold of the incumbent, and he has control of his bells. The Vicar of Kington was perfectly within his rights in giving permission; what he did not realise was the affront he innocently cast on his own ringers by not consulting with the captain. A peal, and especially a first peal after the bells have been rehung, is an occasion, and the local team, if they are peal ringers, naturally should have the privilege of ringing the first peal.

As to the ringers of the peal, it was not a case of ringing without permission. Technically they acted correctly in securing permission from the incumbent. It has been, however, the accepted practice in the Exercise, when asking permission to ring to approach the captain and head ringer, and he acts as an intermediary with the incumbent. This etiquette has prevailed for many years. What was peculiar about the conduct of these ringers was that the day before permission was sought they were in company with certain members of the Kington band and not a word was said about the proposed peal. Ringers will also note the method selected. Hereward Bob Minor has never been rung before for this Guild, and an attempt of that character would be planned and with many companies practised beforehand.

The sympathy of the Exercise is extended to the King-ton band, after raising such a substantial sum, being debarred from ringing the first peal. Some ringers might even regard the martyrdom of the captain in resigning after holding office for such a long period as justifiable. We do not believe that we are creating a 'mountain out of a molehill' in calling attention to this unfortunate incident. It might have been due to over-keenness or even an attempt to play a practical joke on the King-ton ringers. This must be understood by peal ringers: that when enjoying the privilege of ringing in a strange tower a courtesy is due to the regular band, who Sunday by Sunday ring the bells. Peal ringers are not, or should not be, in a class unto themselves. They are all part of the ringing fraternity who have their common bond of service in their regular Sunday ringing.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

This is a special Lancashire number, with an order for 500 additional copies. To all who have contributed to 'the hot pot' (tripe excluded) the Editor extends his sincere thanks.

The 23 years' silence of Farnworth (Bolton) bells has been broken. A quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung on March 9th by Pte. J. Thornley (first quarter) 1, Miss Annie Potter 2, J. Boyer 3, R. Collier 4, J. Potter (conductor) 5, J. V. Cheetham 6, P. Crook, sen. 7, H. Prescott 8.

The art of Spliced Surprise has been advanced by the Oxford Diocesan Guild, who have introduced in a peal Painswick, Pudsey, Superlative, Cambridge and Yorkshire Surprise Major for the first time. There were 135 changes of method.

With snow piling up outside, Mr. James E. Burles, of Barrow-in-Furness, writes on March 12th a line of congratulation to New South Wales ringers on getting their quarter home at Turranurra. 'It is a far cry from cold and hungry England to warm and sunny Sydney,' he adds.

Leicester Guild have some promising young people at Stoney Stanton. The following band, whose average age was 16½ and eldest 18, rang 1,260 Grandsire Doubles on March 8th: J. Smith 1, H. Briggs 2, T. Flint 3, Jean Taylor 4, G. Bail (conductor) 5, G. Fisher 6. And now for a peal!

Behind the peal at Ditcheat, Somerset, on March 8th, there is a story of great determination. Mr. G. H. Harding, with Mr. Sam Hector as passenger, took 2½ hours to cover 23 miles. Another ardent motor-cyclist wisely elected to drive himself over in his lorry. A fourth walked four miles to get to a workable telephone to ascertain if the attempt was to be made. The band was able to wish Sam many happy returns of his birthday, which took place on the following Monday.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The Rev. F. F. Rigby, president of the Lancashire Association, has now left parish work and has been appointed lecturer and worker for the Manchester Diocesan Council for Moral Welfare and also Bishop's Chaplain to the Youth Organisations.

Peals by the Cumberland Association are rarely recorded. Four ringers from Carlisle Cathedral joined two locals at Hensingham for a peal of Minor on March 8th and were successful.

Lancashire and other ringers should note that we are now taking new postal subscribers for the next quarter. Remittances (4s. 3d.) to be sent to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

'Elementary Change Ringing' has received a remarkably good press. Comments one reviewer: 'This useful little volume is not for Wranglers, but for Janglers, actual ringers who require only enough theory to be able to follow the method when devised.' Janglers is not a happy word to apply to ringers. Poetic licence, however, could justifiably be claimed. The author informs us that the book is selling well.

