A COLOURFUL CHARACTER IN LONDON RINGING

Mr. William H. Hewett

TALKING to "The Times" in 1959, the late Mr. A. A. Hughes gave as his only regret the disappearance of the "odd, colourful characters we used to have years ago." The death of William H. Hewett has removed probably the last of them from the London scene. A taxi-driver for many years, with a dry sense of humour, he could keep one amused for hours with stories of some of his fares. Despite a reputation of never being on time for a peal he was a splendid ringer and conductor, who figured in the "Leading Conductors" series in this journal, on April 7th, 1939 (a series which could well be reprinted for its historic interest alone).

He deserves to be remembered for several reasons. He rang at Westminster Abbey on Armistice Day, 1918, the last time the old six were rung. In fact one bell, I am told, could only be chimed — the Abbey bells at that time were hardly ever used. He criticised this state of affairs so effectively to the Abbey authorities that his advice was sought soon afterwards by Sir Edward Knapp-Fisher, and it was not long before there was an announcement made that an anonymous donor, later revealed as Lord Lee of Fareham (who also presented "Chequers" to the nation), was giving a new ring of eight to the Abbey. It was also Mr. Hewett's suggestion that the Kent County Association's memorial to members who died in the first World War should take the form of the addition of two trebles to the then ten at Canterbury Cathedral; and he must be given the credit of being the first to advocate the holding of joint meetings between Associations.

In Bill Hewett's heyday St. Margaret's had an excellent band, most of them doubtless now forgotten by the Exercise in general but, in my time, men like Reuben Sanders, a superb heavy-bell ringer and striker who died earlier this year; James E. Davis, with over 1,000 peals to his name; George M. Kilby, one of the band who pioneered Spliced Surprise Major ringing beyond the four standard methods; and Edwin F. Pike, a gentle character for whom somehow everyone felt sorry. I recall being taken by my father to a practice there, about 1931, when Pudsey Royal was being practised, an almost unheard of method in those days (Mr. Hewett in fact called the first peal of it). One of the band set up towards the end of a course because that was where his diagram had run out and he hadn't realised he had only to reverse an earlier part of it! Times change — but no band would ring St. Margaret's bells better today, if as well.

Others will, I believe, write of his ringing career, but one or two highlights are worth mentioning. His peal total at the time of the 1939 article was 465, of which he had conducted 91, so that in all he must have rung over 500. These included 7,392 Cambridge Maximus and 10,440 Cambridge Royal. About half his peals were on ten or twelve bells; at the other end of the scale was the first peal on the pre-Reformation five at St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield. But it is for his long and devoted service to St. Margaret's, Westminster, that he will most be remembered by those who knew him.

THE PEAL BOOKS

The Peal Books of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association of Church Bell Ringers, by a decision made at the annual meeting held at Berkeley in 1965, are now discontinued and with the exception of the record peal of 143 Minor methods rung at Castle Eaton on December 2nd, 1963, the last entry is a peal of Doubles rung at Great Barrington on December 27th, 1958. This was the 2,720th peal for the Association, thus there are recorded 2,721 peals in the eleven volumes.

Until the late A. E. Reeves became peal secretary in 1934 the writing up of the peals had not been done by the peal secretary; in fact, there is no record of any peal secretary until 1921 when G. Condict of Bristol became the first holder of the office. In that year peal fees and affiliation by Parochial Church Councils were also instituted. Peals had been written up before 1921, by the end of 1920 there had been rung for the Association 1,020 peals and of these only 200 had been written, the work being done by one, John Beams, who would appear to have continued doing it until 1929. I know nothing of John Beams, who he was or where he lived, but he did do a good job of writing.

In 1922 Albert Wright, who lived at Pitchcombe, Stroud, took office and continued until his death in November, 1934; he did not himself write up any of the peals.

