LEADERSHIP

THE recent leading article by P. A. C. regarding Sunday service ringing reminds the writer of the first tower to which he had the privilege to become attached. It was that of the Church of St. Paul, Burton-on-Trent, the ringers of which had made ringing history in the ' 80 's and '90's. The conductor of that band had been dead two years when Joseph Griffin gave the writer his first lesson in rope handling. As a boy of 16 , he was much impressed by what he found in the ringing chamber. What William Wakley had left behind made its presence felt. Every Sunday morning Pitstow's 408 of Stedman was rung, finishing within a few seconds of 10.25 . Then the ringers descended the tower and took their places in the choir, at the altar, or in the ringers' seat. The evening ringing was much the same. Two courses of the Surprise method then being practised were rung before 6 o'clock, and shortly after the quiet 'Now, chaps,' of the late Edward Isaac Stone sent the ringers to their ropes again to ring 408 of Stedman Triples for service. E. I. Stone followed the late W. Wakley in the captaincy. The younger members of the band always addressed him as Mr . Stone, as they had a tremendous respect for him, not only as a first-class ringer, but for his sterling character and utter reliability.

One could attribute this state of affairs to several factors; a faithful priest in the shape of the Rev. J. J. G. Stockley, as he was then; the pride in the prestige of the band; or that indefinable quality, leadership, which was possessed by the Wakley family. The four of them that we knew were men of dynamic character and of singleness of purpose. It is probable that the last of these factors was the chief cause of that ideal state of Sunday service ringing. A further reminiscence may not be out of place here. The break up of the band was tragic, and due to no controllable causes. World War I. took its toll of the band. Three died through war service, one of the older members died, another removed from the town, and when those of the band who had fought overseas returned, no fewer than four of them had to leave the town to take up work in other places far removed from the home tower. A few years ago, however, it-was apparent that the spirit of William Wakley and his contemporaries was returning to the tower. There was then a new band with a capable and enthusiastic leader.

It has been said that it is hard, almost impossible perhaps, to define the quality of leadership. So it is, but it is not so difficult to describe some of the qualities which make up a good leader. Obviously, he must know his job, and he must be at least the equal, as far as ringing ability is concerned, of those whom he leads. It is impossible to lead by pushing behind. He must show by example what he expects. He must insist on the best being produced if it be only rounds. It follows, then, that he should be able to recognise rounds when he hears it. So many are quite content if the bells strike roughly clear of one another, and are utterly incapable of appreciating that almost perfect accuracy in bell placing as was exemplified on Christmas morning from Birmingham and North Tawton.

A good leader should also know Church law as applied to ringers. It is so easy for a leader to assume powers to which he has no right. There is the example of a famous Gloucestershire ringer who quarrelled with his association, and indeed formed a separate district guild. He took to himself the right to give permission for peal attempts. Possibly his incumbent had delegated the right to him, in which case it was an unwise thing to do. One could get permission from him to attempt a peal there, but he always laid down the condition that the peal should be rung for any association but the one for which it ought to have been rung. He was a good churchman and in most respects a lovable man, but one always felt uncomfortable in the tower.

He should, too, be something of a psychologist. He should criticise. That is one of his jobs. If he is a good enough ringer, his criticisms are generally accepted with good grace, but, even so, his strictures should be made in a kindly manner. If he can do this without showing annoyance at the man who has been told many times about a particular fault, and who resents criticism, and still persists in going his own way, then he has one of the qualities which go to make a leader, and that is infinite patience. Ringing is so much a co-operative effort that ringers feel that Jack is as good as his master; anyway they are doing their best, so that the discipline in a belfry is of a different character from the discipline of the choir, and a good leader knows this and acts accordingly.
He should insist on properly reverent behaviour in the tower, and he should have the courage to recite the belfry prayer before all occasions of ringing. The atmosphere in towers where this is carried out is perceptibly better than in those towers where it is not done. He should have the power to breed punctuality in those who are inherently unpunctual. Constantly he should see to it that his ringers are ever aware of the character of their work, so that their ringing is never divorced from its primary character of service. If he should make a mistake, in whatever the branch of his duties, he should be able to acknowledge his error, openly and with good grace. On the other hand, if he makes a decision which he wholeheartedly believes to be right, he should stand by that decision. In that way he can gain the respect and loyalty of those whom he leads, so that they will follow him as he takes them to better standards of ringing and service.

There have been great leaders in the past; there are good leaders to-day. Some may excel in one branch of the art, while others by their selfless devotion inspire others to greater efforts. These men are of the salt of the earth and can truly call themselves leaders, not that they would make any such claim.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
We offer our apology to a limited number of new postal subscribers who did not receive their copies last Friday morning. These were attended to as soon as possible. Pressure of work on Mr. Jeater and the Editorial staff at Guildford has been very heavy.

The bells of SS. Peter and Paul's, Lavenham, have been rung for every Sunday service during 1951. The total number of changes rung was 55,940 , comprising 480 Minor, 11,939 Grandsire and 14,573 Stedman Triples, 9.904 Plain Bob, 5.444 Double Norwich, 13,152 Kent and Oxford Treble Bob and 448 Superlative. Any other good records in this direction?

Mr. Daniel T. Matkin and Mrs. F. J. Marshallsay rang their 300th peal together at Bournemouth, on December 20th.

Mr. Ernest Morris and Mr, F. Watson have now twice 'completed the circle' at Croft tower, Leicestershire.