For 55 years Mr. Walter W. Wolstencroft has been a ringer and conductor at St. Peter's, Ashton-under-Lyne. He is shortly leaving the district for Buckinghamshire. Apart from his own tower, he and Mrs. Wolstencroft, who has rung at Ashton for 21 years, will be greatly missed in the district. A farewell quarter of 1,259 Grandsire Caters was rung on March 5th at Manchester Town Hall by the following in appreciation of his many years of faithful attendance and support: B. Jones (first quarter) 1, P.C. W. Robinson 2, P. Barraclough 3, H. Ludkin 4, ex-P.C. G. Pye 5, W. W. Wolstencroft 6, P.C. W. Pye 7, P.C. A. Ford (conductor) 8, Harold Walker 9, ex-P.C. J. Turner 10.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION OF CHANGE RINGERS

ST. MARY'S, LANCASTER

MANCHESTER CATHEDRAL

NUMERICALLY one of the largest Associations in affiliation with the Central Council, the Lancashire came into being as the result of the following circular:—

Sir,—It has been proposed to form an Association of Change Ringers for Lancashire. We would like to hear your opinion on the above proposition. The objects of the above are: (1) To promote the art and science of change ringing; (2) belfry reform; (3) to induce the clergy and churchwardens to take more interest in the ringers and the ringing.—Yours respectfully,

J. R. Pritchard,
W. G. Mann.
J. Aspinwall.

A meeting was duly held in the National Schools, Chorley, on June 10th, 1876, when officers and committee were appointed and subscriptions became due on July 1st. The entrance fee was fixed at 2s. 6d. and subscriptions at 1s. per year. Thus started our Association.

The Church Bells of the day did not give the Association much encouragement because it did not make more use of the clergy and also because it was open to all denominations which had bells.

At the first meeting 30 members were elected, and this number was increased to 60 during the first year. In 1879 when the annual meeting was held at Bolton the Association was reconstituted and the block of a bell which has graced the front page of the Association's annual reports was purchased; it is still going strong!

The first balance sheet showed an income of £10 9s., against an expenditure of £7 12s. 10d., which left £2 16s. 2d. to start the second year.

THE PRESIDENTS.

At first, Presidents held office for a very short period, the founder president being Mr. W. G. Wray, of Kirkham. He was succeeded in 1879, when the Association was reconstituted, by Mr. John Mason, of Southport, who was followed by Mr. W. Albinson (Stockport) in 1880, Mr. Joseph Scott (Manchester) 1881, the Rev. T. A. Turner (Bury) 1883 the Rev. C. Lowe (Bolton) 1886. In 1890 Canon Elsee, of Bolton, was elected, and he held office until he died in 1936. He was, indeed, one of the great leaders of the Exercise, and during his period of office the number of ringing members rose from 506 to 1,434. Membership of the Lancashire Association was a privilege; there was a keenness among the young men to qualify by having rung 120 changes on tower or handbells, or covered 500 on tower bells.

There were frequent changes in the post of general secretary in the early years. The principle of continuity in office was established by the appointment of Mr. J. Redford as assistant in 1882, later to become general secretary. In 1898 he was succeeded by Mr. A. E. Wreaks, who held office until 1911, when Mr. W. H. Shuker, the present holder, took office. He has now a co-secretary in Mr. T. Wilson, of Blackburn.

Long and faithful service is also to be found among the treasurers, of which the Association has had five in 70 years. A noteworthy holder of this office was Mr. H. W. Jackson, who was elected in 1882 and was still in office when he died in 1928. The present treasurer (Mr. F. R. Williams) was elected in 1942.

When Sir A. P. Heywood was considering the formation of the Central Council he invited Canon Elsee to meet him at the Johnson Dinner at Birmingham in 1899. The Canon reported back to the committee, who asked him to represent the Association at any other meetings and also on the Council when it was formed. This he did faithfully until his death. It is thought that he only missed one meeting when he was in South Africa.

