THE PINNACLE

THERE is a delightful story concerning one of the notorieties of the Exercise, who shared a room with another ringer during a tour. In the middle of the night he woke his companion and remarked, 'There's only one heavy bellringer better than I, and he's dead.' Probably it was the subconscious mind working; nevertheless one can picture the bliss on that veteran's face as he turned over and went to sleep with his own knowledge of having reached the pinnacle of individual achievement.

It is possible that there might be a number of readers who will regard this little story as applicable to them. Claimants to be the best tenor-bell ringer living are many. Every vigorous well-built young ringer has aspirations in that direction, not excluding some of the ladies. A sense of individual satisfaction accompanies a fine performance. But the people who get the fun are the non-tenor ringers. 'We shall soon see the great man roll up his sleeves and mount the tenor box and look round for a challenger to his right to the tenor,' whispered the wag of the party as this personality arrived at the church. And it was so, but the memory remained and caused many a smile throughout the meeting, and it was the great man with his sleeves turned up who demonstrated how to ring that tenor in an impeccable style.

Some weeks back the writer met one of those budding tenor men. From his conversation the bud had blossomed forth into a beautiful flower in the full glory of perfection. Noted tenor after tenor was discussed with the air of a connoisseur as he expounded upon respective idiosyncrasies. His listeners felt themselves to be such puny mortals until the bait was set. 'How would you like to ring — to a peal?' The question from a famous conductor brought the glint of quest to his reply, as he replied in an eager affirmative. 'Of course, we'll have young — to strap with you.' Interest dropped. This was a one-man job in his eyes, and the glory would vanish immediately.

Conceit, some of us ordinary folk might regard such ambitions, proclaimed with the challenge of fearlessness. These men, however, serve the Exercise well. The determination to be masters in their particular spheres sets a high standard and creates a spirit of emulation which is the basis of athletic prowess. They reveal to the student that there is no decadence about this age. In the knowledge of their performance, however, they have their reward. Such a prize is denied to most of us, but we ordinary folk have our great moments in the serenity and peace that accompany the highest use of the bells, perfect service ringing.

'THE RINGING WORLD'

The Official Journal of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers

EDITORIAL OFFICE: c/o Woodbridge Press, Ltd., Guildford, Surrey.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The peal at Cannington, Somerset, was the first on the bells since 1903 and was a birthday compliment to Mr. T. George Burge.

Mr. Stedman H. Symonds, of Lavenham, Suffolk, is desirous of a peal of 'Stedman' on Stedman's own bells with a complete band of 'Stedmans.'

Two new bells are being put in at Patrington, Yorks, to complete the octave. The Archbishop of York will dedicate the bells on April 28th.

The first peal of Cambridge Maximus to be rung at St. Albans Cathedral was on the birthday of Mr. H. E. C. Goodenough, who has been a member of the Cathedral band for 40 years and conductor for 25 years.

Ely Diocesan Association has another peal of Stedman Triples to record, called at Littleport by that Guildford conductor, Mr. A. H. Pulling. The previous peal was as far back as 1912!

St. Clement's Bob Triples, rung at Worcester, is recommended for those who would like a change from Grandsire and Stedman Triples. 'It is easily learned and interesting to ring,' writes Conductor George E. Large.

If any young ringers undergo their military training at the Palace Barracks, near Holywood, Northern Ireland, they will find a welcome awaits them at the Parish Church, Practice, Tuesdays, 7.30 p.m.; service ringing, Sundays, 10.45 and 6.15.

After 20 years away from ringing, Mr. Hermon J. Oliver is forming a new band for the recently dedicated bells of Downham, Essex. This week we record his first peal at the age of 62.

St. Jude's, Randwick, Sydney, have replaced their withdrawn peal. It was rung as a farewell to the Rector (the Rev. O. V. Abram), who is leaving for England. Miss Ruth Donnelly is the first lady in N.S.W. to ring a peal. Well done, Australia!

While the peal of Minor was in progress at Hindon, Wiltshire, the Rev. W. H. Cook telephoned the Rev. C. C. Cox, Ringing Master of the Salisbury Guild, at Lyme Regis about 50 miles away, and he was able to hear the bells quite well.

Ten officers of the Lancashire Association started for a peal of Kent Treble Bob Royal at Manchester Cathedral on February 21st to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shuker's golden wedding. After about one hour's ringing, someone switched off the belfry light from below and this ended the attempt. Another is being made at Bispham.