After 15 attempts Mr. Maurice J. Butler. of Southampton, and Mr. Arthur W. J. Butler, of London, have rung their first peal together.
The second 5,040 Cambridge Surprise Maximus was rung at Macclesfield on Boxing Day. The first was rung at Ipswich about 20 years ago.
Errata.-In the peal of 5,040 Minor rung at Blaxhall, Suffolk, on December 8th (see page 821), the method should read: An extent each of St. Clement's, Double Court, Oxford Treble Bob and two extents each of Kent Treble Bob and Plain Bob. The error is regretted.

The Rev. F. Llewellyn Edwards, of Kington Magna, is still receiving practical sympathy over the plague of mice at his church. although the pests have been exterminated by the County Rodent Officer. Four traps and cheese have arrived from America, the gift of the Bishop of Montana.

Mr. G. A. Blaxcell, now 61 years old, cycled from his home at Stowupland to lpswich to ring St. Clement's tenor to a peal on Boxing Day, He afterwards cycled to Brandeston to ring the tenor there to a peal, and then home-a total of 50 miles. An example to the Roving Ringers !

 discussions was in process ast Friday morning when the Universities Association were in town. Unfortunately for the travelling public the argument took place on the pavement opposite a zebra crossing. The disputants were eventually brought back to more mundane things by the blare of frantic taxicab horns. In front of them the traffic had pilcd ${ }^{\text {up }}$ waiting for the august pedestrians to proceed. It was indeed a Superlative Surprise to some who might have been a little woolly headed on visiting the Metropolis.Mr. John Sansom was welcomed back from Egypt at the annual meeting of the Winchester District last Saturday.
The band who rang the peal of Grandsire Caters at St. Mary's. Southampion, on December 29th, are very grateful to Mr. Harry Buckingham, who slood in at four hours' notice.

Some good work was accomplished by Mr. Frederick A. Rye at Walmer, Kent, on December 22 nd when six of the local band rang their first peal of Triples.
Mr. L. J. Malings, who rings at Porthkerry, and is welfare supervisor to the Aberthaw and Bristol Channel Portland Cement Co., Ltd., in the course of his duties edits the works magazine. The December issue contains an interesting article from the editor's pen on ringing, written specially for the non-ringer.

Mr. Frank Oakshott. of Downsview, Lewins Road, Epsom, is compiling a record of all peals rung at Christ Church, Epsom. The bells were opened in 1880 and he asks ringers for full particulars of peals rung in the tower. The following Associations have rung peals at Christ Church:-The Surrey Association, Guildford Diocesan Guild, the Middlesex County Association, the Ancient Society of College Youths and the Universities Association.

UNIVERSITIES ASSOCIATION REUNION DINNER

IMPORTANCE OF SOCIAL SIDE OF RINGING

THERE are two main dates in the year of the Universities Association the winter reunion and the ringing week. This year's reunion took place last Friday in London. Proceedings started with ringing at St. John's-atHackney, followed by St. Mary's, Walthamstow, St. John-the-Baptist's, Leytonstone, and finally at St. Giles-in-the-Fields. At the last-named church the service was held, being conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. C. Taylor) who also gave the address. The Rev. Gilbert Thurlow was organist and the lesson was read by the president (Mr. E. H. Lewis).

The evening concluded with a dinner at 'The Victoria.' The president was in the chair, supported by Dr. E. S. J. Hatcher (hon. secretary) and guests included Mr. J. G. A. Prior (Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths), Mr. G. A. Cross (Master of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths) and Mr. A. A. Hughes. Others present included the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead. the Rev. K. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs.
P. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Corby, Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Fox,

The Misses Maric R. Cross, Anne Stockdale, Mary C. Paync, Elizabeth Brown, Frances Edgar, Mary Martin. Kathleen Higgins, Joyce Lewis. Messrs. A. York-Bramble, C. Woolley E. J. Lindley, D. N. and P. A. Layton, Michael Howard, Richard Speed, - Payne, R. Clouston, R. J. Cook and brother, R J. Stokes, F. D. Mack. Brian D. Threlfall, Rodncy B. Mcadows, P. Wright, F. Wright. G. F. Carter, G. W. Simmonds, R. L. Sells. C. G. Woodhead. W. H. J. monds, R. L. Sells. C. G. Woodhead. W. H. J. T. E. Richards, Ivor H. Trueman, J. Hill, A. T. Watt, Gcoffrey Dodds. Stanley N. Evans. David Gallop and the Editor of 'The Ringing World.' After the toast of The King and The Church,' submitted by the president. Mr. T. W. White gave the toast of "The Universities Association.' He recalled that his first contact with the Universities Association was at the Central Council meeting at Birmingham in 1945 . before, he became cditor of -The Ringing World.' It was a memorable occasion in the history of the Association. Affiliation to the Central Council had not been gained without combating considerable opposition but there was no question as to the warmth of the welcome when Miss Maric R. Cross. as the Association's first member of the Council, mounted the platform to be received by the president of the Council. Since those davs the Association had progressed and it seemed to him now that wherever there was a seat of learning and three or four could gather together to ring handbells a cell was started which developed into a useful adjunct in interesting others in their art. Those cells were not conlimed to this country. There was quite an enthusiastic !ittle hody at Adelaide University which had affiliated, and with Mr. and Mrs. Phile Gray now at Melbourne, it was possible that a development would take place at that University. In that connection it was a pleasure to welcome two Australian graduates in Tom Richards, of Oucensland ${ }^{\prime}$ 'niversity. who was a pupil of Philip Gray, and Arthur Pulford.
The Universities Association was particularly fortunate in its secretary, Dr. Hatcher. His cnthusiasm and hard work had resulted in a constant expansion and it was with great pleasure that he coupled Dr. Hatcher's name with the toast

