FOOTNOTES TO PEALS

By WILLIAM SHEPHERD

WHAT a vast change there is in the writing of footnotes for peals, a change which was certainly long overdue, not only because of their length but also on account of wording. Some ringers used to delight in writing lengthy footnotes, others preferred to abstain and leave readers to be the best judge of peals that were published, but to-day the general trend is brevity, due in some measure to our Editor exercising his discretion for our mutual benefit. One is especially pleased to see such footnotes as: 'Rung to commemorate 50 years' service by the captain of the local band,' and 'Rung by the Sunday service band,' both having appeared recently, but those of over 60 years ago should give some readers an insight into the days when peals were not so plentiful and there was no Central Council.

Bob Triples, that much discussed method of recent months, was popular with some bands even when they met one short, and the footnote tells us that 'the band meeting one short the second was left out and the tenor rung in.' The same footnote goes on to say that 'these bells have lately been rehung by Messrs. —, but the going of them is far from satisfactory.' In the next footnote speed seems to have been uppermost in the minds of those who rang, for we read: 'This is the second peal rung on these bells and was rung in twenty minutes less than the other. The tenor goes very badly and Mr. B. had to give up at the end of half an hour, and Mr. S. finished it.' Another way of dealing with a bad-going tenor is told thus: 'The ringer of the tenor after ringing two hours was obliged to set his bell owing to it going so badly; after a rest of half an hour, however, he again took her and rang to the end of the peal.' In the next instance we are left guessing as to the reason why a change over was made, for it simply states that 'E. K. rang the tenor the first hour of the peal, then J. H. rang tenor to the remainder of the peal.'

A peal rung very early in the morning received the following footnote: 'This peal was finished just after seven o'clock in the morning.' Various comments were undoubtedly made on this peal even though it was rung on December 25th! Another unusual footnote is recorded underneath a peal of Stedman Triples, which says it was the 'first peal of Stedman rung by members of the Association without the aid of a professional conductor.' I leave my readers to digest those last two words. Ringing a peal of Grandsire Triples by leaving out the treble is explained thus: 'Meeting one short, the treble was left out and the tenor rung in.'

Many footnotes used to commence with the words: 'It is worthy of notice,' and here is one which relates to a peal of over 10,000 changes: 'It is worthy of notice that the average age of the company was only 21 years, as well as being all single men. Also that one of the ringers was only 17 years old. And great credit is due to the tenor man for the able way in which he rang his bell, he being only 20 years old.' Another 'worthy of notice' footnote refers to a peal of Stedman Triples and states 'that Mr. F. had long desired to ring a peal in this method ere he departed this life. The ringers one and all congratulate themselves upon having the pleasure to accomplish it with him.'

My last extract relates to a peal of Grandsire Caters which must have delighted both ringers and listeners on account of continued good striking and success at the first attempt. It goes on to say that 'Mr. C. officiated as umpire, and he pronounced the peal to have been well rung, not a single "slip" of any moment occurring from beginning to finish, his opinion being endorsed by several ringing friends who heard the peal from the outside.'

A lot of space could be taken up on the subject of footnotes to peals, but the samples already given should suffice to show the difference in the set-up of Victorian days and those of to-day.

FORTY YEARS AGO

From the 'Ringing World' of December 4th, 1914

COLLEGE YOUTHS' NEW MASTER

If anyone were ever brought up among the bells, that description can be applied in truth to the new Master of the College Youths, for Mr. Albert A. Hughes, whose election we announced last week, first saw the light at the Whitechapel Foundry. Born in 1885, he first learned to handle a bell at a very early age, and used to practise on an old pre-Reformation bell which hangs on the roof of the foundry. At the age of 14 he began to accompany his father to St. Matthew's, Bethnal Green, where he received his first insight into ringing under the late Mr. Matthew Wood. . . .

[Mr. Hughes' first peal as conductor, in 1909, was the last by this famous old ringer, then in his 83rd year. Although his ringing has naturally been somewhat overshadowed by his work as head of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, Mr. Hughes is a skilled practical ringer, and numbers among his accomplishments at least one peal on the tenor at St. Mary-le-Bow. Another feat of a different kind was during the 12,675 Stedman Cinques at Southwark in 1923, when Mr. Hughes four or five times went up among the bells and oiled all the bearings.]

Salisbury and Winchester Meet

Members of the neighbouring branches of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild and Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild enjoyed a good afternoon and evening's practice on the fine eight at Fordingbridge and Downton.

After ringing at Fordingbridge, 40 members sat down to tea at the Riverside Cafe. The company included Mr. George Preston, former hon. secretary of the Christchurch Branch, and Mr. G. F. Martin-Stewart, past Master of the Salisbury Guild, besides the officers of the two districts.

Mrs. B. Hibberd, of All Saints', Martin, proposed a vote of thanks be accorded to the incumbents of Fordingbridge and Downton for the use of the bells and to those who had arranged the meeting. The vote was carried unanimously with acclamation.

Ringing in all methods from call changes to the popular Surprise Major methods was under the direction of the Ringing Masters of the two districts.

Guildford Diocesan Guild

The Chertsey District held its nomination meeting at Hersham on November 20th and although only one half of its towers were represented 27 sat down to an excellent tea in the Church House.

The chair was taken by the Guild's general secretary (Mr. G. L. Grover). Nominations for officers for 1955 were as follows:—District Ringing Master, Mr. J. Dodson; District hon. secretary, Mr. Roy Collins; Guild's Executive Committee, Mr. John King, Mr. W. Goldstone and Mr. R. Andrews.

A hearty vote of thanks to the priest-in-charge, the organist and the ladies, concluded the business, and handbells were very soon in use. J. F. D.

