A NEW DEPARTURE.

An entirely new feature in connection with a festive gathering of ringers was introduced into the proceedings at Bristol on Saturday, when the United Guilds' annual dinner brought together a large company of those interested in the art. At the College Youths' dinner in November the suggestion was made by Mr. Albert Walker, of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, that advantage might profitably be taken of such occasions, when representative ringers from a wide area assemble, to hold an informal conference on some subject of interest to the Exercise. This idea was taken up by the Bristol Guilds, and the experiment was certainly an interesting one. Saturday's meeting resolved itself into a twenty-minutes' discussion on the important question of maintaining the strength of the Exercise, by bringing in recruits to fill the gaps as they arise. The subject is a vital one to the future of ringing, and it was well worthy of being the matter for debate at the inaugural conference.

In the brief time that was available in the course of a crowded afternoon, several useful views were elicited from men of long, practical experience. No resolutions were passed, even to embody the views put forward—that was not the intention of the conference, but some good should come of it if only ringers at their own meetings in their own districts will continue the discussions and consider means of putting into effect some of the suggestions made at Bristol.

The point that stands out most prominently from the conference is that there is no royal road to filling up the ranks. Whatever course is pursued, success can only be achieved by steady plodding, constant effort in face of frequent disappointment, and some sacrifice of time and energy on the part of those able to instruct. One of the most practical of all the suggestions, and one which has met with success, was that put forward by Mr. J. W. Jones, the hon. secretary of Llandaff and Monmouth Association. At his own church he is never without a pupil learning to handle a bell, and as fast as one passes into the ranks of those competent to ring—if only rounds—for Sunday services, another is found to start at the beginning; and so the process goes continually on. It involves an expenditure of time and patience on the part of someone; but it is obviously a successful course of action in the case of the church at Newport. Unquestionably the matter is one which presents numerous difficulties, and various speakers voiced some of the obstacles which are met with, and which are only too well known to those who do the spade work. But help in overcoming the difficulties may be found in a general discussion of the problems, and we hope that consideration of the subject will be freely taken up at ringers' meetings, so that practical good may grow out of the seed which this first informal conference at Bristol has planted.

HELD OVER.

Owing to pressure on our space we are compelled to hold over a number of peal reports, 'Notes by the Way,' and the second portion of Mr. W. Taylor's article on Superlative Surprise, as well as other items.

KING'S NORTON BELLS.*RINGERS' GATHERING.

A very enthusiastic gathering of ringers took place on New Year's Day at King's Norton, at the invitation of the Ringing Master, Mr. F. B. Yates. The bells, which have recently been augmented to a ring of ten by the addition of two trebles, the gift of the Ringing Master, attracted a large company of ringers, visitors attending from several towers in the Midland counties. Ringing commenced early in the afternoon, and was continued after tea, opportunities being given to all to get a pull.

A substantial meat tea was provided by Mr. Yates, and took place in the ancient school in the churchyard.—At the conclusion, Mr. A. E. Parsons, of Old Hill, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Yates for his kindness to the ringers on that occasion, and congratulated him on his magnificent gift to King's Norton.—This was seconded by Mr. T. E. Reeves, of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, and carried with acclamation.

Mr. Yates, in reply, expressed the pleasure it gave him to carry out his project and also to meet the ringers that afternoon.

Mr. Albert Walker, of St. Martin's Guild, thanked the ladies, Mesdames Yates, Moore, Laffin, Ball, Williams, and Webb (all wives of ringers) for their valuable help with the tea arrangements.

Mr. J. F. Smallwood, of Derby, thanked the Vicar, the Rev. T. S. Dunn, for his kindness in allowing the use of the bells and for the interest he took in promoting bell ringing in King's Norton.—The Vicar, in reply, expressed the pleasure it gave him to be associated with and to encourage the King's Norton ringers.

All the visitors were loud in their praises of the work which Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, have accomplished in the tower.

DEVON GUILD.

The annual meeting of the S.W. District Branch of the Devon Guild was held at Shaugh Prior, on Saturday, January 8th, presided over by the Rev. E. S. Powell and preceded by a service in church conducted by the Rev. A. Alexander.

The secretary's report was unanimously adopted. The year 1926 had been, he said, the most successful of the branch. Each band in union was able to report considerable progress, and the result of the meetings at Stoke Damerel was that four 720's of Cambridge Surprise and one of London had been accomplished.

The chairman and secretary were unanimously re-elected and thanked for their past services.

The next meeting of the branch will be held at Aveton Gifford, on Saturday, April 23rd.

