WARNING

Lately there has been a disruptive element present in the Exercise. Laughter has been heard in ringing chambers up and down the country, and it is feared that there are a growing number who ring for enjoyment and as a service to the Church. What has happened to the stern mental discipline, the rigorous training, the all-male prerogative, the dignified correspondence? Who belongs to this breakaway group of iconoclasts? How are we to recognise them and eject them from our towers?

THE ART OF COARSE BELL-RINGING

Coarse Bell-ringer n.-One who can handle a bell and learn a method, but is unable to combine the two.

Coarse Bell-ringers, male or female, are easily recognised, being friendly, extrovert, and never the tower captain. They are invariably dressed unsuitably for ringing. The men wear tight waistcoats, limiting movement to three inches in any direction; or large, loose trousers and shirts in need of anchorage. The ladies wear shift dresses that rise alarmingly, or precariously balanced hipster skirts. (Serious rinjers' clothing permits free and vigorous movement, yet is apparently glued to the body.)
It is not yet known why Coarse Bell-ringers are attracted to the Exercise. Perhaps they come to meet other ringers, with a view to arranging a coarser rendezvous elsewhere, or because they want an excuse for consuming the rivers of beer that are every ringer's right. Children are never Coarse Bell-ringers; the type first develops at about seventeen years old, by which time the infant beginner is either ringing spliced Surprise, or has been permanently discouraged.

To cover his inadequacies, the Coarse Bell-ringer takes refuge in Bellmanship. This is best defined as: "the knack of convincing everyone that you are the only one who is right, when they, and you, know you are wrong." The basic principles of this black art have been kept secret, but recently a beginner's textbook fell into our hands, and we can now expose this commendable practice.

In case of emergency in mid-touch

1. Disregard all shouting. It is best to stare fixedly ahead, with perhaps the slightest suggestion of a tolerant smile for the weaknesses of others. If this is too difficult, looking at each bell in tum, as though carefully following your coursing order, will also be effective.
2. Every so often, look pointedly at a bell, and hold your own bell up over it. This will immediately convince the other person that he should have dodged with you.
3. Never be tempted to say: "I'm in 3-4 now," or anything similar. There may be someone who really is in 3-4.
4. When the conductor has finally called "stand," set your bell slowly and carefully, saying: "Yes, it certainly is oddstruck." During the ensuing discussion of who went wrong where, sit down quietly and engage someone in earnest conversation; with any luck they'll forget you before you next come up.

So, watch out all you campanologists, Coarse Bellringers are on the loose. There may be one at your next practice (if you haven't got five in the band already).
E.Z.

UNIFORMITY WANTED

A correspondent, who after many years has spent much time in trying to instruct beginners, makes a plea for uniformity in ringing nomenclature. So much. he contends, is incomprehensible to them and to many readers of "The Ringing World." He asks the Central Council, as the body elected by ringers themselves. to lay down once and for all the approved method of writing out peals, compositions, methods. etc., and the meaning of signs, etc. Why should X mean a dozen totally different things?
Take the layout of methods. $X$ means all bells change; 34 means that those in 3rds and 4ths lie still. The beginner gets that and at once a considerable part of the paper becomes intelligible till next week he meets- 34 . The instructor now explains that - is the same as X after having spent some time previously telling him that it means a bob.

Our correspondent writes:
"One picks up the paper with a view to explaining what is meant in the layout of a new composition, and you find the neadings the normal B, M. W, etc. Without going into detail one explains that they are the positions at which the calls are made. But immediately underneath that composition is another of an allied method, with totally different headings. Even if one knows oneself or can guess what they mean, the only explanation one can give is that that is the way that particular composer writes it out. The following week there is a layout of an entirely different sort, which so far has defeated me, let alone try and explain it. By this time one's audience has come to the aunclusion that nothing means anything at all and you can put down what you like, make a noise on the bells and "call it a peal! So गne tries to interest them in something else."

Pe:haps the new comprehensive textbook of Mr. W. G. Wilson's, which is due for publication at the end of this month, will give a lead and a guide in these matters, which for the sake of clarity and ease should be universally adopted.

College Youths are Secular but they need Support of Church

Replacement of British Bells would cost £23m.-Ringers Urged to Appreciate their Value.-Tributes to Mr. Chilcott, the retiring Secretary. - New Members from Canada and Australia.

FEW recent Masters of the Ancient Society of College Youths have had such a wide experience of provincial ringing as Mr. Rodney B. Meadows, who presided over the 328 th anniversary dinner at the Bridge House Restaurant. London Bridge, on November 6th, and recognition of this and his popularity in the Exercise was forthcoming from the large attendance of country members.
The Central Council was represented by the president (Canon Thurlow) and also its general secretary (Mr. E. A. Barnett). It was Mr. John E. Chilcott's last dinner as secretary of the Society and tributes were paid to his efficient service by various speakers. The customary touch of Stedman Cinques was rung on bells originally the gift of the late Mr. W. H. Pasmore, which had been renovated and augmented to 18 by the brothers William and Douglas Hughes in memory of their father, the late Mr. Albert A. Hughes.
The Master was escorted to his chair by the senior steward, Mr. J. D. Rock, and the junior steward, Mr. A. J. Frost. Other officers present in addition to the secretary were Messrs. C. G. J. Watts (treasurer), E. G. Fenn and J. F. Smaliwood (trustees).

The loyal toast was followed by the Master proposing "The Church." Mr. Meadows said old accounts made it clear that change ringing, which began to flourish in England some 350 years ago, was at first entirely a secular art. The custom of ringing for Sunday services is more recent than is generally supposed. The Ancient Society of College Youths, which we regard as a nationwide Society, remains essentially a secular Society. No body of ringers is more devoted and efficient in the Sunday service ringing which it undertakes to perform at the London towers, but Society activities generally do not centre on this and we are not affiliated to any Diocese.