A Trip in the Taunton Area

Huish Champflower (6, 11 cwt. 8 lb.) was the first tower visited on November 13th, when 14 ringers (representing eight towers, mainly in the Bristol and Bridgwater areas) visited five towers in the Taunton district. This tower—proclaimed by its two peal boards as Huish C. Flower and Huish C.F.—was the 'pièce de résistance' of the trip. The ringers were pleasantly surprised by the fine tone of the bells.

At Combe Florey (6, 10 cwt.) the 'go' is excellent but they are very noisy. E. T. P. F. distinguished himself both by his 'sergeant-major-like' calls and a lightning touch of Spliced Doubles! Bagborough (6, 20 cwt.) was followed by the rough eight at Bishop's Lydeard (23 cwt.). At the last tower, Kingston (6), we found the muffles had been left on the bells from Remembrance Sunday! According to Dove this tenor weighs 15 cwt., but it is reputed to weigh a ton, and the tenor ringers of the party found no reason to disagree with the reputed weight!

Thanks for a most enjoyable trip are extended to Ron Short, who organised it. M. E. E.

Preston, Suffolk

The Preston, St. Mary's, ringers, held their fourth annual supper and social on Nov. 13th. During the afternoon St. Mary's bells were kept going to several Minor methods, including six Surprise. In the evening, the ringers with their wives and friends assembled at the Six Bells Inn and sat down to an excellent spread, after which the party were entertained by visiting artistes, including the Bell-chords Trio, and Stedman with his Fairy Bells. Votes of thanks were accorded the host and hostess, also Mr. Fred Day, the able M.C. and organiser (with musical honours).

Mitcham Says 'Thank You'

The ringers' service at Christ Church, Mitcham, which was held this year on November 21st, is an annual event which is looked forward to by congregation and ringers alike. The Vicar, the Rev. G. S. Johnston, said during the course of the service that 'this is the one occasion on which we publicly say "thank you" to our bellringers for their faithful service throughout the whole of the year, a service which is so regular that it is almost taken for granted.'

To the ringers themselves the service is also a reunion for there gathers together a company of ringers formerly members of the Christ Church band but who have now left the district. The visitors were invited to the Vicarage after the service, where light refreshments were kindly provided, and there was much hand-shaking and reminiscence.

A feature of the church service was a well-struck course of Plain Bob Major by a handbell team from St. Luke's, Chelsea. The sermon was preached by the Rev. A. G. Duckett, Vicar of St. Olave's, Streatham Vale.

The attendance this year was not quite so large as on previous occasions, but from remarks overheard in the belfry and from the departing congregation it was obvious that the event has lost none of its popularity.

Winchester Surprise

Mr. George Baker, of Brighton, points out that the extensions of Winchester Surprise Major to Royal and Maximus, as published in 'The Ringing World' in August, in addition to being Round Block Extensions are also Pivot Bell Extensions. This last feature has upset a theory that he (Mr. Baker) held for a long time, i.e., that Pivot Bell and Round Block Extensions could not exist together in one method.

LATE NEWS

The B.B.C. are keeping their Light Programme transmitters open until midnight on Saturday for the result of the Loughborough attempt for the extent of Plain Bob Major. If successful, the broadcast will occupy five minutes. An announcement will be made in the Light Programme during the evening.

Seventy-seven-year-old Mr. Horace W. Roberts, of Pirton, Herts, has just retired after 60 years' service as a bellringer, and the clock winder since 1902, because he can no longer manage the steep steps. An inscribed pewter tankard was presented to him from his fellow ringers by Mr. Kenneth Timbury, the ringers' captain. Mr Roberts is also verger at the church.

Mr. Harry Thorp, who rang in a quarter peal at Skillington on November 13th, rang his first peal on these bells 46 years ago. He was then so short that he had to stand on four basses.

Recently elected captain and vice-captain of the Pirton (Herts) band, Mr. Ken Timbury and Mr. Roy Head rang in the first peal on the bells together with their friends and tutors from Great Wymondley.

After scoring their first peal at Week St. Mary, Mr. Samuel Stacey and his son, Harry, entertained the band to a splendid supper. The bells were heard during the peal seven miles away.

Despite a pea soup fog, the first practice of the Saxmundham District for Surprise methods was a success. After a good evening of Cambridge Minor it was decided to hold the next at Leiston on December 11th, at 7 p.m., for Cambridge Major.

Members of the Worcestershire Association made their annual trip to Bournemouth for the week-end of November 13th. A peal of Bristol was scored at St. John's. Ringing for Sunday services took place at St. Peter's and St. John's.

On the way home the bells of Malmesbury Abbey, Wiltshire, were rung for Evensong. The party included the Master of the Worcestershire Association and the Ringing Master of St. Martin's Guild, not forgetting the legal representative on the Central Council.

BELFRY

GOSSIP

While ringing a peal recently the following thought flashed across one of the ringers: Would it be possible for a 'Shepherd' to set out with a fast 'Walker' along the 'Meadows' and up to the 'Border' to meet the 'Baron,' who is fishing with small 'Fry' in a large 'Poole' beneath the shelter of a couple of 'Fearn's,' quietly watched by a 'Dove.' The amazing thing is that the peal did not break down!

Mr. John A. Acres has already rung 100 peals this year.

Mr. Ernest Morris has produced a second edition of 'St. Margaret's Select Vestry: Its History and Its Work.'

Through forgetting the lights, the last 20 minutes of the handbell peal at Bournemouth on November 21st was rung in practically complete darkness. It has now been suggested that the band go for a peal in the dark! One of the ringers, Mr. David Hoare, motor-cycled 60 miles each way to participate.