STANMORE GUILD'S ANNUAL DINNER.*PRESENTATIONS TO INSTRUCTORS.

The annual dinner of the Stanmore Guild was held on Saturday, January 1st, at the Abercorn Arms, Stanmore. The Rector (Rev. W. A. Hewitt) presided, and was supported by Messrs. G. Hughes (Ringing Master), F. Hill (hon. secretary), C. T. Coles (hon. secretary, Middlesex County Association), F. Edwards (Bushey), and a company consisting of some 25 ringers and friends. The various courses of the dinner having been successfully 'brought round,' the Rector proposed the loyal toast, which was drunk with musical honours.

The toast of 'The Rector and Churchwardens' was proposed by Mr. G. Hughes, who spoke of the success of the Stanmore Guild, mentioning that they were now negotiating the Stedman stage.—The Rector, in his reply, apologised for the absence of the churchwarden, and thanked the ringers for their loyal services to the church.

Mr. F. Hill proposed the toast of 'Our Guests,' coupling with it the names of Messrs. Coles, Edwards and Milner, and including the Isleworth ringers who were present, and the local friends who had joined them.

The Rector then performed the very pleasant ceremony of making presentations to Messrs. Edwards and Milner on behalf of the Stanmore ringers, in token of their services as instructors during the past year.

Mr. G. T. Coles first responded to the toast, thanking Mr. Hill, on behalf of the visitors, for his very kind words about them. He congratulated the local ringers on their progress, and Messrs. Edwards and Milner on having brought about such a satisfactory state of affairs. He warned them not to fall into the error made by so many bands, that of not looking to the future. It was always necessary to bring in and teach young ringers, and a mistake to wait until the actual shortage of ringers took place.

Mr. Edwards next responded, thanking the Stanmore ringers for their kind gift to him. It had been a great pleasure to him, he said, to do what he had done, and he had been amply repaid by the knowledge that some progress had been made.—Mr. Milner also returned thanks for the gift to him, and expressed the hope that the present excellent state of affairs would continue.

During the evening, the company were entertained with songs by Messrs. Lawford, Withers, and G. Hughes, sen., with conjuring tricks by Mr. Schofield, and with various selections on the handbells by Messrs. Goddard, Milner, and Tricker, from Isleworth, breaking-up time coming all too soon.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. A. Paddon Smith, the genial hon. secretary of St. Martin's Guild for the diocese of Birmingham, sails to-day for India on a business trip, and will be absent from England for about three months. He will miss the Johnson dinner, which he has attended for 28 consecutive years.

The peal of Cambridge Surprise Major rung on December 4th last at St. John-de-Sepulchre, Norwich, should have been credited to the Norfolk Guild.

Exactly two hundred years ago to-day the first peal of Double Bob Major was rung. This was achieved by the College Youths at St. Dunstan's Church, Fleet Street.

James Barham, the famous old ringer of Leeds, Kent, died at the age of 93 years on January 14th, 1818.

The first peal of Grandsire Cinques, was rung at St. Bride's, Fleet Street, on January 19th, 1724.

The Norwich Scholars, who rang 6,720 Norwich Court Bob at St. Michael's, Coslany, on January 15th, 1771, rang the first peal of Double Norwich Maximus at St. Peter Mancroft on January 20th, 1817.

The number of complete 720's rung during the year 1926, at Little Munden, Herts, was 116 in 17 methods, and the band have not missed ringing for both Sunday services throughout the year. This is a record number of 720's on the bells.

The Herts Association meeting, which was to have been held at Hemel Hempstead to-morrow, has been cancelled.

THE LONG PEAL ATTEMPT. SUCCESS STILL ELUDES RINGERS.

Once again success has eluded the band that has been seeking to ring a new record length of London Surprise Major at Warham, Sussex. The fourth attempt, made last Saturday, came to an end through a change course after three and a half hours' good ringing.

One of the band, who had sprained his foot a week earlier, arrived a bit late through fog and cold, and a start was not made, therefore, until 11.10 a.m., by which times Messrs. K. Hart (Brighton) and A. Dean (Leatherhead) had arrived to listen to the ringing. When the bells had been going for 3½ hours, one of the safest of the band dropped in a 'shift' and 'stand' was called within three leads, to the surprise of the listeners outside.

Later, Messrs. A. W. and C. T. Coles, and E. F. Pike, of London, arrived, and touches in various methods from Grandsire Triples to Bristol Surprise were rung.

A PEAL AT HEREFORD CATHEDRAL.

It has been the ambition of the Hereford ringers for some time past to ring a peal of Caters at the Cathedral. The first attempt was made on December 18th, when after 2 hours 20 minutes' good ringing a little man on a big bell missed his sally and failed to get the bell back in time and all was over.