290 ACTIVE MEMBERS

In reply Dr. Hatcher said they had, during the year, elected 45 new members from 13 Universities or University Collezes which brought the total number of members who had joined the Association to 382. Of these, 290 were on the active list. Next year they would undertake their (riennial revision. In connection with that function he had circularised the 290 and he was very gratified to receive 180 replies which gave an indication of their interest in the Association. Many of those included Christmas cards and greetings; he was sorry his own stock of cards did not permit of replies to all.
That night ten Universitics and one University College were represented. The ringing week at Bristol was a great success. They were guests of the University of Bristol Society and he would like to pay tribute to them and to the representative of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, their member, Mr. Joe Dyke, and also to the Gloucester and' Bristol Diocesan Association for their help

RINGING AT MELBOURNE

Last year at that gathering they had with them Philip and Joan Gray who afterwards went to Australia. He read a letter which he had received from them sending their good wishes to the Association. At Melbourne Mr. Gray regretted that they had not in their company a member of the University. In a week or two the band would be strengthened by the arrival of Valerie Willard, from Leighton Buzzard. Their band had about mastered Grandsire, Stedman and Plain Bob and had a two-hours' practice night each week. In the course of his work he flew to Adelaide and had contacted Philip Cooper.
Returning to home affairs Dr. Hatcher offered his congratulations to members of the Manchester University Guild, seven of whom had joined the Association in August and two more were for election that night. They were making remarkably good progress and had recently scored a peal of Bob Royal 'in hand.
There were a number of University Association members in Birmingham and he hoped they would get together and form a Society there. It should not present difficulties with Wilfrid Moreton and Frank Haynes to support them. He welcomed member; of the Leicester University College and was pleased to announce that they were electing that night their first member from, Southampton University. At St. Andrew's, Donald Marshall was hoping in due course to form an association to be recognised by the University. However, 20 members were required. Last year the University of North Staffordshire came into being and he noted that the first member was at Keel Hall.
The toast of 'Kindred Socicties, was proposed by the president. who said now he was retired he found there was a good deal more to do than one imagined. He was rash enough to say earlier in the past year that he would have 60 more hours a week leisure, but that had not proved the case. In the first place the chairman of his company had been kind enough to ask him to keep his seat on the Board which involved three days a month in London.

ACT AS MISSIONARIES

The Kindred Societies were really the same people as themselves and he asked members of the Universities Association to contact Kindred Societies. They were in a unique position as they had no tower to which they were attached. therefore they were in the hands of the Kindred Societies for their ringing and they owed them a great debt of gratitude. There was one way they could repay that gratitude and that was by giving their fullest support to the towers in their own districts. There were many areas where ringing was not satisfactory. He heard of a district in Surrey where out of nine eight-bell towers only two had regular ringing. In Kent he heard of a certain district where no help was given by the Kent Countr Association because the district was inaccessible. Consequently he appealed to all members of the Universities Association to go out as missionaries and get ringing started again in those bad districts.
In coupling the name of the Master of the Ancient Socicty of College Youths with the toast, Nir. Lewis mentioned that it was nearly 49 years since he first joined the Society.
Mr. J. G. A. Prior, in reply, said they in London were delighted to meet University ringers. He had a very happy association with the London University Society in 1933-34 when he was a District secretary of the London Counties Association. The Universities ${ }^{\text {S }}$ headquarters was then All Hallows'. Lombard Strcet. Mr. Lewis had mentioned work they could do as missionaries, but in London there were many bells that were never rung.

The toast of 'The Visitors ' was proposed by Mr. Tom Richards, who spoke in appreciation of the way he had been received by English ringers. Of the 15 ringers in Melbourne, he said, 12 were Englishmen.

SOCIAL SIDE OF RINGING

Mr. A. A. Hughes in responding, emphasised the importance of the social side of ringing-in fact all good College Youths and a good many Cumberlands would tell them that the social side of ringing was most imnortant and they should know because they had done it for a very long time. In the 18 th century, dinners of the College Youths were of 12 to 15 courses and, looking at an old menu, he noticed that one of the courses was a leg of mutton stuffed with herrings. It was nearly 50 years ago that he rang his first 5.000 changes. His mind went back to a South Coast resort he visited frequently after the 1914-18 war. He used to attend practice meetings at three of the towers but the ringers, when they came down from the tower, said 'Goodnight' and disappeared. He said to his father-in-law. 'Don't they ever go and have a drink?' and he replied 'I supposc they go on their own. At the next practice he asked them if they ever had a drink. They admitted they did. He then asked them whether they could not go altogether and talk it over. They did, and from that time the ringing began to improve tremendously. His experience was that in the majority of cases where the social side was strong the ringing was good, but where there was no social side there was no progress.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting followed. The secretary presented the financial statement which showed that the year started with a balance of $£ 13$ 7 s . 6 d . and concluded with one of $£ 913 \mathrm{~s} .4 \mathrm{~d}$.

The following 31 new members from 12 Universities were elected:-Birmingham: John $R$ Mayne, R. Roger Savory; Bristol: P. Meriel L Moir, Barbara J. Nix-James, Jeanette A. Rose: James G. Brocklehurst, A. James Vincent : Cambridge: Mary Buxton, Daphne Turk, C. M. P. Johnson, F. Fric Roberts J. G. Taylor, Christopher Billington (resident Melbourne) ; Dublin: Adrian Bakker and one other; Leicester: Mary C. Payne, John D. Cook. Barry Cope, James Schofield; Loughborough College: D. S. Harris: London: Sally Brown (Wye), Mary Fuller, A. Blair; Manchester: Brian Harris, Wilfred L. Robinson: Oxford: R. J. Cork, John David Mozley; Qucensland: Thomas E. Richards: Southampton U.C.: John H. Gilbert; Sydney: Arthur Pulford, John B. Willis (also London, residen: Melbourne).