Congratulations to two young Essex ringers on ringing their first peal—Michael Edwards, of Great Baddow, aged 12 years, and Thomas Roast, of Danbury, who rang the second in the same peal consisting of six methods. Thomas, who recently celebrated his 14th birthday, has now rung in more than 150 different towers.

Mr. Derek Jewell, of Combe Martin, has been holidaying in London. Through the good services of Mr. David Beard he was able to score a peal at Downham, Essex, and enjoyed the practices at Harrow-on-the-Hill and St. Mary's, Lewisham. To all concerned he expresses his sincere thanks and assures them that a similar welcome awaits them at Combe Martin.

THE GREAT ATTEMPT

Capturing Public Imagination

Widespread interest, not only in ringing circles, but by the public generally, is being taken in the attempt which starts at 4 a.m. tomorrow (Saturday) to ring the extent of Plain Bob Major on the bells of the campanile at the foundry of Messrs. John Taylor and Co., at Loughborough. Not until nearly midnight will it be possible to complete this stupendous feat.

The band that Mr. W. Eric Critchley has enlisted for the purpose are all experienced peal ringers. They have not undertaken special practice for this attempt, although all of them are ringing peals regularly. With characteristic English reticence the names of the ringers are being withheld from 'The Ringing World' until after the attempt.

The band are planning to get in some sleep before the event, although some of them will not arrive at Loughborough until 8.30 p.m. on the previous Friday. Mr. Critchley will be leaving school as usual at 4 p.m., and then will have to travel from Mexborough, near Rotherham.

No refreshment will be handed to the ringers during the peal, but food will be placed around the belfry so that anyone who is able to ring one-handed for sufficient time will be able to grab what he wants.

At least three umpires have been appointed—Mr. Shirley Burton and Mr. Peter J. Staniforth, of Leicester, and Mr. Wilfred L. Robinson, of Eckington, Derbyshire.

It is understood that the B.B.C. Midland Region intend to take recordings of the attempt. Apart from the national Press, arrangements for coverage are being made by 'Illustrated', the New York 'Life', and P.A.—Reuter Photos, Ltd.

Ringers throughout the country will wish the band success in this great attempt. We are hoping to give the full story of this unprecedented event in ringing history in our next issue.

THE MIDDLESEX VISIT EALING

A sparsely attended but very happy gathering of the Middlesex County Association was held at St. Mary's, South Ealing, on November 20th. St. Mary's tower has been described as the ugliest in the county. It is brick, built in 1792, and is unique in appearance. Oddly enough the parishioners do not see in it anything to be despised, but only a building regarded with the warmest affection. So it was quite to be expected that the visitors were received with warmth and friendliness too.

The Rev. G. H. Perman, Vicar of Ealing, in a short talk during service, compared ringers and himself in using dedicated instruments in the church, he with chalice and paten on the altar and the ringers with bells in the tower. A bountiful tea was served by Mrs. Fulwell and other ringers' wives.

At the business meeting the congratulations of members were accorded to Tom Collins on completing 50 years' service as a ringer at Ruislip. The ringers in two recent peals also came in for praise. The peal of Bob Major at Exeter included the Master and other resident members of the Association, and the meeting agreed that it was a wonderful example of heavy-bell ringing. The District Master, Mr. Frank Blagrove, had also just added to his laurels by his peal at Stanwell in 45 Doubles methods (two or three of these would require a larger 'Ringing World'!). Four new members were elected: C. V. Herriott and P. White, of St. Mary's, Ealing, F. A. Ranson, of Bury St. Edmunds, and Miss J. Barbrook, of Wick-war, Glos.

Ringing during the afternoon and evening ranged from the standard methods to London Surprise Major, all under the guidance of the District Ringing Master.

NOTICE

Beginning with the first issue in 1955, the price of copies of this paper obtained from newsagents will be 6d. per copy.

The 'Ringing World' Committee regret having to take this step, but rising prices leave no alternative if we are to remain solvent.

The terms for postal subscribers will, for the time being, remain as at present.

PEALS ANALYSIS COMMITTEE

Dear Sir,—Will the people concerned please either note, or give further information, on the following 'peals' which have been published in the 'Ringing World'?

INSPECTOR HAROLD J. POOLE RETIRES

To mark the retirement of Inspector Harold J. Poole from the Leicester City Police Force after 29 years of service a peal of Stedman Triples was rung by members of the National Guild of Police Ringers at the Church of St. Mary-de-Castro, Leicester, on Nov. 20th.

Mr. H. J. Poole is president of the Guild of Police Ringers, and also holds a similar office with the Leicester Diocesan Guild.

A BROADCAST FOR YOUTH

On Tuesday, December 14th, in 'Parade,' one of the B.B.C.'s weekly younger generation series in the Light Programme, a Christmas festival of music-making by young people all over Britain will be broadcast from 6.15–6.45 p.m. This will include pre-recorded contributions by young handbell ringers of St. Giles' Church, Birmingham, and St. Dunstan's, Cranford, Middlesex.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

A good sign for the future in the Elloe Deanery was the presence at the quarterly meeting at Gosberton on November 20th of 12 ringers of school age out of an attendance of over 40. The church here has a lovely central tower with a lofty crooked spire. Good use was made of the six bells (tenor 17 cwt. 3 qr. 17 lb.).

The new Vicar (the Rev. Mr. Tollitt) gave a thoughtful address at the service, and the Mothers' Union provided an excellent tea. Mr. Tollitt presided at the short business meeting.

A PATIENT'S GRATITUDE

The Dean of one of our Cathedrals has recently received the following letter:—

About a fortnight last Saturday I was lying abed in the Women's Hospital feeling very wretched after an operation, when suddenly all the bells in Heaven (or so it seemed) were ringing!

'What a sound, and what a pleasure!

'I immediately felt better and was equally delighted when they rang again the next day. I have never heard them before.'