Radley College Campanological Society visited Messrs. Mears and Stainbank's foundry on February 4th and were conducted round by Mr. A. A. Hughes, who 'answered all our questions.' Writes the Society's correspondent: 'A very substantial gap in our knowledge has been filled and everyone greatly benefited from the experience.'

The Central Council Biographies Committee has reproductions of photographs of some original members of the Council, including the late Henry White, J. W. Whiting, J. Peltitt, J. W. Waghorn, K. Hart, E. Horrex, J. S. Goldsmith (1902), F. Hopgood, W. Gifford, Rev. F. E. Robinson, M. A. Wood, I. Shade. Copies of these can be supplied at 1s. each, postage extra if less than six are ordered, from A. O. Hazelden, 109, Grange Road, Guildford.

LETTERSCENTRAL COUNCIL AND DUBLIN

Dear Sir,—In your leader on the proposed visit of the Central Council to Dublin, you mention only the problem of expense, but this is not the only or most important objection, since the associations will, no doubt, wholly or partly meet their representatives' expenses.

The question of time is a most important factor. It must be borne in mind that the actual day of the meeting (Whit Tuesday) is for most people a working day, and I should imagine that this must have accounted for many a suitable person declining nomination for his particular association.

I do not know much about travel to and from Dublin, but it is obvious that the day following the meeting would be devoted to returning home, which means that members attending would have to obtain at least two days' leave of absence from their jobs, and it is questionable whether this could be justified at a time when all are being asked to work harder than ever before.

This problem arises to a lesser extent, of course, when meetings are held in England, and it would be interesting to learn what is the percentage of absenteeism at C.C. meetings in recent years and to what extent this factor is the cause.

Nowadays, Saturday is becoming more and more a non-working day in all branches of industry and commerce, and the Central Council and its affiliated societies might study the question whether it would be advantageous to hold the meeting on a Saturday instead of Whit Tuesday.

This, of course, would not help where Dublin is concerned, but most parts of England could be reached by travelling overnight or at most having Friday afternoon off from work and the delegates would be left with Sunday in which to travel home.

Such a change might have the effect of inducing many able men to accept nomination as representatives, thereby giving the Council greater virility, lack of which, in my opinion, is the present Council's chief weakness.—Yours sincerely,

H. G. CASHMORE.

Watford, Herts.

GROVE'S VARIATION

Dear Sir,—I was with much interest that I read the leader, 'Grandsire Triples,' of the issue of February 13th. I should like, however, to point out to Mr. Corrigan and to those ringers who are learning or calling Grove's Variation for the first time that the call affecting the 5th and 6th bells is not altogether omitted in the quarter-peal. The quarter-peal from Grove's Variation is obtained by substituting, in one part only, a bob for the first single, in the part. The calling then runs: call 7th, in and out at 3 and home with a bob; and so forth. If the substitution takes place in the first part, the part end is 423567; if in the second part, 342657, or if in the third part rounds. Of course, the bob may be substituted for the single in all three parts, part ends being 423567, 342567 and 234567.

Another useful and musical 'service' touch from the peal may be obtained by calling the first part omitting altogether the last bob, which would normally call seventh 'home.' The bells run round at handstroke at 419 changes, one change short of the part.—Yours sincerely,

ROGER O. FRY.

Bath

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

The pretty ring of six was kept busy to a variety of methods, with Grandsire and Stedman being foremost, when the Truro Branch held a practice meeting at Perran-ar-Worthal on February 14th. A tribute was paid to the late diocesan treasurer, Mr. Hugh Dunstan. Tea was served to a company of 38 ringers.

Shropshire AssociationRECORD NUMBER OF PEALS IN 1947.

Over 50 members attended the annual meeting at Shrewsbury on February 7th, presided over by Mr. A. Pritchard.

The secretary reported that five meetings had been held in addition to the annual. Unfortunately, it was not possible to hold the other two as planned. At Hodnet, the augmentation to eight was not then completed, and the sudden death of the newly-appointed Rector necessitated cancelling the Worthen meeting. Seventeen ringing and five life members were elected during the year.

The Master reported a record year for peal ringing with 22 and that many members had scored either their first peal or first in method. A carved oak peal board (the work of Mr. F. Beddoes) recorded the peal of Grandsire Caters at St. Chad's on the Royal Wedding Day.

Another happy occasion was the wedding on August 27th of the secretary (Mr. E. D. Poole) and Miss P. Fletcher. A band rang for the wedding at Malins Lee and a peal at Condover. A presentation of a cheque as a wedding present from the Association was made, with thanks to them for carrying on duties as secretary and assistant secretary since 1942. It was with regret that they had to relinquish those offices through living in Buckinghamshire.