The cecretary announced that the ringing week for 1952 would be at Nottingham between August 15 th and 23 rd. A satisfactory number of members had expressed iheir hope to be present. Next year's annual dinner would be held in London on January 2nd.

Mr. E. J. Lindley proposed a vote of thanks to the secretary for running the Society and to Mr. Denis Layton who hal made arraragements for the London dinner.

Mr. David Gallop thanked the captains of the towers visited for having everything in readiness, the Rector of St. Giles for conducting the service, and the president for taking the chair.

TELEVISED AT LEEDS PARISH CHURCH

Back row.-F. Seager, I. Slack, J. Hogg, T. W. Thirkell, F. Gibbard.

Middle row.-H. R. Parkinson, A. Cole, J. F. Hodson, H. Rollison, L. Boumphrey.

Seated.-Miss M. S. Rhodes, R. H. Dove, the Vicar of Leeds (Canon A. S. Reeve), L Drake, Mrs. F. Seager.

The programme gave much pleasure both to ringers and non-ringers, many of whom have expressed appreciation at the demonstration of the bells in action. Although a number of ringers were able to watch the programme, no doubt the hour of the showing, 6.30 on a Sunday evening, prevented more from doing so.

Viewers saw a three-minute introductory film sequence consisting of the city as seen from the top of the University tower, a 'still' of the Parish Church, and half-minute 'shots' each of the ringers at work and the bells in motion.

For technical reasons the film was taken a month before the broadcast but the sound of the bells was a "live' broadcast of actual Sunday service ringing by the regular service band.

The ringing was clearly audible during the entire film sequence as a course of Grandsire Cinques came home and then bells rang round: and then stood. The ringers were as follows:
H. Rollison, treble, H. R. Parkinson 2, R. H. Dove 3, Miss M. S. Rhodes 4, Mrs. F. Seager 5, A. Cole 6, L. Boumphrey 7, J. F. Hodson 8, F. Seager 9, J. Hogg 10, L.' Drake $11, \mathrm{~F}$. Gibbard, tenor, and in the film, the same band but with T. W. Thirkell and I. Slack in place of H. Rollison and L. Boumphrey.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Western District at Liversedge

The winter meeting of the Western Division of the Yorkshire Association of Change Ringers was held at Christ Church, Liversedge, on December 15th. This church is one of the few in the area which contains a crypt and was founded by the Rev. Hammond Roberson, who was a friend of the Brontes. He also ordered that all gravestones were to be the same size, which they are in this churchyard.

An excellent tea was served by the local company. Mr. P. J. Johnson occupied the chair at the business meeting and the next meeting was arranged for Brighouse during March.

Although the number present was a little disappointing, some good ringing took place on this fine ring of bells.

Three Peals of Loxidon Surprise Major in Three Counties in One Day

Twice before in ringing history this feat has been accomplished by one set of ringers. The third occasion was on Saturday, December 15 th, by eight members of the Midland Counties Guild

The counties were Staffordshire. Derbyshire and Leicestershire, and the band included representatives of thes a counties. All three peals were conducted by Mr. F. W. Grocott and in each case it was the first peal of London on the bells.
Arrangements for the attempt were made by Mr. J. W. Cotton, who, with his Morris "ten" and Mr. Walter G. Soar, of Ticknall, with his Austin, provided the transport.

It was a case of early rising for the whole team assembled on the massive western tower of Barton-under-Needwood, Staffs, at 9.10 a.m. They were welcomed by the local captain who wished them success in the venture Ringing conditions in this tower are ideal ; the tone and "go' of the bells, the circle of ropes, plenty of room and last, but perhaps most important, plenty of air as the ringing room opens to the church.

No incidents occurred during the peal, except perhaps Joe's bell needed a little more handling owing to the absence of the rope guide. The conductor had the pleasure of saying 'That's all' in two minutes under three hours. Before leaving 'Uncle Joe' called and thanked the Vicar for the use of the bells.

A 20 -mile trip brought the band to Measham, in Leicestershire. Here conditions are not ideal as the ringers stand elbow to elbow. It was not until after the third start that the band got into form, this being attributed to direct opposite rope sight. The peal was 20 minutes quicker than that at Barton.

The final peal was at Overseal. the home tower of the genial general secretary of the Midland Counties Guild. With ' Young Fred 'on 'Matthew, the band had this merry peal going well (the lightness of the ring has to be tried to be believed). The peal was accomplished in 2 hours and 34 minutes. It was certainly a memorable hirthday for "Uncle Joe"

The members of the band were. Frederick E. Wilshaw, Frederick W. Grocolt (Stoke-onTrent), Francis R Lowe. Harold Taylor (Derby). Sidney H. Jones (Redton), Walter G. Soar (Ticknall). Joseph William Cotton (Overseal) and W. P. Whitehead (Hinckley).

GUILD of DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

Mr. and Mrs. Lilley's Hospitality

A number of members of the Mid-Devon Branch of the Devon Guild of Ringers held a very enjoyable half-day excursion on Boxing Day. Leaving Newton Abbot soon after two o'clock the first calling place was Coombe-inTeignhead where there is a well-kept church and where the name of the patron saint is totally unknown. Despite rather stiff ropes some very good ringing took place to suit all tastes, the finishing touch being a well-struck course of Kent Treble Bob Minor.