[Note.—A reply to the 'Sunday Express' banner: 'I can't stand these church bells.'—Ed.]

ANCIENT SOCIETY OF COLLEGE YOUTHS

Election of Officers

At the conclusion of the ordinary business at the meeting held on November 20th, the Master, Mr. John Chilcott, vacated the chair and the members proceeded to elect the officers for the ensuing year.

Mr. J. F. Smallwood was voted to the chair, and the officers elected were:—

Master, Mr. Cyril Watts.

Secretary, Mr. Alfred B. Peck.

Treasurer, Mr. Albert A. Hughes.

Senior Steward, Mr. John S. Mason.

Junior Steward, Mr. Selwyn Dearn.

Trustees, Mr. Ernest G. Fenn,

Mr. J. Frank Smallwood.

Conducting the new Master to the chair, Mr. Smallwood wished him every success and happiness in his year of office. It was because the members had the greatest confidence in him that they had elected him to this high office. They believed that he would maintain the dignity and prestige of the Society and would preside over their affairs with fairness and impartiality.

The new Master expressed his pleasure at being elected and promised to do his utmost for the welfare of the Society. He paid a high tribute to the work of the retiring Master, who, he said, had set a very high standard to follow.

The other officers elected also suitably acknowledged their election.

LIVERPOOL CATHEDRAL BELLS

The third anniversary of the opening of Liverpool Cathedral bells was marked on November 20th by the ringing of the bells from 11.30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 4 to 6 p.m. The Dean personally welcomed the ringers in the ringing chamber.

The bells were heard at their best with an opening course of Grandsire Cinques rung by a band of Cathedral and visiting ringers at 164 changes per minute. Ringing throughout the day varied from Queens to Surprise Major, Stedman and Grandsire Caters and Cinques.

At the evensong service, attended by Cathedral and visiting ringers, prayers of praise and thanks were given for the bells, the service closing in remembrance of the Royal opening with the singing of the National Anthem.

It is hoped to make this anniversary day an annual ringing day on which bands of ringers will join with the Cathedral bellringers in an act of praise and thanksgiving.

First 'Four-Spliced' for Durham and Newcastle Association

This peal, on November 20th, at St. Ignatius', Sunderland, was achieved at the third meeting of the band. The first attempt in Newcastle was little more than a practice, for the band is so widely scattered that weekly, or, indeed, any regular practice, is impossible. The second attempt at Whitley Bay showed that the practice had been valuable and but for the intervention of the curate would probably have been successful, as five-sixths of the peal had been rung in splendid fashion up to that point. Perhaps it was appropriate that success should not come until the third attempt in the tower of the late J. W. Parker, the pioneer of Spliced Surprise Major.

The band is entirely resident within the Association area although Frank G. Bloomfield is only a temporary resident during his studies at Durham University.

In view of recent comments on Spliced Surprise on the LXL plan, it may be added that all the band have rung complete peals in all four methods with but one or two exceptions.

The band would like to record the peal as a tribute to the late J. W. Parker.

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD SOCIETY

Youth—A Promise for the Future

THE third annual dinner of the Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford took place at the Stork Hotel, Walsall, on November 13th. All the available 102 tickets were, as last year, again disposed of a fortnight before the dinner.

The Archdeacon of Stafford (Venerable W. A. Parker) presided, and he was supported by Mrs. Parker, Canon A. S. Jenkins (Vicar of Walsall) and Mrs. Jenkins, the Rev. H. H. Follis (Vicar of Little Aston) and Mrs. Follis, and the Rev. G. A. H. Rainbow (Vicar of Claverley, Salop) and Mrs. Rainbow. Other visitors included Mr. W. A. Farmer (secretary of the Shropshire Association), Mrs. Farmer, Mr. H. Bennett and Miss Jones (Shrewsbury), Miss Evelyn Fletcher (Birmingham), Mr. Frank Perrens (Coventry), together with ringers and their wives from Worcestershire and Shropshire. Apologies were received from the Rev. C. H. Barker (clerical secretary) and Mr. and Mrs. F. Colclough.

After a very good meal the chairman proposed the loyal toast. In his remarks which followed, Ven. W. A. Parker said it gave him great pleasure to see so many young people present that evening. With so much young talent available the Society should look forward confidently to the years ahead.

Proposing the toast of 'Church and State,' Mr. J. H. Joyner, of Rugeley, said ringers owed much to the clergy, as without their support ringing on occasions other than for Sunday services would be impossible. By ringing on national occasions ringers acted as a link between Church and State.

In a witty reply the Rev. H. H. Follis made reference to Ven. W. A. Parker's recent appointment as Residential Canon of Lichfield Cathedral. Mr. Follis's skit on life in a Cathedral Close had the company in fits of laughter. Mr. Follis said both he and his wife felt honoured to have been invited to the Society's annual dinner.

Proposing the toast of 'The Society,' Mr. W. A. Farmer spoke of the happy relationship between the Shropshire Association and the 'Staffords.' He went on to say how successful the joint meeting had been at Shrewsbury in July, and said he was looking forward to a similar meeting in the 'Staffords' territory next year.

In reply, Mr. G. Darlington, of Wednesbury, appealed for an all-round improvement in striking. He said that to those listening outside the tower the method being rung was immaterial, but the quality of the striking was of paramount importance.

In proposing the toast of 'The Visitors,' Mr. K. W. Knowles said the presence of visitors from other Associations was essential to the success of a ringers' annual dinner.

In a charming speech of response, Miss Evelyn Fletcher, of Birmingham, said she felt just the same as if she was returning thanks to a personal friend after a really pleasant evening. Miss Fletcher said that she derived much satisfaction from the good fellowship she found amongst ringers wherever she went.