The membership certificate was designed in 1891 with etchings of four churches (three illustrated with this article), the bell and a bunch of handbells.

In 1893 a leaflet was printed with the four standard methods. From this small beginning has grown the present volume containing 20 minor, six Triples and 14 Major methods, with a chapter on Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Cinques.

In 1887 the Association decided to form branches. To-day there are 11, some of which were the outcome of smaller associations in the county joining the central association and then forming branches. The area of the Association embraces the Dioceses of Blackburn, Liverpool and Manchester and parts of Carlisle and Wakefield, and the existing branches and their secretaries are: Blackburn, Mr. C. W. Blakey; Bolton, Mr. P. Crook; Furness and Lake District, Mr. N. M. Newby; Lancaster, Mr. H. Parkinson; Fylde, Mr. J. H. Foster; Liverpool, Mr. G. R. Newton; Manchester, Mr. F. Reynolds; Preston, Mr. F. Rigby; Rochdale, Mr. Ivan Kay; Rossendale, Mr. H. Parkinson; Wigan, Mr. N. Heaps.

GROWTH OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The following record of annual meetings since the Association was reconstituted in 1879 tells of its growth:

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Despite the wintry conditions, the South Norfolk Branch annual meeting at Diss on March 1st was attended by 39 ringers from 21 different parishes—Attleborough, Bunwell, Diss, Forncoett, Garboldisham, Palgrave, Redenhall, Saxlingham, Norwich, Swaffham, Mulbarton and Winfarthing. Also Suffolk ringers attended from Bury St. Edmunds, Cotton, Groton, Hadleigh, Horringer, Mendlesham, Stowmarket, Stowupland and Yaxley.

The Rector, the Rev. J. A. Appleton (vice-president), conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), with the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow at the organ.

The Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (general secretary) presided at the business meeting in the absence of the chairman, Mr. W. L. Duffield, supported by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), Mr. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master), Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), Messrs. Bonnett and Banham (committee).

After the company had stood in silence to the memory of the late Mr. D. H. Whiting, of Diss, a late member of the association and Suffolk Guild, the officers were all re-elected. Two new members were elected—Mr. Dennis Poyntz (Saxlingham) and Miss Matthele (Diss).

The branch secretary drew attention to the forthcoming broadcast service from Diss Church on Sunday, May 11th, at 9.30 a.m., when it is hoped the bells will also be broadcast. The next meeting will be held at Bunwell on Saturday, May 3rd.

Chorley Bells

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF PRESENT RING.

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the present ring of Chorley (Launcs) bells, a peal of Treble Bob Major was rung on March 8th.

The ringers of the peal, the Rector (Canon Wyatt) and other ringers and friends were afterwards entertained to tea, after which the Rector congratulated the team, making special reference to Mr. Gartside on his first peal as conductor, and Arthur Rigby on ringing his first peal on the treble.

Canon Wyatt recalled that his first curacy was with the late Canon Elsee. Later he went to Ashton-under-Lyne, where several long peals were rung. On going to Burnley as Vicar he was visited by Canon Elsee, who on hearing the bells being chimed said in shocked tones, 'Wyatt, tubular bells!'

Mr. T. Lofthouse, one of the wardens and a ringer for over 50 years, added to the reminiscences. He related how in his early days the Chorley ringers were asked to ring the bells at Blackrod whilst an architect tested the tower for stability, as the local squire had forbidden the bells to be rung on the grounds that the tower was unsafe. After the squire's death the bells were rung regularly!

The writer mentioned that some 10 or 15 years ago Chorley bells became more or less unringable, so much so that Mr. Gartside, the towerkeeper, had to oil them before every service. The writer decided to try out some of his own ideas and gadgets and these made the bells pealable, as shown by ringing the peal on March 8th under Arctic conditions, there being no heat in the tower through fuel shortage.

Chorley bells have a history. When the Commissioners of Edward VI. visited the church in 1552 there were 'three great bells and two little bells called sacring bells.' The register records that the great bell weighing 770lb. was increased to 863lb. in 1646 when it was recast by Geoffrey Scott, of Wigan, bell-founder. The six bells in the tower in 1883 were rehung by G. Mears, of London. Three were dated 1763, another 1800, another 1832.