The next tower visited was Stoke-in-Teignhead where a delay occurred owing to the clock hammer being left on the tenor bell and the mechanism took some time to master. The difficulty having been overcome a couple of touches sufficed, and a move was made to Bishopsteignton, the last calling place for the afternoon.

The ringing having concluded, a move was made to Perry Farm, Highweek, where, at the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lilley, a sumptuous tea was much enjoyed. After various ringing topics had been discussed, handbell ringing was indulged in for the remainder of the evening. The members expressed their great appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Lilley for their very kind hospitality.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LANCASHIRE HOSPITALITY

Dear Sir,-The Wigan Branch of the Lancashire Association is very much perturbed about the poor welcome afforded to the Guildford ringers on their visit to Lancashire

On behalf of the Wigan Branch let me hasten to explain that this is not the general feeling of the ringers here. I think you will agree that Lancashire has long been noted for its hospitality in all ways and we in the Exercise wish to carry on with the good name. Therefore I think I am voicing the opinion of the whole of the ringing fraternity when I say we have always done and will continue to extend a very cordial welcome to any ringers who care to pay us a visit.

At the Wigan Branch meeting held recently it was unanimously resolved that this letter be sent to 'The Ringing World 'and so show to the whole ringing fraternity that they san be assured of a very hearty welcome to any te:wer in the Wigan Branch. I trust that this will help to clear any wrong impression which may have been formed about the Lancashire Associa-tion,-Yours faithfully.
W. O. FARRIMOND
Branch Secretary.

Note.-The Guildford ringers in question thank the Wigan Branch for their fraternal greetings and sympathy. Although they did not ring they felt they were present on a memorable occasion. They know that Lancashise hearts ring true in matters of hospitality.-ED.

RAILWAYMEN'S PEALS

Dear Sir.-A neal by L.N.E.R. railwaymen was rung at St . Giles-in-the-Fields, London, on December 15 th 1934. The ringers were :- $G$. Dawson 1. Alfred Prior 2. C. W. Cook 3, E. J. Butler 4. E. D. Smith 5, H. Else 6. E. G. Hibbins 7. F. Warrington tenor. It was Double Norwich Court Bob Major and conducted by E. G. Hibbins.

Let us meet and ring peals together when the opportunity presents itself, but a Railwaymen's Guild-no. I am sure the heads of the Church would not look favourably on the organisation or ringing by trades. Next we shall have the Butchers. Bakers and Candlestick Makers.Yours, etc.,

PEALS FOR SERVICE

Dear Sir,-In reference to Mr. Macey"s letter of December 14th. I can bear out his statement on the two peals for divine service, and as far as I can recollect we rang two 720's for the 11 o'clock service
At that time the local band, of which I was the leader, at Tunstall. always made it the rule to meet an hour before each service and, if possible, to ring two 720 's at each service. or attempt them. Of course, we were not always successful, but on that particular Surday he were, and altogether rang 16720 's;
I should like to know. through : The F inging World: if that is a record for Sunday service ringing. There were four or five of us wfo were in the choir and attended most of the services afterwards.-Yours sincerely.

RINGING IN SYDNEY

Dear Sir,-Your issuc of September 14th icprints a letter received in 1911 from Mr. Arthur E. Barnes, of Melbourne, in which he mentions the lack of enthusiasm for change ringing in Melbourne at that time and concludes with: 'I am afraid that this country will be like America-never a centre of change ringing.'

Apparently Mr. Barnes had little knowledge or contact with ringing in Sydney at that period.

I came to Sydney in 1911- on February 6thand found vigorous and enthusiastic bands of change ringers at St. Mark's and St. Mary's, and an excellent band of call change ringers at All Saints', Parramatta, and St. Jude's, Randwick.

As public opinion was against lengthy peal ringing-as, unfortunately, it still is with us al Turramurra-few peals were rung but 720's and quarters were frejuently rung on practice nights and for Sunday evening servicc.
St. Mark's rang several Doubles methods and two or three Minor methods. St. Mary's, having eight bells, was the rendezvous for Grandsire. Stedman Triples and Bob Major.
The standard of ringing was high and most of the ringers attended two practices a week and rang for two services on Sundays.
In 1914 the ringers were strengthened by the arrival of Mr. A. R. Botting, of Betchworth, and Mr . C. Parr, of Ilfracumbe, who are still ringing regularly at Parramatta and Turramurra. St. Mary's tower was ably captained by Mr. R. H. McDonald-formerly of Birminghamsupported by his son, 'Ted,' also Mr. Harry Chown and a good band of ringers.

St. Mark's belfry was fortunate in having such able ringers as Mr. Tom Joyner (captain) and his son, Ralph: Mr. Archie Joyner and his son, Alfred: Mr. Charlie Porter and a number of other excellent ringers.
These men gave me a wonderful welcome when I came to Sydney in 1911. Most of them have 'finished the course' and been 'gathered to their fathers.

Mr. Ralph Joyner and myself are the only two active change ringers who were ringing in Sydney in 1911.-Yours sincerely.

CAROLS ON EIGHT BELLS

Dear Sir,-In reply to your correspondent who wishes to know of carols that can be played on eight handbells, I hope the following list will be of some use. I have presumed that melodies of cirols proper to Advent, Christmastide and Epiphany are required and that the bells form one octave of a major scale.

The following abbreviations are used:$\mathrm{O}=\mathbf{O x f o r d}$ Book of Carols; $\mathrm{N}=$ "News Chronicle' 'Christmastide Melodies '; $S=$ Songs of Praise: * $=$ Can be played on six bells.