This concluded the speeches, and Mr. Fred Bennett, lay secretary, thanked the Archdeacon for so efficiently taking the chair, and the artistes for giving their services.

Entertainment was provided by the Tamworth Parish Church handbell ringers under Mr. G. H. Peers, jun., the Rev. G. A. H. Rainbow (baritone). Mrs. Dorothy Morris and Mrs. Kathleen Phillips (duets). Mrs. J. H. Joyner and Mrs. Rainbow acted as accompanists. Courses of Grand sire Triples and Caters on handbells were rung by Miss Joan Beresford and Messrs. H. Knight, F. Brotherton, H. Howell, E. Speake, B. G. Key and F. Perrens.

THE SUFFOLK GUILD

Sudbury and Lavenham Hold Their First Dinner

Reminiscences of the early days in the Suffolk Guild were forthcoming at the first annual dinner and social evening of the Sudbury and Lavenham Districts held at the Four Swans, Sudbury, on November 20th.

Mr. R. D. Mills was a genial chairman, and in submitting the toast of 'Church and State' he compared the team work required to run the Church and State in harmony with ringing. One bad striker, he said, ruined the whole effort and bad attendance would mar a good band.

Mr. A. J. Haynes replied, and said the State was represented by the general public and he felt sure ringers' efforts were generally appreciated except when they made the mistake of allowing two peals in one day in a town. He recalled the old story that when the Rector of St. Gregory's asked Dick Harper why he was not stopping for the service, Dick replied in true Suffolk dialect, 'We've done our bit, now you do yours.'

The toast 'The Suffolk Guild' was proposed by one of the oldest members, Mr. Ernest Ambrose, who, in his usual humorous vein, related some of his experiences before the Guild was formed. In 1894 he walked to and from Lavenham for a peal of Bob Major and after its successful conclusion the band adjourned to the Cock Inn for a pint and a good feed of bread and cheese with pickles, for sixpence. He spoke with pride at the tremendous advancement in ringing to-day; the way young people rang and conducted peals showed great promise for the future.

Mr. Archie A. Fitch, in his reply, recalled the foundation of the Guild by the late Rev. T. Drake, of Ufford, the idea having originated from that grand old man, the late Arthur Symonds, of Lavenham, who walked thousands of miles to foster and teach the art. He thanked the chairman for arranging the function and hoped it would become an annual affair.

Between the speeches tunes were played on handbells by Donald Mills and Stuart Hume, and a course of Bob Major rung. Mr. Richard Seabrook sang 'The Farmer's Boy.' Games and musical items with Mr. Ernest Ambrose at the piano concluded the evening.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Lewisham District

The annual meeting of the Lewisham District was held at St. Luke's, Bromley Common. Fourteen towers were represented by the 60 ringers in attendance, together with one or two very welcome visitors. Ringing during the afternoon was directed by Mr. P. P. Brown, District Ringing Master.

The Association service was held in church, the Vicar (the Rev. R. Appleton) officiating. The service commenced with a course of Grand sire Triples on handbells rung at the chancel steps. Mr. E. Barnett, of Crayford, read the lesson. The Vicar's address was original and thought-provoking, and included a warm welcome to Bromley Common. The organ accompaniments heightened the attractiveness of the service.

Tea was served in the Church Institute, Bromley Young Wives' Club members efficiently and graciously arranged the catering and undertook its service.

The business meeting was presided over by the Vicar. Seventeen new members were enrolled into the Association and two life members' elections ratified. The District secretary's report of the year's work was read and adopted.

Mr. A. G. Hill was re-elected District secretary, and Messrs. A. S. Richards and J. Dafters were reappointed District representatives. Two nominations were made for the office of Ringing Master—Mr. E. Ball (Lewisham) and Mr. J. Cannell (West Wickham). Assured that Mr. Cannell was willing to serve, Mr. Ball asked leave to withdraw for this year, and Mr. Cannell was elected. A warm vote of thanks was accorded Mr. P. P. Brown (Bexley) for the exemplary discharge of his duties during the past year. St. Alphege's, Greenwich, was chosen as place of the next quarterly meeting to be held on Saturday, January 29th, 1955.

A word or two of welcome to Mr. E. Alex Young and to Mr. C. Wilkins (Oxford), followed by a very cordial vote of thanks to the Vicar, churchwardens and organist of St. Luke's, to the ladies for their willing help and to Mr. A. Purdom and the local ringers, concluded the business.

Further ringing on handbells and in the tower brought 8 o'clock and the termination of a successful and pleasant meeting.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH ASSOCIATION

Monmouth Branch

Despite a dreary November day the Monmouth Branch quarterly meeting, held at Llanfrechfa recently, proved most enjoyable. Both the Vicar (the Rev. F. A. Oswel) and Mr. Bob Smith were there to welcome all comers. The bells rang out promptly at 2.30 p.m. and a variety of methods was enjoyed.

The Vicar conducted the service and gave, as a fellow ringer, a most interesting address. The Rev. Ivor J. Richards, Llorarth, read the lesson.

A bountiful tea in the Church Hall followed, prepared by Mrs. Oswel, Mrs. Bob Smith and other helpers. These ladies were most sincerely thanked by Mr. Fred Bailey, Master of the Llandaff Branch.

Three new members were elected—Miss Margaret Moss (Bedwellty), Ian Goatman (Ebbw Vale) and B. H. Williams St. Woolos'. Chpstow was chosen as the place of the next meeting in January.