These six were recast in 1896 and two added, making the present ring of eight by John Warner and Sons. Three bear old inscriptions; the others have the maker's name and date. The three inscriptions are:—

I bear my part in concerts pleasing sound,
But when alone I summon to the ground.
The day is over; cease from labour, I call to rest.

Our voices do with cheerful sound,
The hills and valleys echo round.

A faculty for a ringers' gallery was granted in 1897; before that time the bells were rung from the ground floor.

APPLETON FEAST.

Saturday, February 8th, at Appleton, was the day of the 129th annual feast. Appleton, in common with many other villages, was almost completely isolated, and a good deal of effort was needed to be present. Spartans were present from Launton, near Bicestor, and Basingstoke, and an attendance of nearly 40 was most pleasing.

Stedman and Grandsire Caters, the methods towards which this well-known ring seems to lean, predominated, and the standard of striking demanded by the local band was fully maintained.

After an excellent tea at the Thatched Tavern, members of the White family entertained the company with both change ringing and tunes on handbells as well as vocally.

With the return of the younger members from the Forces, the ringing at Appleton has reached a new high standard, and this augurs well for the future as well as for the continuity of this ancient celebration.

OBITUARY

MR. ANDREW SHUFFLEBOTHAM.

Mr. D. G. Elliott, Groton, Suffolk, writes:—Andrew Shufflebotham came to Coggeshall and rang a peal with us in 1902 and he rang over 50 peals with us up to 1912. He was, as the writer says, a good and sure ringer and a good striker. He would cycle the six miles from Braintree to Coggeshall every Monday night if the weather was not too bad. With Andrew on the third and Frank Claydon on the fourth we were set up and had a good band. I moved out of the district after the 1914 war and lost sight of him. I should like the Stoke-on-Trent men to know how much we appreciated Andrew's ringing.

MR. ALFRED HINDS.

Following a fall, the death took place on March 2nd of Mr. Alfred Hinds, aged 76. He had lived at Tenterden all his life, was a member of St. Mildred's Church ringers for 40 years and had rung 41 peals in different methods.

A member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, he had rung peals with Challis F. Winney and Frederick G. Newman.

The funeral took place on March 6th and in the evening touches of Grandsire Triples were rung, with the bells half-muffled, by the following members of St. Mildred's band: Miss Mary Meynell 1, Pat Relf 2, Miss Vie Relf 3, John Smith 4, Percy Relf 5, Toby Want 6, William Tickner 7, Bert Stanger 8. R.E.

MR. C. F. FOWLER.

With deep regret we report the death of Charles Frederick Fowler, of Anston, near Sheffield, which took place on February 12th. He was buried in Anston Churchyard on February 17th, and a muffled peal was rung after the funeral.

Mr. Fowler, who was 86 years of age, was a ringer of renown on six bells, in fact he with his team of ringers at Anston Church in their heyday were known as the Kings of Six Bell Ringers. The team, of which Mr. Fowler was the conductor and captain, could ring well over 300 methods on six bells, many of which Mr. Fowler composed. One method he composed and called 'King George V.' by kind permission of His Majesty.

Mr. Fowler had been ringing for 70 years and rang regularly up to his death. His great friend, Mr. Henry Stenton, who is 88, much to his disappointment had to give up last year after 74 years as a ringer.

There are two other ringers of the old band each over 70 and one almost 60. One died just before the war—Mr. S. Smith, aged 85, after ringing for 58 years, and one died last year, aged 76. Thus has this famous band been broken up.

In all the years that he did ring, His greatest friend ne'er heard him sing, He had no temper for to slip, A harsh word ne'er escaped his lip, But ring from morn till night would he And glory in bells minstrelsy, His compositions he would name, Towns, flowers and Generals of Fame.

TOWER SNATCHING!

Dear Sir,—Can anyone exceed any of the following?

(1) To have rung in at least one tower every Saturday during the year 1946.