A Sunny Bank' (a version of 'I saw three ships ').-O 3.
${ }^{1}$ A Virgin most pure .-1st tune $N$ page 48 ; 2nd tune 4 (second tune).

God rest you merry,'- O 11 (not the wellknown tune which unfortunately cannot be played on eight bells).

Boar's Head carol.-O 19; N page 24
The First Nowell.- O 27 : N page 28; S 384.
This new Christmas carol.--O 29*
The Angel Gab iel. O 37: N page 16.
This endris night.'- $39:$ S 72 .
Cherry Tree carol.-0 66 (tune 7 in appendix).

A child is born in Bethlehem. - O 73.
A little child.- O 74: S 352*.
A boy was born in Bethlehem. - 085 (tune 'Puer Natus,' S 91*).
"In Bethlehem, that fair city."-O 120 (tune Puer Natus.' S 91*).

Sion's daughter:-0 89*
'How mightly gleams.'- $\mathbf{O}$ 104: N page 47; S 90.

Carol of the Advent.'-O 133.
Earthly friends.'-O 135*
I sing the birth ' (words O 168) - N page 17.
Infant so gentle."-Novello's Carols No. 110
The following four carols are made playable on eight bells by a few minor alterations which do not greatly affect the shape of the tune:-

Irish carol.-O 6

- The garden of Jesus.- O 105*
-Angels, from the realms.-0 119, S 71, in which, at several points. the raising of the dominant to an octave above written pitch has the desired effect, and

A little child there is yborn.'-O 118, where an upper auxiliary note can be substituted for a lower at two of the cadences.

This list does not claim to be exhaustive in any way, but all the suitable tunes in the ' Ox ford Book of Carols, have been given. In addition there are a few carols in the Cowley Carol Book ' (to say nothing of Novello's edition of carols, one of which has been mentioned) which could be played on eight bells, but, generally speaking. the carol tunes in this collection are unsuitable for such performance, as they are mostly modal or based on plainsong - Yours faithfully, K. W. MACKINTOSH.

Wistaston, Cheshire.
Dear Sir,-Re the enquiry 'What carols can be played on eight handbells?' Answer: Hardly any, assuming those eight hells are belfry handbells, key note being the tenor, for the purpose of change ringing.

By transposing the key. the carols ', First Nowell' and 'While shepherds watched,' tune Ancient and Modern 62, might be played

If the key note is in the centre of any tune, it simply can't be rung.

HANDBELL TUNE RINGER.

YOUTH CONGRATULATES THF VETERANS

Dear Sir.-On behalf of the hand, average age 19 years, which rang a peal in 15 Treble Bob Minor methods at Nether Alderley, Cheshire, on October 6th, I should like to offer hearty congiatulations to the vetcrans who recently rang Holt's Original 'in hand, a most laudable performance. at Chesterfield.
I also wish to compliment Mr. John P. Fidler on his interesting account of the history of Spliced Minor ringing.-Yours faithfully.

IRREGULAR METHODS

Dear $\operatorname{Sir}$,-Since the report of the proceedings of the Central Council meeting at Chester on Whit Tuesday last year, published in your columns on May 25 th, June 1st and June 8th, 1951, I have read with growing interest the correspondence which has arisen from this report, particularly on the subject of irregular methods, and I am now of the opinion that there is in many ringers' minds a sense of confusion as to what may or may not be rung in peals in order to secure recognition by the Central Council; or, what is more important, by the Associations for whom the peals are rung. I am further of the opinion that much of this state of affairs is due to the unbusinesslike way in which the Council conducts its affairs.

Let us consider for a moment the ringing structure of to-day. The Central Council makes the rules and the Associations in membership promise loyally to abide by these rules. But the people who want to know these rules are the rank and file all over the country who have no direct voice in the affairs of the Council but are expected to obey the rules. The rules are published in the Central Council's Handbook, now in the course of revision, but how many towers have ever seen a copy of it, and. dare I ask it, how many Association or Guild Secretaries? If the Central Council is to take arbitrary action over Irregular methods, is there not a duty laid upon it to see that every ringer in membership with an affiliated Association has access to its rules? Probably this duty should be shared by the Associations also. The actual rules could be extracted from the Handbook and reprinted in pamphlet form at small cost for distribution to towers.