HUNTINGDON.—At All Saints' Church, on Nov. 7th, 1.440 Plain Bob Minor: S. E. Dyer (first quarter) 1, Miss L. Allen 2, G. D. Whitehead 3, J. R. G. Spicer 4, M. J. Dyer 5, H. S. Peacock (cond.) 6. For the festival of All Saints.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE EXTENT OF MAJOR

Dear Sir,—In an article by 'C. R.' on page 663 of the issue of October 15th entitled 'Ringers' Stand at Cheltenham Exhibition,' it was stated that 'One man wanted to know of a book containing all the changes possible on eight bells so that he could learn them.'

In view of the forthcoming attempt to ring the 'extent' of Bob Major, it may be of interest to know that the late Charles Herbert, of Woburn, in order to convince a sceptic in the early days of his efforts to spread the art of change ringing in the district, wrote out the full peal of 40,320.—Yours faithfully,

H. D. HARRIS.

Woburn.

RINGERS' EPITAPHS, ETC.

Dear Sir,—Miss Dorothy Sayers' 'Nine Tailors' is fictitious in a sense, but to me, who knew the lady while at Bluntisham, where 'Tailors' made eight bells chime from the clappers, it appears many names are from Bluntisham and Earith (Hunts) families, while not a doubt should arise that Snowden's books were also used.

I have lived almost all my life within the sound of Bluntisham Church bells and have heard the Rev. Mr. Sayers chime the bells there many mornings, somewhere about 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., while he was Rector there.

Mr. Holliday, of Bluntisham-cum-Earith told me quite an interesting story why the bells were hung dead. He stated the ringers celebrated Christmas and the Rector visited the belfry and turned them out. The tower and spire of this church are not too good, but quite easily good inside corner building to the bells could have been done with efficiency. Bluntisham with Earith has a population of over 1,000, and the net income (Rector's) is somewhere near £950 a year, but, unfortunately, there appears little chance of bell rehanging. There are eight good bells (wheels removed), with tenor 11 cwt. 2 qr. (3ft. 2in. inside diam.) augmented from five to eight early this century. Here is a real need for applications for aid from the Pilgrims Trust and Andrew Carnegie Trust funds to help not too wealthy a church.—Yours faithfully,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

St. Ives, Hunts.

IN DEFENCE OF THOSE WHO APPRECIATE

Dear Sir,—I note with concern the letter by H. and I. Carter of the ingratitude of ringers on outings.

My experience has been the exact opposite. A party of ringers on their annual outing this summer called at Dersingham, and on leaving left me with an appreciation to hand to the church authorities.

Could I add, sir, the parish priest could only stay to welcome them.—Yours sincerely,

CECIL EBBERSON.

Snettisham, Norfolk.

'RINGING WORLD' FINANCE

Dear Sir,—It is interesting to note that in your last four issues 198 peals were published in 17½ pages. During the same period 184 quarter peals were printed occupying four pages.

The voluntary donations acknowledged were: peals £9 2s. 6d.; quarter peals £13 3s.—Yours truly,

G. L. GROVER.

East Clandon, Surrey.

BEDFORDSHIRE—A CLAIM

Dear Sir,—May I, through your columns, thank Mr. Tipler for his reply to my query, and notify you that with the consent of the ringers round this area we shall call Method 2 Bedfordshire, and we should be grateful if no one anticipates us in ringing the first peal in the method.

Also, may I point out that it fulfils Mr. Roe's specifications for his ideal Surprise Major method; although it has six f.c.e.'s, it is possible to get a peal with no 82's or 27's. I submit two more methods with no adjacent places, and course-bells behind, for his perusal.

(i.) mx. 38—14—58—36—14—38—16—58

(ii.) a. 38—14—58—36—14—58—36—58

These both have a mouthful of f.c.e.'s, and I doubt if they are pealable.—Yours sincerely,

STEPHEN IVIN.

Houghton Conquest, Beds.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS

'The Ringing World' Committee has now thoroughly reviewed this matter, and in the light of the discussion at the last Central Council meeting, and the fact that some contributors desire to remain anonymous, the Committee decided to advise the Editor to consider for publication letters and articles written over a nom-de-plume, PROVIDED they do not contain attacks on or unreasonable criticism of individuals or bodies.

It should be understood that in EVERY case the name and address of the contributor must be enclosed, not necessarily for publication but as a gesture of good faith.

BOB MAJOR AT EXETER

Dear Sir,—There is no duty to congratulate the band who rang Bob Major at Exeter; we all know they did a job for which even William Pye and his company would have congratulated them, but no duty is attached thereto. I have rung with them all except Mr. Marlow, and know they are 100 per cent. ringers. I also know there is at least one organist among them, but to compare Bob Major or even any Major to an organ on any bells there is no comparison. If your correspondents, Mr. Mallett and Mr. Wreford, were there all the time, it is a pity Royal was not rung, for it only shows that the peal was not Laus Deo.—Yours sincerely,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

IDENTITY WANTED

Dear Sir,—The chimes of the Parish Church of Stow-on-the-Wold ring the following quaint sequences for quarter- and half-hours (repeating first one and then both sequences for the three-quarter and full-hour respectively):—

E, C, D, A
C, E, D, A

These may not be the actual notes, but the intervals are correct if the key is wrong.

It was suggested to me that this is not a legitimate chime but a freak, due to incompetent fumbling after 'Westminster' chimes on the part of a workman of past days.

I have never heard our chimes anywhere else. Can you possibly give a name to them? Their effect is odd at first to the hearer, who expects 'Westminster,' but later acquires a markedly wistful character not without charm.—Yours faithfully,

H. C. M. POTTS (Rev.).

Stow-on-the-Wold, Glos.

SURPRISE MAJOR—A CHALLENGE

Dear Sir,—I read Mr. K. A. Roe's letter in 'The Ringing World' of November 19th with a good deal of interest, and I suppose I am one of those involved in the debasement of the term 'Major.' I would like to try and reply to some of his points.