The conductor immediately approached the Dean, who readily gave permission for an attempt on the 30th, and this met with success. The Dean himself struggled up to the ringing chamber on both occasions, and read the Office and wished the ringers the best of luck, saying that he should listen with great interest to hear the peal finish.

To ring a peal on these bells is a big job, owing to the wide circle and also the noise, as the ringing chamber is so close up to the bells that the sallies go round the wheels. In addition to this, the ringers have to stand amongst the timbers that carry the bell frame.

Great credit is due to all who took part in the peal, as the striking was throughout especially good and regular. The Dean wrote the conductor next day, congratulating all upon the peal, and also saying that the Dean and Chapter would have much pleasure in providing a suitable tablet.

PEAL POINTS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I was under the impression that 'points for peals' had been in disuse for the last year or so, but I noticed this method of rating peals was brought up in the report of Mr. Burton's 100 peals last week.

I think when such an unsatisfactory and extraneous method is not counted by the C.O. it should be dropped by the individual ringer.—Yours truly,

E. R. W.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

A practice was held at Curdridge on Saturday last by kind permission of the Vicar (Rev. W. Slater). The weather was not all that could be desired, but members were present from Southampton, North Stoneham, Portsmouth (St. Mary's and St. Thomas'), and Curdridge, and included the Master (Mr. G. Williams) and Messrs. W. T. Tucker (Winchester district secretary) and F. W. Rogers (Portsmouth district secretary). Various touches were rung during afternoon and evening in methods including Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major. The monthly 12-bell practice will be held at Winchester Cathedral on January 22nd, at 6 p.m., when it is hoped a good number will be present.

BRISTOL UNITED GUILDS.*A CONFERENCE AND DINNER.

Visitors to Bristol for the United Guilds' sixth annual dinner on Saturday had a crowded afternoon and evening. Assembling at the University buildings, a magnificent and conspicuous pile at the top of one of Bristol's many hills, ringers with their wives and friends inspected the edifice, with its stately entrance hall, its handsome assembly room, its well equipped laboratories and lecture rooms, and then made their way to the lofty tower which dominates the building and is of striking architectural design and proportions. This handsome structure is 54 feet square and 200 feet high, and in it hangs 'Great George,' the fourth largest bell in this country. Cast by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, this bell, 8 ft. 4 in. in diameter, and weighing 9 tons 11½ cwt., is in E flat, as deep a note as Great Paul's, at St. Paul's Cathedral, which is more than 7 tons heavier. Its wonderful tone is a great sonorous boom, and in the tower, where the monstrous bell swings in a reinforced concrete frame, every blow seems to make one's own body vibrate. As many of the visitors as could climb to the belfry door, which is 132 feet above the street level, did so to see this splendid specimen of the founder's art rung. With a ponderous rope, three or four sturdy ringers gradually swung the bell to and fro until at length its prodigious, balanced clapper struck the sound bow, and a deep, pulsating boom went out over the city. For a minute or two the bell was rung, and was a source of great interest to the visitors, who afterwards descended to inspect other parts of the building and to join in a conference, the subject for discussion being, 'How can we obtain recruits to take our places hereafter and to fill the many present gaps?'

The Chairman of the United Guilds, Mr. H. J. Way, presided, and, after explaining the object of the conference, invited the views of those present. Mr. Albert Walker (Birmingham) suggested that the University Guilds might do even more than they did at present by getting young men who, after leaving university, would be able to use their influence to bring in young ringers. Mr. Uriah Braven (Bristol) advocated enlisting the sympathies of the elementary schoolmasters in order to get hold of boys about school-leaving age, and who generally made apt pupils.

Mr. J. W. Jones (Newport) said if by recruits they meant those who would ring the bells for Sunday services, then he had found an easy way of maintaining a supply. He always had someone learning to handle a bell, and as soon as he could ring rounds he was passed on to the change-ringing stage, and another beginner was found. At present he had three lads of twelve years of age who could ring rounds as well as he could, who were being trained, but he always had someone learning to handle a bell.

Mr. W. A. Cave (Bristol) pointed out that often a lad who had been in the choir until he was about 14 left because his voice was breaking. He urged these lads should be encouraged to take up ringing and so keep their connection with church work.

Mr. John Austin (Gloucester) thought the difficulty was not so much in getting recruits as in keeping them. They must make ringing more attractive, something which their beginners would take up and look forward to from week to week. Instead of sending out instructors, what they wanted in their country districts were organisers.