Now 'The Ringing World' is described as the official journal of the Central Council. but one would not gather that the best use is being made of this judging by the sequence of has happened?-
(a) A report of the proceedings was published on May 25th. June 1st and June 8th, but please note that this was not the official minutes of the Council; they will not be published until 1952 is well established Yet the minutes are the only authority and I submit that they ought to be published at the earliest opportunity so that every reader of 'The Ringing World, knows exactly where he is. I note, for instance, that the report of the work of the Methods Committec on page 331 (May 25th), although moved and seconded, does not appear to have been adopted. Are we to assume that it was accepted? Most ringers have, judging by the resulting correspondence. If the official minutes had been published we should know for certain.
(b) The leading article of June 1 st was incorrect and was put right a fortnight later by Mr. C. K. Lewis. As a reader of the "Times, I have a wholesome respect for leading articles and would like to put 'The Ringing World ' - leaders ' on the same plane
(c) In spite of the correspondence which had been going on since the reports of the proctedings, May 25 th-June 8th, the amended decisions of the Council were not published until October 26 th. On November 9 th one decision was amended by Mr. E. A. Barnett, and another by Mr. C. K. Lewis on December 7th. If the official minutes had been published at an carly official minutes had been published at an date this would have been avoided. This procrastination might possibly have led to irregularitics through ignorance.
(d) Most of the questions put in 'The Ringing World, have heen answered by Mr. C. K. Lewis. Whilst I have the greatest respect for Mr. Lewis's oninions. are they to be regarded as authoritative? I should have thought that the secretary to the Council would have been the voice of authority. since presumably he is responsible for the minutes. This I ably he is responsible for the minutes. This If the Council wishes other members to have authority officially to answer questions, it should say so. Remember the answers and questions are in the official journal of the Council.
The 'leader' of June Ist focused attention on unorthodox performances, some of which were pointed out by Mr. Lewis and by Mr. W. Ayre on August 17 th. Mr. Lewis also wrote a ' leader' on this subject on October 19th, and drew attention to the fact that the Central Council's own publication, 'The Collection of Doubles and Minor, contained two such irregular methods. Mr. Lewis warned us on December 7th that the Analysis Committee would probably ban peals containing Reverse Canterbury Pleasurc, but how can they in all equity when the Council which appoints them encourages the ringing of the method? Even Mr . Lewis himself, on June 15 th, wonders whether Plain Bob on odd numbers should not be classed as unorthodox. How lucky for him that he is not a member of the committee faced with having to make a recommendation on the matter !
I find much truth and common sense in Mr. H. Chant's letter of December 21st, and I think the whole question of so-called irregular lead heads should be re-examined. In 5 -, 6 - or 7 -bell methods all the changes have to bc rung in a peal so why is it vitally necessary to have Plain Bob lead heads? Has the Council made any pronouncement on the spiicing of regular and irregular methods? If an irregular method will splice, then surely it has a value and should not be lightly cast aside.
I hope the Analysis Committee will, in compiling its, report, take note of the points I have made, and finally I would ask all members of the Central Council to consider what is the very root and being of all our ringing. We ring to the greater glory of God, nothing more nor less. This demands from us all perfection in striking and mental skill and the result is measured by the music issuing from our towers. In the face of this is it so frightfully important that all the methods should have Plain Bob lead heads. and will irregular methods. even though perfectly rung, be unacceptable to our Heavenly Father?-Yours sincerely.

> ALAN R. PINK.

DEDICATIONS  MEMBURY, DEVON

Fifty years ago, when the Rev. E. V. Cox (or Mr. Cox, as he was then) attended a dedication service at Membury, Devon, he was accorpanied by Mr Jack Bond, of Stockland Mr. H. Stokes, of Woodbury, had rehung the five bells in a timber frame with a space for a sixth bell. On Sunday. December 23rd, he again came to Membury, to assist the Bishop of Crediton and the Vicar, the Rev. C. J. F. Huggins. at the dedication of the new treble bell to fill the vacant pit and complete the ring to six. On his way over, he met Mr. Bond while passing through Stockland, and thus, by a happy coincidence, established a $!0$ -year-old link with the past.
The captain of the local ringers, Mr. J. Denslow, was particularly delighted, as he had worked hard to raise the money for the augmentation, to satisfy a lifelong ambition.
The work of restoration was carried out by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston and the new bell weighed $6 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{cwt}$. with a tenor of 15 cwt . The old timber frame, being in splendid condition. was preserved, and the bells tuned and rehung in ball bearings. Everyone present seemed very pleased with the work, both tone and 'go' being excellent. The firm was represented by Mr. A. Patrick Cannon, with Mrs. Cannon.
Visiting ringers were present from Axminster, Stockland, Sidbury, Awliscombe. Churchstanton and Wellington (Somerset), including Mr. W. G. Gigg, of Taunton, who was born at Membury

HAILSHAM, SUSSEX

For centuries the small town of Hailsham has been noted for the curfew which was, until the last war, rung every day at 8 p.m. on the tenor bell.
However, of the ring of eight bells, the three trebles of which were added to commemorate Queen Victoria's Jubilee, little good could be said of them. They had a !ong draught of rope ( 70 feet) and the ropes were much too thick (the sally of a new rope was generally about eight or nine inches in diamater !). The three trebles each only weighed 3 cwt. approximately and it was small wonder that visitors rang them with great difficulty. The bells were very odd struck, the foutth being cracked and they were altogether far from being a pleasant ring.

Though Hailsham has never had a really first-class band, the local ringers were aware of all the difficulties and about two years ago. just after the neighbouring village bells of Hellingly were pronounced unsafe for further ringing. a scheme was started for the restoration of the Parish Church bells. This was ably led by the Vicar's churchwarden, Mr. A. N. Matthews, who is himself a ringer, and Mr. F. Blackman.

Over $£ 700$ had to be raised and Sunday, December 23 rd, saw the result of this great effiort with the rededication of the bells by the Ven. E. G. Reid, Archdeacon of Hastings.

The bells were first rung during the service by the following local ringers:-G. Gadd 1, E. E. Breed 2, F. Blackman 3, A. N. Matthews 4, R. Gadd 5, J. Beeny 6, M. Puttock 7, W'. Crocker 8.
The restoration consisted of the four trehles being recast and the back four re-turned. The old oak frame, still in perfect order, is still in use, but the wheels, headstocks, clappers, bearings, etc., are new. A new set of orthodox ropes has been provided and the 'result is a first-class ring of bells.
The work has been ably carried out by John Taylor and Co.
The weights, etc., of the bells are as follows:
Treble.-Weight 3 cwt. 2 qr. 4 lb ., note G, founder Taylor, year 1951
Second. -3 cwt. 2 qr. 16 lb ., F sharp, Taylor, 1951
Third. -3 cwt .2 qr. $23 \mathrm{lb} .$. E, Taylor, 1951.
Fourth. $4 \mathrm{cwt} .23 \mathrm{ib} ., \mathrm{D}$. Taylor. 1951
Fifth. 4 cwt. 2 qr. $12 \mathrm{lb} . . \mathrm{C}$, Hodson. 1663. Sixth.-5 cwt. 2 qr. $3 \mathrm{lb} ., \mathrm{B}$, Lester and Pack. 1768.