The Master is not obliged, strictly in performance of his duties, to attend a church service more than once or twice during his year of office, perhaps not at all. It is therefore a salutary exercise for him, and a longestablished custom, that he , should propose the toast of "The Church" at this dinner. If I now avoid making some of the usual comments on our relationship with the Church, this is not because they are not important, but because they have been madeand well made- many times before both at this and other dinners. We all know that Church and ringers depend on one another: but really our side has much the better of the bargain.

BELLS NEED THE SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH

If asked which was the best ring of eight bells in the City of London, many would no doubt choose St. Lawrence Jewry, which some of you will have been ringing today. A strong rival to these fine bells would be the post-war Taylor eight hung in St. Dunstan's-in-the-East. which are not available for ringing and probably never will be. The tower stands complete with bells but no church to support it, and without this the bells cannot be rung.

MR. RODNEY B. MEADOWS The Master, 1964-65

Bells without the church are as nothing, or next to nothing.
In the life of this country, bellringers enjoy a remarkable licence. It has been said that the most patient and defenceless audience is a church congregation when the sermon is being preached. They cannot answer back and it is extremely difficult to get away. There is an even more patient and defenceless audience. I mean the people who live within balf-a-mile or so of a church where there are bells. The licence for ringers to broadcast, at full volume, two or three times a week, depends entirely on the long custom of ecclesiastical protection. Any other broadcasting instrument. operated at comparable decimels, would be stopped at once by the police. If the Church ceased to be a Church, ringing would Nt be tolerated for a month longer, perhaps not even a week. BELLS VALUE- $£ 23$ MILLION
The modern world has been brainwashed into seeing all issues expressed in financial terms. George Orwell once wrote, "Money is what God used to be." I have been doing a few calculations, fased on the knowledge that there are some 5,200 rings of five bells or more in this country. If one values these bells and fittings at up-to-date prices, that is to say the replacement value, or whot it would now cost if they had to be installed all over again. their capital value comes to some $£ 23,000,000$. It shudder to think that the Church Commissioners, financial wizards that thev are, may one day start toying with these figures and wondering what else they could be doing with the money. Ringers should appreciate the value of the ecclesiastical furniture with which they are allowed to play. My speech has been expressed in somewhat materialistic terms. The only satisfactory relationship of ringers with the Church is that they should be part of it. For any ringer who regards the relationship as a kind of bargain or working partnership, it may be a little chastening to consider for a moment which party stands more in need of the other.
Canon Gilbert Thurlow, who replied, said the Church is not what those who usually plan this toast think it is. It is first and foremost the people of God, the ecclesia, the crowd. We can't avoid being God's people, whether we acknowledge Him or not. All come from God and return to God-Christian, humanist, Communist, alike. The Church's founder came to show everybudy what they are-God's people. He knew most wouldn't respond, but He knew it was worth it.
So the Church is narrowed down to those who set themselves apart for Christ by baptism. Even here there is a sharp distinction between those whose loyalty increases and those whose loyalty decreases. Too many baptised $C$. of $E$, become loose hangers-on and have the odd idea that the Church is like the theatre, to which people come when inclined. The greatest thing the Church is doing today is recovering truth that it is a family or army, a band. as ringers would say, to which loyalty is members' first charge.
ALL FOR ALL

Christian division has turned the choice of Church into a hobby in the eyes of the man in the street. When the Church is one again, "joining Church" will again mean "recog. nising what we really are and acting on it." Worship has become, in the ordinary man's eyes, an escapist hobby When dockers. miners, car workers and all of us see that all we do can only succeed when done as people, all together, each for all and all for each, then we'll stop going down the drain and we shall live as never before, and the Church will be God's people united in God.
Proposing the toast of ". The Ancient Society of College Youths." Mr. E. A. Barnett, hon. secretary of the Central Council, said it was a great honour, hecause he believed it was the first occasion that it had been proposed by one who was a member of a body who were referred to as "the other lot." "I propose this toast. not only as a Cumberland but one who is secretary of the Central Council and one who takes a deep interest in ringing history, and the history of your Society is of great interest. At times I have made certain mental reservations of what is said at this dinner, but those who have studied ecclesiastical history will realise that it is not uncommon for people to have reservations one way or another.'

FOUR SECRETARIES
What was unique. said Mr. Barnett, was that he had known their last four secretaries Mr. Chilcott, Mr. Peck. Mr. Cockerill and before him Mr. Richard T. Woodley, who was secretary in 1887. He met him many years later and rang a peal with him at Lowestoft. (Continued on next page)

COLLEGE YOUTHS' DINNER (contd.)

The enly remark he made which stuck in his mind was about the Rev. C. A - Clemients, winom Mr. Woodley said could swear before he became a parson.
He thought many of them knew that it had not always been the practice of their Society to hold their annual dinner in London. At the end of the last century the Society used 10 go to country places where they had an interesi and members. In 1887 the dinner was held at the Biti Inn. Crayford, Kent, on August 4th. and "Church Bells" reported that it was the 242 nd anniversary dinner and that it was attended bw many members of the Society from various parishes in the vicinity.

In coupling Mr. John Chilcott's name with the toast, Mr. Barnett said: " It was with very great regret that I learned that your secretary is giving up office in the next few days and I would like to say thank you to him for his unfailing courtesy to me at all times."

A WELL-OILED MACHINE
Endorsing this tribute to Mr. Chilcott, the Master said it was a delightful experience to be Master of their Society, as one was supported by a well-oiled machine. John Chilcott was nine-tenths of that machine and he would be very difficult to replace actequately.