Mr. C. D. Heginbotham (Devizes) urged that old ringers should show more tact with young ringers than was often the case; that meetings should be less 'stodgy' and more sociable. Another speaker said that young ringers were often not given sufficient opportunities on practice night, and when it was in a tower where a band could ring higher methods they sometimes got little chance to make headway, and young people of to-day had not sufficient patience to endure that sort of thing.

Other speakers took part in the discussion, including Mr. F. E. Dawe (London), Mr. W. Knight (Bristol) and the chairman, who brought the debate to a close and thanked the speakers.

After 'ten and bun,' the large party proceeded to St. Stephen's Church, where service was held, and then they reassembled at the Royal Hotel, where over 160 sat down to an excellent repast, under the chairmanship of Mr. H. J. Way, the vice-chairman being Mr. John E. Jefferies. The guest of the evening was Canon H. B. Freeman, of the Cathedral, and among others present were the Rev. M. Paterson (St. Thomas'), Mrs. Way, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Pryce Taylor (Loughborough), Mr. E. Wilkins (Bristol), Miss N. G. Williams (Bath), Mr. and Mrs. Spurrier, Mr. F. E. Dawe, Mr. S. H. Wood (Almondsbury), Mr. C. F. Johnston (Croydon), Mr. S. F. Palmer (Sheffield), Mr. C. D. Heginbotham (Devizes), Mr. P. H. W. Cams (Bristol), Mr. and Mrs. A. Walker (Birmingham), Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hughes (London), Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goldsmith (Woking), Mr. A. Wright (Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association), Mr. T. H. Beams (Bradpole, Dorset), Mr. J. W. Jones (Newport), Messrs. T. F. King, F. C. Rich and G. H. Harding (Bath), J. Austin, E. E. Davis and T. Baldwin (Gloucester), Miss E. Emm (Evercreech), Messrs. W. Farley (Box), J. R. Jones and J. H. Blackmore (Weston-super-Mare), and ringers from the towers of Bristol and surrounding district, many of whom brought their wives. The officers of the United Guilds who worked so hard for the success of the gathering, in addition to the chairman and vice-chairman, were: Messrs. P. C. Williams (hon. treasurer), E. Guise (hon. secretary), E. J. Brown, W. A. Cave, W. Knight, E. G. Trew and Miss E. Smith (stewards), who with the following constituted the Dinner Committee: Messrs. E. Abraham, U. Braven, J. A. Burford, J. Gould, P. Jewell, R. Seager and W. Stafford.

A feature of these gatherings is the musical programme, and once more Mr. W. S. Emery and Mr. E. Guise, who were responsible for this part of the arrangements, had succeeded in providing a diversified and thoroughly enjoyable bill of fare. Miss W. Rodd, who has a fine voice, sang, 'It is only a tiny garden' and 'Annie Laurie.' Mr. F. Griffin contributed 'O lovely night,' Miss M. Bishop rendered 'My heart is like a singing bird' and 'Pipes of Pan.' Miss R. Read played 'cello solos, and the songs of the Rev. J. D. Stancombe were much enjoyed. A feature of the vocal items was the songs of Mr. Jackson Potter, who appeared by permission of the Princes Theatre Management, and sang 'Onaway, awake,' and 'The Sergeant Major.' Mr. Marriott Edgar, also from Princes Theatre, greatly amused the audience by recounting in song and story his attempt to swim the Channel, and Mr. F. E. Lester gave a humorous recital. Handbells figured conspicuously in the programme, and Mrs. Hughes gave a delightful interlude. Her splendid rendering of 'Love's old sweet song' was followed by 'Land of hope and glory,' played with wonderful expression, and called forth uproarious applause. Mr. E. J. Brown's handbell party, which consisted of four ladies in addition to himself, also contributed some splendid selections, and familiar tunes were also admirably rung by the St. Thomas' handbell ringers. A very clever conjuring entertainment was given by Mr. R. Harris, who performed some wonderful tricks with cards.

The toast 'The King' was proposed by the Chairman, who also submitted 'The Church,' which was responded to by Canon H. B. Freeman. Mr. F. E. Dawe gave 'The Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association,' to which Mr. Albert Wright replied, and the Vice-Chairman proposed 'Kindred Guilds and Associations,' with which was coupled the names of Messrs. C. F. Johnston and A. Walker. The other toasts were 'The Ringing World,' proposed by Mr. J. W. Jones, and acknowledged by Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, and 'The Artists,' submitted by Mr. C. D. Heginbotham and replied to by Mr. C. Read, the gathering concluding at a late hour with 'Auld Lang Syne.' A report of the speeches will appear in our next issue.