(2) To have rung in all 123 towers during 1946 (five bell upwards). These towers were in the following counties: Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, Cheshire, Huntingdonshire, Leicestershire, Lancashire, Northamptonshire, Oxfordshire, Staffordshire and Warwickshire.

(3) To have at least rung rounds for at least one service during 1946 every Sunday with the exception of one.—Yours faithfully,

Duston, Northants.

ERIC NOBLES.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Universities and Colleges

Dear Sir,—May I, through the correspondence column, address an open letter to the Publications Committee concerning their decision briefly communicated to the Exercise in Belfry Gossip last week? I would address to them a strong protest, and an equally strong plea for reconsideration of the decision not to include names of colleges in peals by members of University Guilds.

In the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge it has always been the custom to put the name of a man's college after his name when publishing details of activities in which members of various colleges are participating together. This applies in all spheres of sport, politics or art. It is sad if this traditional custom is to be refused to the members of University ringing organisations.

Surely, Mr. Editor, this raises the question of the purpose of publishing peals. It would be possible to record peals without publishing them; thus it would seem that the reason they are published is to give information to those who may be interested. When new names appear in the reports of University Guild peals it is of great interest to older members who have 'gone down' to see in which Colleges the interest in ringing is centring.

Uniform may be essential in the Forces. Utility furniture and clothing may be desirable in time of war. But please let not the craze for standardisation enter into the realms of art. Are the clergyman and the medical practitioner to be stripped of their rightful descriptions? When the Freemasons ring a peal, may they not include the names of their lodges for the information of their brothers in the craft? May the Police Guild no longer issue details of rank or force? Is the married woman now forbidden the honourable title of 'Mrs.'?

One could continue this list to great lengths. I will not do so; enough is here to back my plea for freedom of expression in matters relating to our art.—Yours truly,

R. D. ST. JOHN SMITH.

Manchester.

ST. MARGARET'S RECORD

Dear Sir,—To put it mildly, I must say that I was shocked at the contents of Mr. A. R. Burgess' letter regarding the recording of the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, published in the current issue of 'The Ringing World.' As you say, sir, such a sweeping accusation is hardly justifiable, and I would suggest that Mr. Burgess and his own selected band assemble at a tower to make the Grandsire and Stedman recording that is to replace the existing one.

Whilst admitting that this matter is no business of mine, I do feel that I should point out how detrimental these sweeping statements are to the Exercise. There seems to me to be a large amount of bad feeling abroad in the world of ringing that should not and need not exist. This bad feeling would not exist if, to use a vulgar expression, backbiting were non-existent.

We should all remember that change ringing is a purely voluntary activity. People do not enter its noble ranks for the purpose of personal gain, but for the state of fellowship which at the present moment does not exist to its greatest extent. I do feel that if we, one and all, would try to remember that every ringer is doing his very utmost to justify his presence in the tower as a ringer, the state of comradeship would soon be at its highest. Also, if the 'greater' will put themselves out to the task of helping the 'lesser,' a better standard of ringing would soon result.—Yours faithfully,

FRANK C. W. KNIGHT.

The Kington Peal

Dear Sir,—There have been two letters in 'The Ringing World' during the last few weeks about a peal of Hereward Bob Minor rung at Kington on January 13th; the last letter written by the ex-captain of the local band appears in the same issue as the report of the peal.

It seems a shame that a local band should be broken up, even for a peal of Hereward Bob Minor. To me it is a tragedy because I learnt to ring with that band, and on the Saturday previous to the peal I returned with two other members of a Shrewsbury band and had a ring with my old comrades. Afterwards we travelled on to Eardisland to the Kington District annual meeting. At the business meeting the Ringing Master resigned. His place was filled by a member of the peal snatching band.

Was it coincidence which made them pick Kington tower for the peal attempt so soon after the local captain had resigned his position as District Ringing Master? I wonder. I believe the incubation period might have been shorter than two days except for the fact that at least one of the peal ringing band had other duties which would have prevented the attempt on the following day (Sunday).

I would like to point out that the incumbent acted in good faith and did not realise there was any breach of ringing etiquette.