Seventh $-7 \mathrm{cwt} .15 \mathrm{lb}, \mathrm{A}$, Hodson, 1663.
Tenor.-9 cwt. 2 qr. $5^{\mathrm{lb}} \mathrm{lb}$, G, Hodson, $16 \mathrm{~K}^{\circ} 3$. F. H. H.

CLAYWORTH, NOTTS

The dedication of two new trebles added to the existing ring of four (tenor nine cwt.) and the unveiling of a memorial tablet to Major Michael Hugh Laycock. M.C. and Captain George Arthur Jones (Notts Sherwood Yeomanry). who were both killed in action on June 1ith. 1944, took place at St. Peter's Church. Clayworth, on Thursday, December 20th.
The ceremony was performed and the service conducted by the Right Rev. Anthony Otter, Bishop of Grantham. assisted by the Rev. C. D. F. Waters, Rector of Clayworth.

In performing the ceremony, the Bishop was handed the two new bell ropes by the churchwardens and then passed on to the tablet. The two bells were then chimed by the local ringers. Immediately after the service six members of the North Notts District of the Southwell Diocesan Guild rang the opening touch of Plain Bob. The bells were kept going to various methods until seven p.m. and the visiting ringers entertained to tea at Royston Manor
The bells have bsen presented to the church as a memorial by Brig.-Gen. Sir Joseph Laycock, K.C.M.B., D.S.O., and Lady Laycock.
The work has been carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co.. Loughborough, and this fine ring of six is well worthy of their already impeccable name.

BELLS OF ST. BRIDE'S

Fragments Found of Famous Ring
Widespread interest has been aroused by the finding of portions of the bells of St. Bride's, London, in a room at the south-east corner of the church, the entrance to which was blocked by large pieces of stone and the timbers of a door.
When the church was destroyed by fire during an air raid on December 29th. 1940, the bells crashed down from the steeple. It was believed that Prebendary Arthur Taylor, the former Vicar, buried the broken bells among the ruins to ensure their safety, but he died last year without revealing where they were hidden.
The original bells were cast in 1710 by Abraham Rudhall, of Gloucester, for Wren's new church, which replaced the old building destroyed in the Great Fire in 1666 . They passed a critical audition by three ringers and eight other persons when they were first hung in 1711. Nine of these bells were still in the steeple at the time of the fire in 1940.
The tenor bell weighed 26 cwt . and was inscribed 'A.R. 1710.' The eleventh bell weighed 20 cwt . and was inscribed with the names of the churchwardens and the motto 'Prosperity to England.' The ninth bell bore, the motto 'Prosperity to our benefactors,' and the eighth, God Save Church and and the eighth, God Save Church and the treble $5 \frac{3}{2} \mathrm{cwt}$., and both were inscribed - Prosperity to our benefactors, A.R. 1719 ${ }^{\circ}$ -having been placed in the stceple at a later date. The fifth and sixth bells were recast in 1736 by Samuel Knight, of Holborn. As the 1736 by Samuel Knight, of Holborn. As the tion is visible, but the metal is much corroded. The present Vicar is the Rev. Cyril M. Armitage. The restoration appeal. aiming at a total of $£ 210,000$, was launched last November, and it is hoped that work will be started next year

LIGHTEST HANGING RING IN THE WORLD

Last week we published details of the lightest ring of bells in the world which Mr. C. O. S. Jarvis, of Home Farm. Balscote, near Banhury, Oxon, has had installed.
On December 29th Mr. Jarvis han a bell warming party at which a number of ringers were invited to try out the bells and to receive hospitable entertainment from Mrs. Jarvis.

The bells are hung in an outhouse, just outside the kitchen door, and everyone present was delighted with them. After a few pulls it was quite easy to control them. The total weight of this ring of six is only 4 cwt . 1 qr . 21 lb ., with a tenor of 1 cwt . 22 lb . (and not as printed last week), and a treble of 38 lb
During the evening 1.080 Grandsire Doubles was rung by the following:-F. Sharp (conductor) 1. E. E. Pearson 2. F. M. Stretton 3, H. H. Alexander 4 A P. Cannon 5. C. Jarvis 6. This was the longest length on the bells. In addition to these, Miss M. R. Cross and Messrs. E. C. Pearson, W. Watson and K. R. Holtom were also present. Mr. Michael Howard (with Mr. A. P. Cannon) represented the bellfounders, Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Limited.

Harold Pailing Memorial Fund

Dear Sir.-The Fund has now reached $£ 131$ 3s. and it is proposed to close it on 31st instant.
Widespread sympathy has been extended to Mrs. Pailing and her two young sons and contributions have poured in from all parts of the country. This in itself speaks very eloquently of the brotherhood existing in the Exercise.
There is still time for last-minute donations which can be sent to me as one of the joint treasurers.

The tragedy at Daybrook was shocking, but in a small measure we are given the opportunity of relieving some of the widow's anxiety, and at the same time paying a tribute to the memory of a fine young man
I append a supplementary lisk of subscribers. -Yours faithfully.

> J. W. RAIIVBY.
> Hon. Gen! Secretary. Southwell Guild.