Many of the visitors, who stayed over Sunday, enjoyed ringing on several of the peals of bells in the city.

LONG SERVICE.

An interesting ceremony took place a short time ago at Bridgnorth, Salop. At the entrance to St. Leonard's Church a bronze tablet has been erected to record the ringing of a peal of Stedman Triples to commemorate the jubilee of Mr. J. Overton's service as head ringer, and a representative little company gathered for the unveiling ceremony. The Rector said a few words expressing the purpose of the gathering. St. Leonard's, he said, had been fortunate in the long tenure of its office holders in the past. Mr. John Sewell had been 59 years organist, Mr. H. Goodall 48 years vergier, and assistant vergier for many years previously, and they had set a standard of long and faithful service. Now their head ringer, after 50 years of office, was still with them and still able to do good work.

The tablet was then unveiled, after which some appropriate prayers were said, and a short 'touch' upon the bells brought the ceremony to an end. Three of Mr. Overton's sons and himself took part in the peal. The tablet was designed and executed by Mr. W. J. Fletcher, of Coalbrookdale, and was cast by the Coalbrookdale Co., Ltd.

LLANDUDNO RINGERS AT BANGOR.

On New Year's Day a small party of ringers from Llandudno paid a promised visit to Bangor. When they arrived at Bangor they found that they were one ringer short, but fortunately they found a good friend in Mr. J. H. Midwinter, who took a rope at a few minutes' notice. After ringing a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, Stedman Doubles and Grandsire Minor were rung. The ringers retired to the Westminster Cafe, where a good tea was enjoyed. On the homeward journey, it was decided to pay another visit in the near future. The quarter peal was rung by: J. H. Midwinter 1, R. L. Fairlie 2, A. E. Pegler 3, E. Lodge 4, S. Brown 5, A. Fairlie 6, W. T. Pegler (conductor) 7, T. Lowe 8.

Judd 2, P. L. Miles 3, A. E. Bradley 4, A. Cutmore 5, A. V. Selby 6, C. W. Roberts (conductor) 7, H. Wakelam 8.

MR. WASHBROOK'S PEAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to say a few words more on above question. I did not say it was possible to obtain a five-part peal with two singles. What I meant to convey was if our early composers had hit on the brainy idea that Mr. Washbrook did later on, the peal would have held preference over the five-part. I beg to thank Mr. Dexter for his kind invitation to visit him at Stuart Street. No doubt it would be worth while, seeing he was described in the columns of your paper recently as the Beethoven of the Exercise. It would be a great honour to be in such illustrious company.—Yours faithfully,

J. HUNT.

TRANSPPOSITIONS AND VARIATIONS.

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent, Mr. E. W. Tipler, will have noticed that in my letters I have been fairly consistent in giving dates of the various performances, and I hope he will not think me unreasonable if I ask the same in return. If he will kindly give me the date (if the peal has appeared in 'The Ringing World') or forward me an association report containing reference to the performances he speaks of, I shall be most grateful, and will pay postage both ways.

I will now venture to reply to his last sentence: 'Until one can tell me that a rearrangement, no matter how small, is not a variation, I cannot feel satisfied.' At the same time I realise that there are men in the Exercise better qualified to do so than I am, but I will do my best.

A.				B.
23456	M	W	H	23456	M	W	H
35426		2		43526		2	1

25634	2		1	62453	2	2
24536	2		1	63254	2		1

A is a peal of Bristol Surprise Major by the late C. H. Hattersley (which will not run true to Treble Bob), rung May 21st, 1912. B is the same peal, but reversed. As it has proved interesting to me, it might be of others, so I will explain how to reverse a peal. In the above example, take the last course of A. There is no call at W, which corresponds to M in the reverse, so the first call to put down is W2, then the H in the fourth course, and work backwards in that way, finishing with the H of the 5th course. That is reversing.

A.				B.
S.	L.			S.	H.	Q.
S.	H.	Q.		S.	H.	Q.
H.				H.	L.

A is the three-course block of 'Thurstans', B is a variation of that by Lates, and C is one by Brooks. You will observe that S in the first course, S, H, in the second, and H, in the third is common to all, that is because these are calls that affect the 6th. The other calls are varied, so this is a variation.

A.						C.

Regarding A as the original touch of two courses, B, C and D are simply transpositions. As with touches, so with peals. All those who are interested should (if they do not already possess a copy) get Snowden's 'Stedman,' and turn to pages 222 and 223. There they will find four transpositions of Sir Arthur Heywood's well-known No. 1. Two of these have the singles at 2 and 14, and two with singles at 9 and 11, but they are all the same peal.