It was in 1934 that Alf Reeves took on the job, of catching up on what must have been a large number of unwritten peals, and his last entry in the books was a peal at Newland, in the Forest of Dean, dated 25th April, 1957; it was of Minor and was peal No. 2,626. The books were then right up to date and the job was handed over, a work well done, a lasting memorial to a great man. Alf Reeves was succeeded by F. S. Wilton, who held the office for five years, during which period 354 peals were rung, but of these only 58 were entered in the book.

Eric Sutton took on the formidable task in 1962 of trying to catch up on these arrears, but by the date of the A.G.M. in 1965, when Mrs. Wratten became peal secretary, another 320 peals had been rung, and there were now 616 peals which had not been written up, with the rate of peals still increasing.

The Management Committee gave a lot of thought to the problem, Eric Sutton was willing to go on writing, and the A.G.M. were to be recommended to agree that when the present book became full the writing up should cease but the A.G.M. thought that it was too much to expect, and decided to stop at once; their resolution is written into the book, it is the end of a long and beautiful work.

The books had at one time been kept in the Vestry of St. Thomas's Church in Bristol, and in 1930 the Association spent £4 10s. 0d. on a steel cabinet and the books were transferred to the basement of Church House, Bristol, where they were locked up, out of sight, and available for inspection only on application to the Association's secretary. I was only asked once for the key, and once went myself to inspect and dust the books. In later years one of the books had always been on show at the annual meetings, generally the one in use at the time. At one time I kept a book at Churchdown, and by a letter to "The Ringing World" made it known that anyone could see it there, but no one came.

Now the books have been deposited into the care of the City of Bristol Archives, and when St. Nicholas' Church becomes a museum it is hoped that one volume will be on display there. The books remain the property of the Association, and are available for inspection at reasonable hours by any member of the public—it would be best if possible to make prior application to The Bristol City Archives Office, The Council House, Bristol, quoting No. 24,701.

There are eleven books covering (1) 1879-1897, (2) 1897-1902, (3) 1902-1909, (4) 1909-1917, (5) 1917-1919 and some between 1886-1889, as well as a "Toll of the Great War". The next six volumes are all styled "New Series" and are numbered I to VI. They contain: (6) 1919-1924, (7) 1924-1928, (8) 1928-1935, (9) 1935-1947, (10) 1947-1952, (11) 1952-1958.

The first cost of a peal book that I have been able to find was £2 15s. 0d. in 1925, but that was not the first volume; in 1951 the last of the books cost £16 14s. 9d. and a very conservative estimate of the price today would be in the region of £50. On one occasion I had to send a volume by post, and it was insured for £1,000 just in case. It is hoped that now that the books are available many more will avail themselves of the opportunity to examine the work of Alfred Reeves and the others who have done so much work for the G. and B. Association.

CHARLES ROUSE, Hon. Secretary.

COLLEGE YOUTHS' 329th ANNIVERSARY DINNER

A YEAR OF GREAT ACHIEVEMENTS REVIEWED—GIFT OF HANDBELLS—PRAISE TO THE CUMBERLANDS—ONLY LADY MEMBER & HUSBAND HAVE 49 YEARS MEMBERSHIP

A YEAR of exceptionally brilliant ringing was reported to the Ancient Society of College Youths at its 329th anniversary dinner at the Albert Restaurant, Albert Embankment, London, on November 5th. A capacity attendance of 204 welcomed the Master, Mr. J. D. Rock, as he was escorted to his seat by Mr. A. J. Frost, senior steward.

Peals reported included:

Cambridge Maximus, St. Paul's Cathedral;
Cambridge Maximus, Liverpool Cathedral,
at which Peter Border rang the tenor single-handed;

Three peals of Stedman Cinques rung
simultaneously in the City of London;
Cambridge Maximus at Manchester Town Hall.

According to custom, the Master proposed the toast of "The Church" and welcomed the company to "Swinging London" and expressed the hope that when closing time came it would not be too "swinging."