Firstly, I would like to say that Messrs. Knights and Cashmore are not responsible for the methods Ufford and Olney, but only for the compositions. As originally submitted to you, sir, there was no ambiguity in this respect. I claim no ownership of the figures, but I do admit to having written them out. I do not admit ownership of the figures of methods; once the basic principles have been grasped it is an elementary procedure for anyone to sit down and go on writing out Surprise Major methods more or less ad infinitum; no particular skill is involved. Working out the false course ends is fairly simple, and in very many methods it is easy to say if a true peal can be produced.

I imagine Mr. Blagrove will not waste his time over the 'challenge'—here is a method which seems to meet it:—

—58—16—58—36—, 14—14, 38, 16—16, 38
2nds place lead end (peals of Watford will go). Incidentally, the second method sent to 'The Ringing World' a few weeks ago by Mr. Ivins is pealable, so that also would meet the bill.

Now we come to this 'debasement' business. I agree that the making of four places at a time is not in general a good thing; however, its use in a section is hallowed by the ancient example of Cambridge, which is fairly generally regarded as a very good method. Its use at a cross section seems to me rather more debatable for reasons too involved to go into here. However, one thing I will say: the making of four places in Cambridge does not offend my rather insensitive ear, while the making of three adjacent places in New Cambridge can sound horrible.

Mr. Roe obviously believes in never having any but coursing pairs in 7-8. May I suggest he goes and rings a few peals in methods with the work of Superlative above the treble and with the 6th 12 full courses home; he will then realise that there is some good music which cannot be got if the bells behind are coursing pairs. Personally, I like a bit of variety in the music.

To condemn adjacent places out of hand is quite ridiculous. The late Armiger Trollope said that Cornwall is one of the most musical of methods; I most heartily agree. Methods with the New Gloucester work above the treble also produce some excellent music, and, with the careful attention to the composition used, are very much more worth ringing than some more popular methods.

Next we come to the old argument about the label 'Surprise.' Where are all these wonderful Treble Bob and Delight methods? Now and again I have tried scribbling out some. Treble Bob is useless. Delight has some possibilities but there just don't seem to be the interesting methods available; if there is just one cross section with no internal places the number of possible sections on either side of this cross section is very much reduced, and so the number of possible methods is reduced. The restriction of having coursing bells in 7-8 also very severely cuts down the number of these methods. If you want to avoid adjacent places as well, there are no Treble Bob methods available!

I think a great many people do care what they ring. Unfortunately I fear Mr. Roe looks at the figures, writes out the places, says 'What a horrible method!' and then forgets about it. I suggest he goes and rings a few of them and when I say 'ring,' I mean a peal—not just a rather poor plain course.—Yours sincerely,

RICHARD F. B. SPEED.

Hampton Wick, Kingston.

LETTERS—Continued

SURPRISE MAJOR

Dear Sir,—I have noted with interest the recent correspondence in your columns concerning Surprise Major, and its classification into two categories, namely, 'good' and 'bad.' Mr. Roe's latest letter provokes me into making a reply.

My first point is this. It is ridiculous to make terminology the basis for any argument concerning relative merits. Let us assume that, at a given change, four bells make places, and consequently only two pairs reverse. Then no amount of bandying the word 'Doubles' can alter the fact that the change-row so produced is a permutation on eight and must accordingly be classified 'Major.' Whether the musical qualities of the method suffer by the inclusion of such double changes is a different matter, and each individual case must be judged on its own merits.

There then arises the question of how we are to decide which method is and which is not worth ringing. Two bands could have very different views on the qualities of the same method. Whereas one band might vow never to ring 'that rubbish' again, the other band might decide to give it 'a good working over' in the future. Whose opinion do we accept? The answer is, of course, that we accept neither, but we try the method out ourselves and draw our own conclusions. Certainly no method should be condemned merely because it contains changes at which contiguous places are made—there are many of these methods which contain plenty of good music for those willing to listen for it.

I pass over Mr. Roe's challenge to Mr. Blagrove, except in so far as to connect a remark contained therein with an earlier remark concerning 'ownership.' Certainly anybody can write out a Surprise Major method, and that being so, where is the justification for calling any method 'all my own work'?

Lastly, if we look up Mr. Roe's letter in 'The Ringing World' of July 16th, 1954, we find that he advocates the abolition of the term 'Surprise,' and proposes to divide Treble Bob methods into two classes, simple and difficult. Consider the case of the two ringers A and B. A finds that he has reached the limit of his power of concentration at Kent Treble Bob, but it is well known that B could ring London Surprise standing on his head, if he could only manage his rope that way up. The futility of trying to make such a division should be immediately obvious.—Yours faithfully,

PETER BORDER.

Coventry.

INSPIRED FRIENDSHIP

Dear Sir,—There is an inspired friendship among ringers, and Mr. Frank Stenson, when I first met him, gave me such a feeling. It abounded in Friezland (Yorks), where I was brought up, and was there more prominently in the ringing chamber than among other church workers.

This was recalled to me when I attended the Rochdale Branch meeting at Moorside on November 13th, when the Vicar appealed in his sermon to the ringers to give of their best to the bells.

Such a thought has been my constant inspiration. The bells have given me joy and sorrow (not in a way of disappointment but a remembrance of my ringing pals). We are a great and varied society—not always seeing eye to eye—but nevertheless gain inspiration and friendship from meeting and ringing together.—Yours fraternally,

JOSEPH BURGESS.

Friezland, Yorks.

OBITUARY

MR. W. H. COOPER

Mr. William Henry Cooper, who died at Guildford on November 17th, aged 74, was for 35 years a ringer and chorister at Merrow Parish Church.

He learned to handle a bell at Freshwater, in the Isle of Wight, and came from there to the Guildford area nearly 40 years ago, and until his health broke down about two years ago, he had for most of that time lived and been employed as a gardener at Levysdene, Merrow.