Mr. Chilcott in his reply, which took the form of an annual report, said although he did not invite Mr. Barnett so that they could indulge in "back-scratching," that gathering did enable them to show appreciation of Mr. Barnett's valuable services during the 14 years he had been secretary of the Centrad Council. (Hear, hear.)

Their attendance that day was 217 members and friends and was nearly their capacity. He congratulated Mr. George Symonds on ringing a peal on his 90 th birthday, and Mr. E. G. Fenn, who was attending on his 90th birthday. Apologies had been received from Bishop Wand, the Archdeacon of London. Messrs. E.
T. Floyd-Ewin (Registrar of St. Paul's), T. Fluyd-Ewin (Registrar of St. Paul's), Bramble (over 50 years a member). Harry Miles, John Brain, Henry Bagot (who writes that the College Youths in Australia were proposing to hold a dinner that day) and Andrew Pearmain.

Forty-five new members had been elected during the year, including three Izards, grandsons of Mr E W Izard, of British Columbia, four from Melbourne and two each from Adelaide and Sydney.

MASTER AND PAST MASTERS' PEAL
Peals reported since the last dinner totalled 25, viz: Stedman Cinques 9 (that at St. Paul's created more interest than any other he had taken part in; one at Cornhill was in 3emoriam Herbert Langdon): Stedman Caters 3: Surprise Maximus 4 (included one by the Master and Past Masters of the Society. The one lost was better than the one rung, as afterwards 14 Past Masters were entertained at the George at Southwark) ; Stedman Triples 3: assorted Major 4 (including London at Water ford): Bob Minor 1:Grandsire Triples 1. LOSSES BY DEATH
The company stood as those who had died during the year were remembered. The list included six who had been members for 50 years, viz: Harry Sear (1898) Bletchingley: F. Carew Cox (1905) Bridport; Herbert Langdon Carew Cox (1905) Bridport; Herbert Langdon Alfred Reeves (1900) Bristol.
Others were: Herbert C. Edwards (1943) Stoney Stratford; Laurence J. Williams (1931) Church Kirk: William G. Hiscott (1928) Liskeard: Stanley T. A. Russell (1942) Ash; Leonard A. Tidy (1952) Limpsfield: George Apps (1948) Cuckfield; Walter Lewington (1950) Tilehurst; George Perrin (1955) Friezland: Frank C. W. Knight (1963) Ramsgate: George H. Cross (R.S.C.Y.); John Lloyd (1956) Brierley Hill): Horace Edwards (1913) (1956) Brierley Hill): Horace Edwards (1913)
Capel; Arthur G. Rose (1937) Parkstone;

Joseph T. Dyke (1922) Chilcompton; Mrs. Edith K. Fletcher (Ladies' Guild).

The usual Sunday activities had taken place during the year plus week-day ringing at St. Giles', Cripplegate, and great credi was due to Jack Phillips, who organised this. The Exeter meeting was cancelled late in the day because the Cathedral bells were not availabic. and it was impossible to arrange an adequate ringing programme. They had a pleasant day at St Anns. Stamford Hill, in July, for the 100 th anniversary of the dedication of the six bells. A quarter peal was rung as was done at the dedication in which the then Master, George Shury, took part.

Another event was the election to life membership of the Central Council of Mr. J. Frank Smallwood. "" Long may he enjuy life membership of the Council.'

TWO PRACTICES EACH TUESDAY
A reorganisation of their practice rota had taken place. They had now two practices going on on a Tuesday night and some weeks there were two 12 -bell practices at the same time, which illustrated the condition of the College Youths In London. Next year's country meeting would be arranged by Mr. Leslie Barry at Gloucester on May 7th. An interesting programme would include ringing at Cheltenham and Painswick The next annual meeting would be held on November $5 \mathrm{th}, 1966$ A new rule book had been published and Mr. W. T. Cook had rewritten the history of the Society. Copies were available for members to purchase

The handbells they were using that evening belonged to William $H$. Pasmore, who died in 1956 and left them to the Society. Those bells had been restored and increased to 18 by the brothers William and Douglas Hughes in memory of their father, the late Mr. Albert A. Hughes, They were dedicated by the Archdeacon of London last September. He expressed the thanks of the Society to the brothers Hughes for their gift

The toast of ": The Visitors and Kindred Ringing Societies" was proposed by Mr. A. J. Frost, the junior steward, who spoke with affection of the kindness that had been ex tended to him by London ringers when he came among them as a young man ten years ago. The College Youths were very pleased that next year they would provide ringers with two other Societies to ring for the 900 th anniversary of the Abbey. They were pleased to have with them the Rector of St. Michael's Cornhill, as he and his wife had entertarned them on a number of occasions in the vestry.
To Mr. Dennis Beresford he extended a spectal welcome as the Master of " the other Society, and they were pleased to have with them members from Oxford, Derbyshire, Bristol, Lancashire and other places. In the gathering that night there were between 40 and 50 kindred Societies represented.

The Rev. Norman Motley, Rector of St. Michael's, Cornhill, replied and assured them that the clergy were very grateful to their ringers. He concluded: "Thank you for asking us; thank you for ringing. God bless you, and keep on ringing.'

ROVING RINGERS' DAYS

The Rev. Roger O. Fry. Rector of Portishead and a former secretary of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, said the many diocesan and county Associations represented that night showed the high regard they had for the Ancient Society. First of all he would like to pay a tribute to the retiring secretary. He knew John very well and remembered the days when he and his brother toured the country with the Roving Ringers. They had seen him ring at Exeter, Buckfast and Wrington and at the excellent out-of-town meetings he had organised at Bristol and Cardiff. He wished him and his charming wife every happiness in the future.