I beg permission to insert an extract from Chapter V. of Snowden's 'Treble Bob,' Part I. (a book, by the way, which should be in the hands of every ringer who has any ambition to rise above the ordinary level), 'Transposition of Peals':

Before proceeding to explain the proof and mode of composition of Treble Bob peals, I will first explain several ways in which peals can be altered in the arrangement of the calling, so that, unless carefully examined, they may easily be mistaken for different compositions. The principles upon which these variations are produced should be thoroughly understood by all ringers, and especially by all composers, for although the former may assist in ringing as a new peal a variation of one which may be a hundred years old, the latter may not only assist in the ringing but may also put himself to much trouble and make himself the laughing stock of the Exercise by reproducing a variation of some well-known peal and putting it forth as an original composition.

It seems probable that transposition has been resorted to by persons unable to produce original peals, merely to vary the productions of others. To these variations they have then attached their names. . . . Of course, a composer may, in perfectly good faith and with the most honourable intentions, reproduce an old peal and be unaware of the fact. Then follow some examples of reversing peals of Treble Bob, of which I have given an explanation above.

I hope I have written enough to make Mr. Tipler feel satisfied that a rearrangement is not a variation: it is produced automatically.

Now, as to Washbrook's peal of Stedman Triples, Mr. Hunt, in his letter of December 17th, says: '... Mr. Washbrook's peal is not, in my opinion, a transposition of Thurstans.' I concur. Since then I have received a letter from an eminent member of the Exercise on the composing side, in which he says: 'I was amused by the correspondence re Dexter's variation of Thurstans', but what has Thurstans to do with it? The original composition was by William Hudson, of Sheffield. All that Thurstans did was to discover the extras and omits by means of which he put Hudson's quarter-peals together.' So you see, Washbrook's peal has as much claim to be called an original composition as Thurstans'. What the latter accomplished with omits and extras the former did with singles.

In view of what I have written, I challenge Mr. Pulling to establish the claim for the title of 'Variation' of Thurstans' for what has been known as 'Dexter's variation' when the Central Council meets at Whitsun. It is Washbrook's peal, and the composition is also his.—Yours, etc.,

W. A. CAVE.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

TEN-YEAR-OLD RINGER'S PERFORMANCE.

Monday, January 3rd, was chosen as the best day for a meeting of the Eastern District of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association at South Shields, as Saturday meetings are prohibited on account of the adjacent market, so that an attendance of 14 under the circumstances was quite satisfactory.

Touches of Kent Treble Bob Major, Double Norwich, and Grandsire were rung during the afternoon, and after an excellent tea at the Mecca Cafe, on the proposition of Mr. C. L. Routledge, the president of the association, Mr. R. I. Patterson was re-elected vice-president for the district (subject to confirmation at the February meeting of the association). A vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens for the use of the bells was passed, and also one to the captain and secretary of the South Shields band for their assistance.

Shortly after ringing had been resumed, the treble rope broke, ringing being confined to six bells. A 720 of Bob Minor was rung, being the first 720 by the ten-year-old son of Mr. Stephen Stratford, of North Shields: Robert S. Stratford 1, E. Hern 2, Rev. A. W. Lister 3, T. T. Goffon 4, J. W. Parker 5, R. L. Patterson 6.

DEATH OF AN ILKESTON RINGER.

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Henry Straw, who died in the Ilkeston Hospital after a long and painful illness on December 27th, at the comparatively early age of 40 years. His remains were interred on Sunday, January 2nd, in the churchyard of Mapperley (Derby). The first portion of the service (which was fully choral) was taken by the Vicar, and at the graveside the Rev. A. W. Bell, M.A., R.D., Vicar of Ilkeston, officiated. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the open grave by four of his old comrades.

The deceased ringer was most genial and unassuming, and a better colleague no society ever possessed. An excellent striker, he was always willing to assist in the bellry in any way possible.

Numerous floral tributes were sent, including one from his fellow-ringers. As a last tribute of respect, muffled touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples were rung on the bells of the church he loved so well.