Although Bill Cooper did not aspire to reach great heights in the world of method ringing he was always a regular and punctual service ringer and served faithfully, too, in his office of chorister.

The funeral was at Merrow on November 23rd, and in the evening a quarter peal of Doubles was rung half-muffled on the bells.

MR. FRED HILTON

Mr. Fred Hilton, who will probably be remembered in Lincolnshire, and in later years was well known in East Kent ringing circles, died on November 19th, aged 78 years.

He commenced his ringing career at an early age at Heckington, Lincolnshire, and went to live at Broadstairs, Kent, about 30 years ago, when he joined the St. Lawrence, Ramsgate, band. Mr. Hilton gave up active ringing in 1951 owing to ill-health, but continued to take an interest in ringing matters and was a regular reader of 'The Ringing World.' He was a devout churchman and rang regularly for Sunday services, but did not indulge in many peal attempts. He had a pleasant personality and was well respected by all who knew him. His eldest son and a grandson carry on what is now a family tradition.

The St. Peter's, Broadstairs, band rang half-muffled at morning service on November 21st and the St. Lawrence's, Ramsgate, band also rang a quarter peal half-muffled on November 22nd to his memory.

MR. SIDNEY J. PECK

The death occurred on November 12th of Mr. Sidney J. Peck, of Eynesbury, St. Neots, Huntingdonshire. He was in his 70th year and had been a member of the Ely Diocesan Association since 1902.

During recent years his ringing had been restricted owing to ill-health, but in his younger days he was a regular visitor at meetings in Huntingdonshire, Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire. During this period he rang 34 peals (five on handbells) and conducted two. These included the first peal of Major and first in seven Minor methods in Huntingdonshire.

Mr. Peck was a regular Sunday service ringer at Eynesbury from 1900, and tower captain from 1921 until ill-health caused his retirement from ringing in 1953. For the whole of this time he was also a member of the church choir, being the tenor soloist for many years.

At his funeral on November 15th the choir was in attendance and a number of his ringing friends were also present. The wreaths included one from the Eynesbury church choir and bellringers and one from the Hunts District, Ely Diocesan Association.

During the evening a quarter peal of 1,320 Plain Bob Minor was rung, with the bells half-muffled, by S. W. Hawksford (St. Neots) 1, F. Warrington (conductor, St. Ives) 2, J. R. T. Spicer (Huntingdon) 3, W. A. R. Chamberlain (Eynesbury) 4, F. W. Lack (Great Staughton) 5, H. S. Peacock (Huntingdon) 6. S. G. P.

MR. JOSEPH WILLIAM PEMBERTON

With regret we record the death of another old member of St. Martin's Guild (as briefly announced in 'The Ringing World') in the person of Mr. Joseph William Pemberton, who passed away at his home in Sutton Coldfield.

Mr. Pemberton joined the Guild 36 years ago and rang his first peal in December, 1918, and his last in October, 1948. He unfortunately had a seizure from which he never recovered, and the deepest sympathy of his many friends has been extended to his widow and family.

The funeral service, which preceded cremation, was held at Boldmere Parish Church and conducted by the Vicar. The many friends present included members of the Masonic Craft, and the St. Martin's Guild was represented by Mr. F. E. Haynes (vice-president) and Mr. A. Walker (Master).

A prominent Freemason, Mr. Pemberton had attained high honours in the Craft. He was Worshipful Master of the Birchfield Lodge (No. 4549) 1934-5; also a founder and Worshipful Master of the Walmley St. John's Lodge (No. 6504) 1948-9. He took part in four Masonic peals.

Of his 115 peals he conducted 17 on five to twelve bells; 74 of these were with St. Martin's Guild. He was also a member of the Archdeaconry of Stafford, Worcestershire and Districts, Coventry, Gloucester and Bristol, Glosop, and Salisbury Guilds.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SOCIETY

Dr. D. N. Layton presided over the tenth annual meeting of the University of London Society held at Halliday Hall, on October 30th, and attended by 24 members out of a total of 120.

Officers elected for the new session were:—President, Dr. D. N. Layton; Master, John R. Leeming; secretary and treasurer, Graham McKay; auditor, Peter Layton; committee, Geoffrey Bryant, Alan Hilton and Roselyn Crewe. The election of the following new members was ratified:—A. Rex Agg, David Little, Ann Field, David Priestley, John M. Harrop, Roselyn Crewe and Peter Davies.

The meeting discussed the need of a permanent home, especially for Sunday service ringing. The president and secretary were authorised to continue their negotiations with the Rector of St. Olave's, Hart Street.

The meeting stood in silence to the memory of Eric Dench, a life member, who died whilst on service with the R.A.F.

Essex was favoured for the next Whitsun tour with the possibility of another in West Kent as an alternative. For the summer tour Suffolk was suggested. The annual dinner was fixed for February 19th.

Congratulations were accorded to Philip Gray on winning a prize to the value of £100 for an essay on mineralogy.

There was ringing in the afternoon at St. Stephen's, Clapham Park, and the Society attended evensong conducted by the Vicar. Most of those present attended a dance at Halliday Hall after the meeting.

A Progressive Band

An indication of the progress made by members of the Ashted Society of Change Ringers, which celebrated its second birthday in October, was given on November 20th, when four members rang in a peal of Grandsire Triples. This is the first occasion for more than 26 years that four local ringers have rung together in a peal. At the annual meeting of the Society, Derek Astridge, then aged 15, was appointed Ringing Master. Although by no means a record, it is an indication of the youth and virility of most of the band that so young a Ringing Master has been appointed. Previous to the meeting Derek had rung the treble to a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major.