Mr. Fry also spoke of his long association with the Master in Bristol and Bath.
membered when he lived in Bath that he regularly came to their practice meetings at Twerton

THE FRAGRANT MEMORY"
As is customary, the toast " The fragrant memory of Masters of 300,200 and 100 years "go" was drunk in silence.

The toast was proposed by the Master. who said the Master elected in 1665 was Godfrey Wildbore. He had no information about him except that he joined the Society in 1659 and was elected a steward in 1662. The Rules then stipulated that the Master and stewards (of which there were perhaps as many as four) should be "able and willing to bear the expense" of the annual feast.
There was no record of the name of the Master elected in 1765 , but in 1865 George Salisbury Shury was elected for his fourth year of office. He was a ringer at Kensington and elected a member in 1850 . He rang the treble to about a dozen peals with the Society, mainly the creble to Grandsire Triples and Caters.
Concluding the evening, the Master said he was delighted that so many of his old friends had come up to London for the dinnerfriends with whom he had spent many hours of ringing in the Midlands, Bristol, Oxford and Cheshire.
The customary touch of Stedman Cinques was rung by William T. Cook $1-2$, Wilfred Williams 3-4 Michael V. Chiicott 5-0, John Chilcott (conductor) 7-8, Philip A. F. Chalk Y-10, Michael P. Moreton 11-12.

Letters to the Enitor

OLDEST RING BY ONE FOUNDEK

Dear Sir,-It was interesting to read of the ancient ring of six at St. Swithun's, Worcester. referred to by Mr Paul Cattermole (page 722). I am unable to think of an older six. but there is here in the City of London a complete ring of tive at the Church of St. Bar-tholomew-the-Great. all cast circa 1510 by one Thomas Bullesden. Although the total age here is only 2,275 years, the true age of each bell is 455 years: 1 am told that this is the oldest complete ring by one founder The bells hang in a massive frame of quite remarkable design and construction, out of all proportion to the size of the bells (tenor approximately five cwt). It is interesting to note that two of the trio at St. Bartholomew-the-Less, hard by, dating from c. 1400 and c 1440 are the oldest bells remaining in the City, but these unlike the bells of their magnificent neighbour, are very dilapidated. Yours sincerely,

King's College, W.C.
NO MISCALL-NUT UP TO STANDARI
Dear Sir. - In order to get the record straight, may 1 make it clear that the peal at Yatton for the "Hesse Week-end" was not miscalled; it was allowed to run round at the half-way point because 1 did not consider that the ringing was up to standard, and this 1 explained to the band at the time Your contributor, who was not in the band, was misinformed.-Yours sincerely, Portishead, Bristol.

R. O. FRY.

LIFE OF BELL ROPES

Dear Sir.-I was interested to read the letter on bell ropes by Mr. R. H. Duke (page 723) in which he states that properly maintained ropes will last ten years. I have just spliced one, less than one year old, after quite a lot of upping and downing.
Can I ask him, or someone as knowledgable, to contribute an article on getting the best out of our ropes, and if castor oil or French chalk helps at all on the rubbing spots?-Yours sincerely,

JOHN ROYAL.

Kenilworth.

ALDERNEY SURPRISE MAJOR
Dear' Sir,-1 am indebted to Mr. A. Cutler for pointing out to me that the peal of Alderney rung at Putney on October 23rd, 1965 ("Ringing World," page 751), is not the first peal in the method. Although not claimed as such, the first peal of Alderney was rung at St. Ebbe's, Oxford, on October 20th. 1964. I am sorry that I omitted this from the supplement to the Central Council book, which was published as part of the last Records Committee report (" Ringing World," July 2nd, 1965, page 449). This omission is no doubt the reason for the present mistake. Perhaps your readers will amend their records and I will add this correction to next year's supplement.-Yours faithfully,

Harrow.

RINGERS' DIARY

Dear Sir,-Despite several rises in production costs and a rise in postage, we have kept the prices of the Ringers' Notebook and Diary stable for some years, partly by changing from stiff to limp covers and partly because of gradually increasing sales.

Now, due to further rises in printing costs and postage, we find that the prices must be increased by 6 d . to 6 s . 6 d . with plastic cover and 8 s , with leather cover, post free, with the usual 3d. per copy reduction for orders of six or more.

At the same time we have taken steps to improve the quality, particularly by providing wider margins to the pages and more space for Saturday entries. We also hope that we have correctly forecast the demand for the 1966 edition and will be able to satisfy all requests for copies.

May we ask customers, please, not to send their orders before secing the advertisement, which will appear in this paper shortly

THE BELLS OF INDIA AND PAKISTAN
Dear Sir,-A day or two ago I was giving a talk on bells to a Church Men's Fellowship and, after mentioning the big bells of the world and the East in general, a questioner asked in particular for information on the bells of India. Apart from generalities, I am afraid I was stumped. I have to go back to this group for a further talk in a few months' time and & promised to give something of a picture then.
Can somebody help me, please-India and Pakistan?-Yours sincerely,

CLAUDE RUSH.

LEARNERS AND MEETINGS

Dear Sir,-I would like to take up a point from J. E. Spree's letter, leaving aside the Kent question, except to wish good luck to the "Lurker": long may he do so if it will make more ringers aware of their ears.

As to whether "Meetings" are practices, I am trying to cudgel this Branch (Stroud) into accepting that they are nothing but, and must be conducted as such, with every bit of concentration on new, and especially junior, members: this in an effort to counter the nonexistent legacy of past generations, and their negative attitudes to recruitment.

The few new members now appearing must, from the word go, be imbued with an awareness for constant attendance and to reserve the one Saturday a month, when our limited talent is pooled in the endeavour to better Sunday ringing, which-remember?-is the Srime ohject of Guilds and Associations.Yours, cic.,

"RINGERS REQUIRED"

Dear Sir,-Although this film was amateur made, it has achieved success in professional film festivals and has been transmitted throughous Britain and Canada on television.
If therefore any ringers seek a film, whether It be for a special function where entertainment is desired, or for recruitment and demonstration, or for public relations (no one outside the fraternity understands why learners need to make the "noise" they do on practice night! then this film is ideally suited.