DEATH OF FORMER CHELSEA RINGER.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Charles Hindes, for over 30 years vestry clerk of St. Luke's Church. He passed away on December 31st, at the age of 68 years. Born in Buckinghamshire, deceased served for many years in the Scots Guards, retiring with the rank of sergeant. He had done no ringing for the past 20 years, but rang peals in the '80's and '90's, and no doubt will be remembered by the older members of the Exercise. He was a member of the College Youths and the Midland Counties Association. The ringers' last tribute, the 'whole pull and stand,' was rung on January 5th, the day of the funeral, by G. Watkin, H. W. Mance, W. Eyles, E. Reeve, A. Newman, C. Mitchell, R. Mackrill, W. Essery, H. Mance, L. Bayliss; and on Sunday, January 8th, for evensong, a quarter-peal (1,263 changes) of Stedman Caters, with bells muffled, by: H. W. Mance 1, H. H. Mance 2, G. Watkin 3, E. Reeve 4, W. Dean 5, H. S. Ellis 6, R. Mackrill 7, C. F. Mitchell 8, H. Mance (conductor) 9, W. Essery 10.

A JUBILEE DATE TOUCH.

The first peal on the bells at Lytham Parish Church, Lancashire, was rung on December 2nd, 1876. It was a peal of Grandsire Triples, To commemorate the jubilee of the event, the present ringers at the Lytham Parish Church on Tuesday evening, December 21st, rang a date touch, consisting of 1,926 changes of Stedman Triples, in 1 hour and 10 minutes: J. Allanson, jun., 1, J. Allanson 2, T. Allanson 3, G. Miller 4, S. Clark 5, C. Lewis (conductor) 6, H. Hunt 7, J. Eaves 8.

BARNSELEY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting was held at St. Mary's, Barnsley, on Saturday, January 8th. The following towers were represented: Wath, Wortley, Anston, Rotherham, Doncaster, Felkirk, Cawthorne, Darton, Darfield, Sandal, Horbury, Shalvey, Penistone, Royston, Crofton, and Barnsley. The methods rung during the afternoon were Grandsire Doubles, Bob Minor, Treble Bob Minor and Major. Special mention was paid by some to the higher flights of Minor, but a most pleasing feature was the successful efforts made by a good number of young and rising members.

Service was held in church at 4.30. the Rector, Rev. H. E. Hone, again officiating, and about 24 members attending. The prayers were selected and directed to the ringers. The address was a welcome one, and a plea to the ringers to dedicate their art by associating with it Christian thoughts and acts, remembering always how influential such work and example were, and that it would bring increased happiness over and above the mental pleasures and happy hours spent in the ringing room.

Tea followed, a company of about thirty, including the Rector, sitting down. Business followed, the Rector, who is honorary president, taking the chair. The report of the I. G. Shade fund and the secretary's report of year's work were passed as read. The treasurer's balance sheet audited by Messrs. R. Thickett and W. Moxon was passed unanimously.

Messrs. J. Buggs, E. Ball, P. Shaw, F. Bradley, T. Cullingworth, R. Harrop, G. Hepworth, all of Crofton, were elected members; Messrs. F. and J. E. Bracken, of Darton, were elected.

As president for 1927, Mr. W. Moxon, a popular member of Sandal, was unanimously elected. The treasurer, Mr. A. Panther, and Mr. C. D. Potter, secretary, were each re-elected.

Congratulations were expressed to the chairman on his appointment by the Bishop of Wakefield as Rural Dean.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector and churchwardens for the use of the bells, and the local ringers for their kind assistance.

COALBROOKDALE RINGERS' DINNER.

The Coalbrookdale ringers held their first annual dinner on Saturday, January 8th, at the Coalbrookdale Inn. Those present were the Rev. Presh. C. B. Crowe, M.A., R.D. (Vicar), the Mayor of Wenlock (Mr. W. Bishop), Mr. Thos. Doughty, the churchwardens, sidesmen, local ringers, and several visiting ringers, including Mr. Herbert Brown, of Shropshire, and Mr. J. L. Hayward, who had motored from Oxford. A first-class dinner was served up by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bayley, to which all present did full justice.

The cloth removed, the rest of the evening was spent in toasting and harmony. The Brosely Quartette party were in tip-top form; Messrs. Pryce and Francis also rendered solos; Mr. E. Heighing as a humorist was excellent; and Mr. Jack Garbett (elocutionist) rendered the 'Last Shot' with great effect. The local handbell ringers also contributed several items, one of which was a fine course of Grandsire Caterers on Mr. J. L. Hayward's nice bells. The evening was a great success, and it was decided that the annual dinner had come to stay.

The same evening, and also on Sunday morning, the bells were rung half-muffled as a token of respect to the late Doctor Whitfield, for many years a resident of Ironbridge. The flag was also flown at half-mast.

THE LATE CANON PAPILLON.

At Writtle, Essex, on Saturday, January 1st, at the Parish Church, the local company rang a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples with the bells half-muffled, as a token of respect to the late Canon T. L. Papillon, whose death was recorded in our columns last week, and who was Vicar of the parish for 25 years, and was buried at 12.45 on the same day at Crowhurst, Sussex: W. Emery 1, T. Lincoln 2, H. Head 3, H. Edwards 4, W. Lincoln 5, F. G. Radley 6, A. Head 7, T. B. Fairhead 8.