Officers elected were: Ringing Master, Mr. A. Pritchard; Central Council representative, Mr. G. L. Hewitt; auditor, Mr. W. H. Hughes; treasurer, Mr. W. A. Farmer; hon. secretary, Mr. E. A. Reeves, 22, Rosedale, Harlescott, Shrewsbury.

Three ringing members were elected and the pre-peak election of Messrs. A. D. Collins and A. F. Hirst, of Wolverhampton, ratified.

An invitation from the Crewe Branch, Chester Guild, to meet at Market Drayton on May 29th was accepted. The next meeting will be at Hodnet on March 13th.

A committee was formed to arrange for the printing of the report to cover the years 1940-47, and it was unanimously agreed to increase ringing members' subscriptions from 1s. to 2s. from January 1st next.

Mr. W. Chester, a valued member of Market Drayton band, is returning to Northampton, his home town, after nearly 20 years in Shropshire. As a mark of the Association's appreciation and regard he was elected a free life member of the Association.

GOLDEN WEDDINGMR. AND MRS. J. WHEADON.

The peal rung at Dartford on February 12th celebrated the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Wheadon.

'Jack,' as he is known to all ringers in N.W. Kent, came to Dartford in 1896 from Brenchley, where he learned to ring on the six. His reception by the old Dartford peal band was anything but cordial, and it was not until some six years later, in 1902, when he made a chance meeting with the late Harry Simmons, that he started ringing in earnest. Since then he has rung about 340 peals in all the standard methods up to Cambridge and Superlative.

Jack has never aspired to great things, but has been content to be a good ringer and striker on eight bells, and to fit in with any ringing plans, whether it be with a band of youngsters as with experienced experts.

But Jack Wheadon's greatest interest has always been in Dartford tower and bells. In conjunction with the late Harry Simmons he has been instrumental in effecting vast improvements in the ringing chamber, and in the days of the old bells they did quite a lot of hallowing to keep them in pealable condition.

His ambition now at 76 is to ring 100 peals on Dartford bells, with his nearest rival Bert Audsley. They have rung 92 and 90 respectively.

Beverley and District Society

DRIFFIELD BELLS.

North Ferry on the banks of the Humber, which commands a vista of the Lincolnshire coast, was the venue for the Society's meeting on February 14th at the invitation of the Rev. Harris Lloyd. The six bells here include one of pre-Reformation days, and a very good touch of Kent Treble Bob preceded the service. The Vicar conducted the service, and Mr. A. H. Fox, vice-president, Eastern District, was organist.

Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair at the business meeting. Members received with enthusiasm the news that Driffeld bells, after over 50 years of neglect, were now in use. Eight members with engineers to observe the action of vibration and examine for dangerous masonry visited the tower. The report was that everything was safe and in a better condition than was expected. Much of this is due to P.-Sgt. T. H. Huddleston, of Driffeld, who had been busy cleaning the tower, removing rust and dirt from gudgeons, oiling and greasing the bells, repairing worm-eaten stays and replacing ropes.

The Society placed on record that after approximately 50 years' silence, the bells of All Saints' Church, Driffeld, were rung by members of the Society on February 9th, being 240 Grandire Doubles: F. Wilkinson (Nunburnholme) 1, A. E. Sellers (Beverley Minster) 2, C. H. Hunter (Hedon) 3, T. Southwick (Beverley, St. Mary's) 4, G. Dowling (Beverley Minster) (conductor) 5, F. Osgerby (Beverley Minster) 6, T. W. Kneeshaw (Market Weighton) and T. H. Huddleston took part in further ringing. The meeting decided to send its best thanks to Mr. T. H. Huddleston for his zeal and untiring efforts. The committee was asked to consider the possibility of promoting a dinner.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

GRIMSBY DISTRICT.

Representatives from twelve towers attended the annual meeting of the Grimsby District on February 7th. The bells were kept going during afternoon and evening. Canon E. L. Marsden, Vicar and president of the district, conducted the service.

At the business meeting officers elected were Canon E. L. Marsden, president; Mr. H. I. Mingay, secretary; Mr. J. Bray, Ringing Master; Mr. G. W. Moody, Deputy Ringing Master; Mr. F. Lord, Northern Branch representative; Mr. W. Bramwell and Mr. M. Walker, trustees of Bell Fund.

The treasurer reported grants of 10 guineas and 5 guineas to Barton St. Mary's and Winterton respectively.

DERBYSHIRE ASSOCIATION

PEAK DISTRICT'S FIRST ANNUAL.