1 must say that the machinations of the Central Council and its Education Committee are quite beyond me as they are to many others in the ringing fraternity. The recent Great Adventure II to Australia apparently received no endorsement whatever from the Council as one example, and "Ringers Required" has likewise received no mention whatever yet at the Central Council's meeting in Cardiff one was amused to hear how the "ignorant" proposed that the Council should sponsor a similar finm! The only recommendation made there was that this film was the best "yet" that had been offered. Might I suggest that the "yet" might last this century unless the Council has $£ 5.000$ to spare! It is not of course too late for the Council to show its endorsement of "Ringers Required" if it wishes to do so.-Yours sincerely,

THE TRELAWNEY FAMILY
Dear Sir,-Mr. Wratten's article is very interesting. In suggesting that their course of Grandsire Cinques "in hand" has probably never been equalled by any family since, be probably overlooked one by the late Mr. J. W. Washbrook and his four sons (Mr Washbrook ringing 7, 8, 9 and 10 , which Mr J . G. Nash, of Hornsey, recalled in these columns about a year ago.-Yours sincerely, 10, Kings Close, Crayford.

GREAT ADVENTURE II
The Last Day At Sydney

$\mathbf{A}^{\mathbf{s}}$S regards ringing, there were two objectives before the tourists on Monday, October 4 th -to see if the bells of St. Benedict's (R C) were ringable and to ring a peal at St. Mary's Basilica, where the 1934 Great Adventurers were successful
St. Benedict's presented a picture of neglect and the bells were very rough. To everybody s surprise, a course of Cambridge Surprise Minor was successfully brought round. The tenor of 16 cwt .. in the opinion of Pat. went like is bell of 38 cut. and the ropes were in a poor condition. A weird effect was produced by the third, which was rung by the man standing on the ton of a four foot cupboard The Cambridge was rung hy Rev. Malcolm Melville 1. L. Stilwell 2, R. Clark 3, T. J. Lock 4, W. Watson 5, A. P. Cannon 6, and unquestionably it was the first on the bells. Plain Bob was also rung The church authorities were interested in the visit and permission has been granted to effect improvements. There are no resident ringers here, the bells being rung on an average of once a year.
The bells of St. Marys had been placed at the disposal of the ringers between 1 and 5 p.m., but the actual time was not generally known. After a leisurely lunch, the band arrived at the Cathedral about 1.45 p.m. and an hour was spent among the bells and in rope adjustments. Cambridge Surprise Major was started by L. Stilwell 1, W. Williams (conductor) 2, Miss E. L. Roberts 3, J. Fryer 4, W. Watson 5, C. W Pipe 6, T. J. Lock 7, A. P. Cannon 8. After ringing about two courses at about 23 to the minute, a message was brought to the band that there was a Mass at 5 p.m. and that activities would have to stop at that hour. A halt was called and it was decided to go for a quarter of Cambridge. This was not achieved. In the evening, Monday being St. Mary's practice night, there was more ringing and touches

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

North Lindsey's Joint Meeting

A very successful joint meeting of the North Lindsey Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild and the Beverley and District Society was held at Burton-on-Stather on October 2nd. The attendance of ringers from the East Riding of Yorkshire, 25 in all, was most satisfactory and several of the Lincoln Guild members very kindly provided car transport from New Holland and return for 15 people who crossed the Humber by ferry. This gesture was much appreciated.

The light ring of eight bells was rung from 2.30 p.m. to a large variety of methods, and the Branch Ringing Master, Mr. M. Crowder, ensured that all present had an opportunity to ring.
The Lincoln Guild form of service was used. and the Vicar (the Rev. W. T. Armstrong) complimented the congregation on the enthusiasm of the singing. In place of the sermon he read amusing extracts about ancient bells and ringing customs from a book written by an author under the pseudonym ${ }^{\circ}$ Bob Major." The lesson was read by the Rev. F. Ross, of Hessle.

Some 62 people enjoyed tea in the Church Hall and before the short business meeting Mr. J. Bray, Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, whose death had beel reported earlier in the week. Mr. Bray also extended a very hearty welcome to the members of the Beverley Society. Mr. Kirk, president of the Beverley Socieiy, responded and had a special word of thanks for those who had a special word of thanks or those who had provided Mransport from and to Mew who provided tea.
of Bristol, London and Lincolnshire were highlights of a successful evening
$£ 1.000$ FROM WEDDINGS
Also in the afternoon some went to Parramatta to ring for a wedding. St. Paul's is a noted church for marriages. The band here are ambitious : they want the six recast. a new frame, and two trebles added. The cost holds no fears. Money received from weddings is donated to the Bell Fund and in 15 months over $£ 1.000$ has been raised I There is no denying that the bells. upon which a number of peals has been rung, warrant drastic action.
A farewell supper social started at Enid Roberts' flat about 9.30 p.m. Champagne was provided by Arthur Mason to commemorate his 500 th peal. Eats were supplied by Enid. Sandra Clark, Sue Wright and Marilyn Milson. Canon Thurlow's message of good wishes was played and also recordings of Leicester Cathedral bells (half-muffied), Evercreech and the time signal, North Mymms and Harrow-on-theHill bells. Time passed rapidly and while the elderly retired about midnight, it was after $3 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. before the more virile members were ready to "call it a day."
A cavalcade of cars assembled before 10 a.m. at Beauregard Hotel to take the party into the city and afterwards to the airport. Fast friendships had been made and Sydney ringers regretted that the "Great Adventure. had come to an end as so much in the way of ringing had been unfulfilled. But
New Zealand was calling and in $3 \pm$ hours the 1,400 miles had been traversed and we had landed at Wellington, the capital, alas without ringable bells at the old Cathedral, but a carillon in a detached tower in the centre of the city. The change of planes could bave been avoided as there is a direct service between Christchurch and Sydney. Opportunity was taken for a sightseeing tour by taxi.