Change ringing was introduced and a company formed in 1885 by Canon Papillon, W. Lincoln, the conductor, and F. G. Radley being the only original members who started with him. The rest, with the exception of ringers of 4 and 8, eventually joined and rang with Canon Papillon until his departure in 1909. He was interested in the continued progress of the band, and a fortnight previous sent congratulations to them after reading the report of a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples rung muffled for his late churchwarden, Mr. T. Williams.

VETERAN TENTERDEN RINGER.

The peal rung at Tenterden on December 31st was the second half-muffled peal upon this fine-toned ring of bells, the first having been rung December 31st, 1909, conducted by Mr. Robert Edwards. Mr. C. Tribe also took part in both peals. Congratulations are extended to Mr. Tribe, who attained the age of 69 years on January 3rd. He is also to be congratulated upon training so many ringers around Tenterden, including all who rang in the 1926 peal (except Messrs. Edwards and Wenban). The striking throughout the peal was maintained at a high standard.

Afterwards, the band spent a pleasant hour at Mr. R. Edwards' house, and then ascended the tower once more, when the New Year was rung in with 518 Grandsire Triples, conducted by C. Tribe.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM.*ALL OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

The annual meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held at the St. Martin's Hotel, on Tuesday, January 4th, the presiding Ringing Master, Mr. Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., being in the chair. All the officers were re-elected en bloc for the ensuing year: President, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Birmingham; vice-presidents, the Rev. Canon T. Guy Rogers, B.D., M.C., Rector of Birmingham, Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., B.C.L., Messrs. W. H. Godden, John Carter, J. H. Shepherd, Wm. Kent, Thos. Russam; presiding Ringing Master, Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., B.C.L.; deputy Ringing Master, Mr. Albert Walker; trustees, Messrs. T. Russam and C. Dickens; auditors, Messrs. T. H. Reeves and Jonathan Preston; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. A. Paddon Smith.

In thanking those present for their renewed expression of confidence, the Chairman said that although he would reach his 72nd birthday within the next few days, he would be quite pleased to continue to do all he could for the Guild, and to attend the meetings as regularly as possible so long as they desired him to remain in office. As a matter of fact, he had rung several peals within the last few months, and had several others arranged for the near future, so that he did not think he was quite 'played out' yet from the ringing point of view.

The Secretary informed the meeting that he was shortly proceeding to India on business, and that he would be unable to attend at, or complete the arrangements for the Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinner to be held on February 19th. He remarked that he had attended 28 consecutive dinners, and was sorry to have to break the sequence, but business must not be neglected.—On the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. J. E. Groves, the secretary was granted three months' leave of absence, the members wishing him 'Good luck' in his undertaking.

The Secretary announced that the Rector of Birmingham, the Rev. Canon T. Guy Rogers, B.D., M.C., had already consented to take the chair, and that the rest of the arrangements were well in hand.

Several new members were elected, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted: 'That we desire to express our appreciation of the generosity of one of our members, Mr. Frank B. Yates, in presenting two trebles to King's Norton Church, augmenting the beautiful peal of eight to a handy and musical peal of ten, which has given great gratification to the members of this Guild.'

It was also decided (subject to the Vicar's permission being obtained) to hold the next quarterly meeting at King's Norton.

Will members and intending visitors to the Johnson dinner please note that outstanding subscriptions and applications for tickets should be addressed to Mr. Albert Walker, 81, Baker Street, Spark-hill, Birmingham.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.*BURTON-ON-TRENT DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.

Owing to bad weather, the attendance at the above, which was held at St. Paul's Church, Burton, on Saturday, January 8th, was disappointing. Twenty ringers were present, including the vice-president. The bells were kept going in various Triple and Caper methods during the afternoon, and were made good use of.

At the business meeting it was decided that, there being no nominations from that district for the general officers and Central Council representatives, the present holders of office should be re-elected.

The vice-president (Mr. W. W. Worthington) and local secretary (Mr. R. H. Dove) were re-elected, whilst Messrs. G. F. Newman (St. Paul's, Burton) and Joseph W. Cotton (Overseal) were elected to serve on the committee for the ensuing year.

It was arranged to hold the next meeting at Alrewas, if possible, or otherwise at Measham, on March 5th.

Four new ringing members were elected from Burton Ashby, Measham and Newhall.

The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the vice-president for taking the chair, this being carried unanimously.