As Mr. Jones states in his letter, he has rung at Kington for 30 years and none better than I know how much time and patience he has spent keeping up the standard of ringing in that tower and others. I can only deplore the fact that all his years of work and devotion have been brought to nought by six irresponsible peal snatchers.

No doubt it was a great joke for them to score one off on the local band, but was it worth it? On one hand, a peal of Hereward Minor, on the other a smashed local band. In years to come will they feel proud to turn up their peal records and say, 'That one smashed a local band'?—Yours truly,

J. F. BUTLER.

RECONSIDER, MR. TREVOR JONES

Dear Sir,—With reference to the 'snatched peal' at Kington, this seems to be a very exceptional case, and, as the Rev. J. M. Turner points out, until all the facts are taken into consideration one cannot come to any conclusion. I cannot remember hearing of a similar incident before.

In any case, I hope that Mr. Trevor Jones, the late captain of Kington ringers, will reconsider his decision to cease membership of his native tower after 30 years' association with it. This is especially important at a time like this when many towers are desperately short of leaders and ringers.—Yours faithfully,

PAUL BIRKETT.

VISIT 'THE QUEEN OF HOLDERNESS'

St. Patrick's Church, Patrington, is as famous as it is beautiful and has the proud title of the Queen of Holderness. Its tall spire is a famous landmark and holds a nice ring of six bells with a tenor of 10 cwt. 24 lb.

The invitation of the Rector and ringers for the society to hold their meeting on March 8th at this church was gladly accepted, and despite Arctic weather, a large contingent of members attended. Towers represented were Beverley Minster, Beverley St. Mary's, Cottingham, Goole, Hull (Holy Trinity), Hessle, Hedon, Patrington and Sutton-on-Hull.

Efforts are being made to raise the sum of £500 as a thanksgiving memorial to add two more bells to complete the octave. A collection taken among members towards this effort produced £7 lbs., which was gratefully accepted.

A well-struck touch of Kent Treble Bob Minor preceded the service in the church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. T. R. Frost). A most substantial tea had been provided by the ringers and their lady friends in the Church Hall, which was greatly appreciated.

Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair for the business meeting, supported by Mr. F. Dale (vice-president), Mr. Clem Glenn (Ringing Master) and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary).

Mr. Clem Glenn brought to the notice of the meeting the compliment paid to the society in 'The Ringing World' on the occasion of their meeting at Pocklington, and members felt proud of the distinction put on their efforts and an incentive to carry on to further success.

As to future meetings, the committee was instructed to make final arrangements for the meeting at North Cave on April 12th; a combined meeting with Selby and District at Market Weighton on May 10th and an invitation from Nunburnholme for June 14th were accepted.

The Ringing Master reported that he had attended many practices and appealed to members to combine with neighbouring towers and make as large attendance as possible at practices. Two new members were elected.

Notes of thanks which concluded the meeting were comprehensive in character, and then all adjourned to the tower, where ringing to suit all tastes was provided. Many then had a 20-mile journey home, but it was well worth the effort.

LADIES' GUILD IN SOUTH SUSSEX

For their second meeting, the Southern Division of the S.E. District of the Ladies' Guild visited Henfield on March 8th. In spite of the inclement weather, the gathering was attended by some 70 ringers. Whether it was the attraction of the fair sex or the fine peal of bells, the gentlemen outnumbered the ladies by three to one. However, their assistance in both ringing the back bells and in helping beginners was very much appreciated.

Ringing during the afternoon consisted mainly of Grandsire for the many beginners who were present. Before tea eight ladies rang this grand peal of bells (tenor 16½ cwt.) to Grandsire Triples.

Forty-five ringers sat down to a sumptuous tea very generously provided by Mr. Crutten. as a welcome to the ladies on their first independent meeting in South Sussex. While the ladies held their business meeting the gentlemen returned to the tower for further ringing, the ladies returning in time to ring the service touch for the parish evensong. Unfortunately, the previous 'back enders' had to leave after the meeting for distant homes, so that the touch was not as successful. Still, practice makes perfect!

After evensong further ringing took place until 8.30 p.m. In spite of the majority of the ringing being in the simpler methods, time was found to fit in two courses of Surprise.