DEDICATION

BENTLEY COMMON

St. Paul's, Bentley Common, was one of three churches within a three-mile radius of Brentwood possessing a ring of five bells until October 17th, when, at Matins, the Archdeacon of Southend dedicated a new treble bell to make a light ring of six.
A good congregation, including a number of ringers, nearly filled the church for the service, which was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. D. O. R. Parry. The Archdeacon preached the sermon, which was relevant to bellingets.
For the dedication ceremony the new bell sounded seven times and immediately after the service, as the congregation were leaving the church, the Sunday service band rang their first courses of Plain Bob Minor in public.
From then on the bells were available for general ringing with a break for an excellent general ricken lunch provided by the local band cold chice and lady helpers. At the end of the lunch the Tower Master. Mr. R. J. Brown, made an amusing speech, detailing how the money had been raised by jumble sales, sales of work. beetle drives, etc., and expressing sincere and grateful thanks to all who had contributed in one way or another towards the augmentation of the bells. Special thanks were expressed to the secretary of the Bentley band. Miss B Fisher. without whose hard work it would have been impossible to have had the new treble instal!ed this vear.
Mr. H. Turner, Deputy Master of the Fssex Association, and Mr C . Willmington, Master of the South-Western District of the Essex Association, suitably ieplied.
The bells were kepi going continuously throughout the afternoon by various visiting ringers, and the general opinion was that Mears and Stainbank had done a good job and the bells are now a nice light handy ring of six.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM

The first striking competition organised by the officers of the St. Martin's Guild, held at Handsworth, attracted more ringers than is usual at a quarterly meeting. The high standard of ringing encouraged by the competition seemed also to raise the standard of the open ringing which look place after the meeting. New members elected included P. Gay (Perry Barr), R. J. Weekes and J. W. Belshaw (Yardley), R. Inman, R. Liggins and J. Pettigrew (Aston), R. Hutchings and Miss M. Hutchings (Knowle) and F. Cole (Erdington Abbey). The following tower elections as life members were duly ratified: Miss H. A. Arrowsmith (Bearley), D E Rothera (Hendon), A. H. Smith (Biggleswade). J. G. Gipson (Royston). R. S. Starkie (Rochdale) and C. M. Press (Walton-on-Thames).
It was formally proposed that the Henry Johnson Dinner should be held at the Imperial Hotel on March Sth; and it was decided to invite Mr. John Chilcott to take the chair at this function.
The judges of the striking competition were Messrs. P. Border and R. W. Pipe ; and the hand with the least number of faults was Erdington Abbey, who rang a good touch of Stedman Triples.

Notices of motion were received for alteration of rules at the annual meeting, the first to allow for a trophy for competition winners, and the second for a Guild member's badge. The next meeting (annual): St. Martin's on January 1st.

STAFFORD ARCHDEACONRY SOCIETY

The Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Enville, which has Norman nave arches but a modern Somerset-style tower, was the destination for the meeting of the Society on October 16th. Enville is an attractive country village, although only a few miles from the Black Country, and its inhabitants have heard elght hells from the church since. Taylor's recast the sixth and augmented the ring in 1876 . There was originally a ring of six bells by Abraham Rudhall Junior of 1718, but in modern times, 1938. the tenor has been recast and all bells rehung by Mears and Stainbank. This newest bell weighs 134 cwt. in $E$.
Members brought their own tea, and the service was conducted by the Rev. C. H. Barker, of nearby Swindon, who has been a member of the Society since 1913 and was for many years hon. clerical secretary.

Towers are asked to forward their subscriptions as soon as possible to the hon. treasurer: annual reports are now available.
Next full meeting at Wednesbury on January 22nd (provisional); an eight-bell competition on June 11th. $\dot{\text { C. M. S. }}$

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

St. Albans District

All twelve cars managed 10 find their way to Nomansland Common on October 2nd for the District car rally, but several drivers lost points on questions on the Highway Code and cars. Sheets of directions and questions were handed out and soon the cars were heading across country towards Hemel Hempstead. All was well until a misprint caused confusion-it must have looked amusing from the air to see the same cars going round the Hemel Industrial Estate looking for a non-existent bridge! Once past Hemel it was still across counery looking for clues.
Those who got completely lost or ran out of time eventually had to open their envelopes to find that the destination was Chenies. All arrived safely-even if some only just made tea ! When the results were announced, Ged Penney and Eric Edmondson were first with high marks. Steve Darvill and crew came second, and Geoff and Betty Fost and hound third. Thanks went to the organisers, Jonathan Chamberlain and Geoff and Joyce Dodds for an enjoyable day. The District managed to get to Rickmansworth for an hour's ringing after tea.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION Northern Division's Striking

Competition

The wind at Cowfold on October 30th held up the start of the striking competition. The judges' listening post was to have been in the schoolroom, but with the wind in the south-west the sound of the bells was on the wrong track, so a move was made to a ca: on the other side of the church. Here the main ruad traffic proved to be too much Another move was made to the inside of the churrh, and here the bells could hardly be heard. Finally, the judges settled in the porch, where the sound was hetter but the wind and cold a lot worse !
Once started, the competition was kept going smoothly by the organiser, Mr. G. Francis. Danehill were the first in the "ring." followed by Cuckfield, Horsham, Withyham. Crawley, Balcombe and Warnham. The striking throughout was a credit to all the bands, and the query was raised as to why the striking at the usual monthly meetings was of such a poor standard compared with the ringing which had just been heard.
The competition ended. a short service was held (taken by the Vicar), after which tea was served in the Village Hall, where justice was done to a splendid meal provided by the ladies of several of the Divisional towers. The judges' verdict gave Warnham as the winners and Danehil! a very close second.
The judging was in the very capable hands of Mr. E A. Barnett and Mr. G. Cecil (a past Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths and the Sussex County Association). who were duly thanked for their services and for the valuable advice offered to the bands

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN Cary Branch

To mark their recent marriage, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. M. Hill, of Ditcheat. were presented with a cheque at the Cary Branch meeting at Charlton Horethorne on October 23 rd . Mr. Hill is the Branch Ringing Master.