The first annual meeting of the district at St. Helen's, Darley Dale, on February 14th, was attended by 25 ringers, including the general secretary from Derby.

In his review of 1947 the chairman thanked the Darley band for arranging practices and helping depleted bands at important festivals.

Officers re-elected were: Mr. G. H. Paulson, chairman; Mr. H. E. Taylor, secretary. Miss Jean Dunn (Darley Dale) and Mr. N. Brassington (Youlgrave) were elected to the General Committee. The handbell ringing included selections by Messrs. Taylor and Paulson, who had recently been on the air at the B.B.C.

THE LADIES' GUILD

Ringing was carried on happily—if not always with quite the polish demanded by the experts—at the meeting at Ewhurst on Feb. 14th. A pleasant surprise awaited the good attendance of members and friends to find that the tea had been provided by an anonymous donor who was later elected an honorary member. Several new members were elected and the ladies afterwards hurried back to the church to extricate the gentlemen from their difficulties!

Guildford Diocesan Guild

GUILDFORD DISTRICT.

Considerable attention has been given by the Guildford District to the care of bells according to the report of the hon. secretary (Mr. A. C. Hazelden) at the annual meeting on Feb. 21st at Guildford.

Restoration had been completed at Shere, work on Womersley bells was in hand, two new trebles were to be provided at Worplesdon and the new ring of six was in the church at Send, but would not be dedicated until after Easter.

Mr. G. L. Grover (Guild secretary) urged the meeting to support an increased subscription. There was no hope, he said, of publishing a report on pre-war scale without a higher subscription. He reported a deficit of £10 on the sanctus bell provided at the new Cathedral in memory of Mr. J. S. Goldsmith.

On the proposition of Mr. Leslie Hunter, the sum of £5 was voted towards meeting the deficit from the district's balance of £32 6s. 5d.

Officers elected were: District secretary, Mr. A. C. Hazelden; Ringing Master, Mr. C. E. Smith; auditor, Mr. Leslie Hunter; General Committee, Mr. R. Whittington. New members elected were Messrs. J. Etherington (Merrow), Colin Arnett, A. Brooks, W. J. Medgett (S. Nicolas'), Lady Poysay, Miss M. Davies (Dunsfold), and Miss R. Brading (Godalming). District meetings were planned for Grayshott, Albury, Bramley and Chiddingfold.

Mr. A. E. Harman, Master of the Guild, presided, the attendance being smaller than usual owing to the heavy snow. The service was held at St. Nicolas' Church, the Rev. R. F. W. Durrant officiating.

FARNHAM DISTRICT.

Activities were twice as many as in any previous year, reported Mr. G. S. Joyce (hon. secretary), at the annual meeting of the Farnham District. The average attendance at the 12 district meetings and combined practices was 60. An increase of 36 members, making a total of 133 (114 ringing, 17 honorary, 2 compounding), was reported.

The Ringing Master (Mr. C. W. Denyer) stated that the condition of bells and frames in some towers was a little worrying. Freisham's needed expert advice, but Bagshot and A'dershot bells had been overhauled. He had reason to believe that something would be done at Hawley—a black spot—with the appointment of the Rev. Kenneth Davies as Vicar.

Officers elected were: Ringing Master, Mr. C. W. Denyer; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. G. S. Joyce; hon. auditor, Mr. P. Eldridge; Executive, honorary, Mr. W. A. Dollimore, ringing, Messrs. W. Viggers and P. Eldridge.

NEW SOUTH WALES ASSOCIATION

THE ANNUAL RING.

The second birthday of the Association on February 7th started at 7 a.m. by six enthusiasts ringing a peal of Doubles at St. Jude's, Randwick, as a farewell to the Rev. O. V. Abram. This was the first true peal on the bells and the first peal for five of the party.

The festival was held at All Saints', Parramatta (six bells, tenor 10 cwt.). The annual competition shield was won by St. Jude's, Randwick, with Stedman Doubles uncondacted, a fine achievement considering that their tower was opened a little over 12 months ago. The team were: R. B. Alcaiss 1, I. A. Napper 2, N. G. Robinson 3, R. S. Rowe (capt.) 4, J. Duncan 5, E. W. Wright 6.

During the afternoon the Australian Broadcasting Corporation recorded the ringing of the winning team and the ladies' team, both being broadcast the following Saturday night over the National network. The ladies challenged the men to a competition ring, and although they put up a good show, failed to beat the stronger sex.

The dinner was attended by 85 ringers and friends and was followed by a dance.