Members stood in silence in memory of the late Mr. Joseph T. Dyke. The Branch chairman, the Rev. G. S. Robinson, conducted the service, and he, the local captain and the ladies who had prepared tea were thanked by Preb. O. H. Skipwith.

Chew Deanery Branch

Instead of floral tributes, donations were invited towards the fabric of Downside Church in connection with the passing of Mr. Joseph T. Dyke. and for this purpose a retiring collection was taken at Portishead, where the Chew Deanery held its quarterly meeting on October 23rd. The Rector, the Rev. Roger O. Fry. who succeeded Dr. Dyke as general secretary of the Association, conducted the service. Four new members from Portishead and seven from Publow were elected November practice meeting, Nailsea ; annual, Yatton (provisional).

A LINCOLNSHIRE OUTING

A party of ringers from North and West Lincolnshire visited towers in four countiesRutland, Leicestershire, Mottinghamshire and South Lincolnshire on October 9th.

Exton belfry was found to be sadly neglected, and at Empingham (a pleasant-toned six) Norwich was attempted. Local ringers greeted the party at Wymondham, where the renor was rather a handful. A packed lunch followed.
Numbers were reinforced at Bottesford, where Grandsire and Double Norwich were rung. The best kept belfry of the tour was Whatton-in-the-Vale - " homely and comfortable." After tea at the Chequers Inn, Denton Church, under the shadow of massive Belvoir Castle, was visited. The bells here are badly in need of repair. Ringing ended at Barrowby and refreshments were provided at the Rectory by the Rev. Mr. Gaymer-Harris and his wife, formerly of Gainsborough. Mr. John Underwood is thanked for arranging such an enjoyable outing.

OBITUARY

MR. FREDERICK FRENCH

Mr. Frederick French, of Bourne. Lincs. an old South Lincolnshire ringer, died on October 27th at the Butterfield Hospital, Bourne, aged 73. Although his health had not been good for some years, it was only recently that he had to relinquish ringing

He learned to handle a bell at an early age at Market Deeping, where he was born. For 45 years he was a railway signalman. mainly at Bourne. A good churchman, he was closely linked with Bourne Abbey as a ringer and chorister for over 40 years, and was also verger and steeplekeeper for the last was also verger and steeplekeeper for the last 15 years. He rang approximately 100 peals mostly Surprise Minor, including one of 28 methods under the able leadership of the late Mr. J. W. Lake

Ringers from Thurlby, Rippingale, Folkingham and Bourne attended the funeral service at the Abhey Church conducted by the Rector, Canon Lawrence. As the coffin left the church for cremation, the Abbey bells, which he loved so well, rang out half-muffled to a quarter peal of Minor. Fred will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Sympathy is extended to his widow.

MRS. EDITH K. FLETCHER

The ashes of Mrs. Edith K. Fletcher were laid to rest in Yarmouth Churchyard by Canon Gilbert Thurlow on October 29th. Her name will be recorded in the Book of Remembrance in St. Nicholas' Church, Yarmouth.

MR. WILLIAM AMBLER

Ringing at Queensbury, Yorkshire, had reached a low ebb by the end of the First World War but a young ringer, returning to his native village from the armed forces, collected a band of men of his own genera: tion and, with little or no outside help, taught them the mysteries of change ringing. His name was William Ambler (affectionately the driving force which kept ringing at Queensbury at a high standard. Not a prolific peal ringer, judged by present day numbers, he rang 171 peals- 81 of which he conducted. A performance of which he was particularly proud was a peal of Bob Major, rung on April 7th, 1923, by the band he had taught. It was his first as conductor and their first by six of the band.

Some 14 years ago, however, a chest complaint put an end to his practical ringing but he never lost interest in the art: he was happy with his books and occasionally he struggled up the tower steps to watch his pupils at the ropes. He died on November 4 th. The funeral service was held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Queensbury. At the close of the service and before the cortege left for the crematorium a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells bv John Ambler. Vernon Bottomley, William Barton and Sam Longbottom. The tower bells were rung half-muffled before and after the service by riaging friends from neighbouring towers.
Although he was a martinet in the fower and forthright in expressing his views, Billv was highly respected for he had a kind and generous disposition. He served for two separate periods as secretary of the Western District of the Yorkshire Association with a total service of 12 years. So popular was he that when ill-health caused him to retire finally in 1951 the members of the Western District presented him with a gold pocket watch as a token of their esteem and as a mark of appreciation of all the work he had done for ringing and for the Yorkshire Association.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. R. J. Purnell writes that his claim for most methods for the Salisbury Diocesan Guild referred to Doubles. The omission is regretted.
A new Doubles methods/variations record has been set up by the band conducted by George A. Dawson, of Carlton, Nottingham. At South Collingham on November 8th a peal of 135 methods/variations was rung. As a preliminary they rang on November 4th at North Muskham one of 126 methods/ variations.

Mr. K. S. B. Croft, of Southampton, has been awarded a schoolmaster studentship at Trinity Hall, Cambridge, for the summer term. He will thus be able to resume his active association with the Cambridge University Guild.

Normal ringing has been resumed at St. Peter's. Dorchester, Dorset, on Sundays at $10.15 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and Tuesdays at 7.30 p.m. Applications from visiting bands to the Rector.

The peal at Aughton, Lancs, on November loth, to welcome the new Rector, the Rev. Leslie Eyres, coincided with the 30 th anniversary of the first peal on the bells. His hospitality afterwards was much appreciated by the band.

Mr. G. E. Bonham asks us to state that the peal at Trumpington on May 22nd was Capt. Marybelle Nissly's first peal of Major inside."

HAVE 10 BELLS

The Presbytery of St. Cuthbert's Church, Edinburgh, have passed plans for the installation of two new treble bells to augment the fine ring of eight to ten. The reason behind the augmentation proposal is to provide a light ring of six, as the many ladies in the band find the back bells heavy for them to ring for any length of time. The contract has been olaced with Messrs. John Taylor and Co., but it is too early to state when the job will be completed. In a quarter of Triples reported this week four of the tower's ladies rang. This was in honour of the important appointment of the minister, Dr. R. Leonard Small, as the new Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

AN OLD BLUE

Dear Sir,-ln reply to R. W. H. Hayes (page 723) I would like to say that I am an Old Blue. I was at Christ's Hospital, Hert ford, from 1954 to 1961, and although there was no possibility of ringing during termtime, 1 knew several girls who were interested in ringing. I learned to ring at North Ocken. don, Essex. and am now a member of the band at St. Andrew's, Hornchurch.-Youn sincerely, (MISS) K. MURPHY.

THE WASHINGTON PEAL

Highlights of the Washington peal of Stedman Caters rung by a band of ten English ringers, who flew across the Atlantic spectally to ring for the opening of the Cathedral bells, are now preserved for all time. Record Books have placed on the market a 12 in . L.P. record. which lasts 40 minutes, of parts of the peal and also comments by Mr. Douglas Hughes about this enterprising journey and recordings of their rehearsal at St. Giles', Cripplegate, and of their handbell ringing.

Recently at a lunch at the Russell Hotel, London, the publishers of Record Books met Mr. Douglas Hughes, Mr. John Chilcott (the conductor of the peal) and Mr. E. A. Barnett (secretary of the Central Council) and others interested in the production to give the new venture an appropriate send-off.
Since then an initial order of 100 copies of the record has been received from Washington and from other parts including Calgary. Details are advertised in this issue.

ARCHDEACONRY OF HALIFAX GUILD

It was the privilege of the Archdeaconry of Halifax Guild to welcome the joint council of Ringing Societies to its first meeting at St. Stephen's, Lindley, on November 6th. To Mr. P. Birkett's greetings and good wishes Mr. E. Hudson, of Ripon, replied. The Revs. C Coatham and F. Winderbank conducted the service and Mr. A. W. Bond provided tea.

The new learners band at Lindley was wished every success and appeals for help on practice nights were made by most local towers. Advance notice of the Ringing Festival to be held at Beverley on May 21 st was given by Mr. D. Smith.

The very good ringing of Surprise methods was little changed by the fixing of Mr. Bond's silencers, which enabled ringing to continue until 9 p.m.
Methad for next meeting: Double Norwich.

THE ANCIENT SOCIETY OF COLLEGE YOUTHS

At the business meeting of the Ancient Society of College Youths held on November 9th, the resignation of John Chilcott as secretary was received with great regret, and tributen were paid to the outstanding services he has rendered to the Society during his period of office. His resignation has become inevitable because of increasing business commitments.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are: Master. Mr. John D Rock: secretary, Mr. James G. A Prior: treasurer, Mr C G. J. Watts: senior steward. Mr. Alan J. Frost: junior steward, Mr. Philip A. Corby. trustees. Mr. J. Frank Smallwood and Mr Ernest G. Fenn; librarian, Mr. William T. Cook. The address of the new secretary is: 21a, Fieldhouse Road, London, S.W. 12.
Group Captain J S. Mason and Messrs. W. Williams, C. G. J. Watts and W. T Cook were elected Central Council representatives.

At the next business meeting of the Society. which is to be held at the Rising Sun. Carter Lane, E.C., at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, December 7th, it is hoped to make a presentation to John Chilcott in recognition of his work. 3.S.P.

WEDDING BELLS FOR MR. W. ERIC CRITCHLEY

The Doncaster ringers rang a quarter peal on November 4th at St. Mary's Church, Campsall, in honour of the wedding of their Master, Mr. W. Eric Critchley, to Miss Dorothy Stocks. Mr. Critchley has been a member of the Central Council since 1951, representing the Yorkshire Association, and his ability is recognised by his appointment as convener of the Peals Collection Committee.

TWO BISHOPS CONSECRATED AT CHESTER

At the Chester Diocesan Guild dinner the Bishop of Chester expressed the hope that as many bells as possible would be rung on Sunday, November 7th, the occasion of the consecration by the Archbishop of York in Chester Cathedral of the first ever Bishop of Birkenhead (Canon Eric Mercer, former Rector of St. Mary's-within-the-Walls, Chester) and the new Bishop of Stockport (the Rev. Gordon Street).

The bells of Chester Cathedral are ununringable. To commemorate this double consecration two peals were attempted at Chester that day. At St. Mary's-within-theWalls a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major was rung in 2 hours 58 minutes by a representative band from the Grappenhall Branch. The other attempt, at St. Mary's-without-theWalls, was not successful. An attempt for a peal of Bob Major was lost after two hours and 15 minutes.
Another peal was rung at Port Sunlight, and among the quarters received were those at Birkenhead and West Kirby.