There was some significance about the year —66, he said. It was in 1066 that Edward the Confessor built Westminster Abbey, and in 1666 there was the Great Fire of London. 1966 would be remembered as the year the College Youths left the Bridge House for their annual dinner. They would return to the City of London next year and had already booked Bucklersbury House in the heart of the City of London.

He made no apology for associating ringing with a toast of "The Church." He considered that their meetings and organisation was as much a part of the Church as some of the other activities. In the past it had been considered that their ringing was a little divorced from the Church. With that he entirely disagreed. All of them owed a tremendous duty to the Church and as ringers their interests were centred around the life of the Church.

He was a parson's son and purposely he had taken wine with the clergy and the sons of clergy present. He did so because since the age of ten his main interest apart from work had been in bells. He recalled that in 1942 Leslie Evans in Herefordshire got about eight young men and taught them to ring, and they had a wonderful time cycling around visiting the churches.

ACHIEVEMENT

The great benefit of ringing was the thrill and satisfaction of achieving something. Many of them worked in humble jobs that did not give them much satisfaction, but they did ring and obtained a great sense of satisfaction from it. "There is nothing more satisfying than completing a really good peal. It might be quite ordinary but when it happened it was well worth it."

In ringing they met a lot of interesting people and they were pleased to have with them that night George Fearn, the only man alive to ring 2,000 peals. There was also Peter Border, who had turned in Liverpool tenor to a peal single-handed, and Pat Cannon, who had probably rung a combined total of different towers to peals and peals more than any other man. There were also some who they missed at this gathering who were no longer with them—Ernest Fenn, who was Master of the Society for seven years, and the cheerful face of Reginald Dennis.

The Ven. Martin Sullivan, Archdeacon of London, replied and said quite a number of people in the City of London told him that he was an Australian. When he replied that he was a New Zealander they commented that they lived close together. There were 1,800 miles of sea between them. If one told a Scotsman that he was Welsh and it did not matter as they lived close together there would be a strong protest.

The Archdeacon said he rang bells in his youth, but it was not scientific ringing but rounds and hymns. For 329 years their

THE MASTER, MR. J. D. ROCK

Society had been sending out the message of sound over city and countryside week by week and they would never know how many hearts had been stirred by that message. Their service was one of the imponderables.

FAMILY CONNECTION

The toast of "The Ancient Society of College Youths" was proposed by Mr. W. A. Hughes, of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry, who said that many members of his family, both past and present, had taken a close interest in the Society's activities. Some of them might remember that his father was for many years a treasurer of the Society and also a Past Master, and his father before him was likewise a treasurer and a Past Master.

"My other grandfather, W. D. Smith, was also a Past Master," continued Mr. Hughes, "and, strange to relate, his father and one of his grandfathers were members of the other London Society—the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths."

When founded, change ringing was practised as a sport, but over the years it had become more closely bound in the service of the Church. He believed that the vast majority of ringers would agree that it must be the fundamental principal behind their activities. Although territorial and diocesan associations had been formed to cover most areas in the country, their Society held a unique position among ringers, with a membership drawn from all parts of the country and abroad. The success of their Society relied on the hard work of the officers and the enthusiasm of the members, and it was remarkable that since 1892 it had had only four secretaries and the last had only just completed his first year of office.

Mr. J. G. A. Prior, making his first reply as secretary, followed in traditional lines by reporting on the year's activities. He said they had thought that the unexpected change of venue and the inevitable increase in the price of tickets would have led to a marked decrease in the attendance, but their fears were groundless and the number present that night of 204 was well up to standard.

APOLOGIES

These had been received from Bishop Wand, Dean of Westminster, Canons Gilbert Thurlow and M. Stancliffe, the Revs. J. McCulloch and N. Motley, Messrs. Nelson, Sloan, George Symonds, T. G. Fox, Albert Tyler, Harry Miles, Henry Hodgetts, A. York-Bramble, A.

Richards, W. Moreton, F. E. Hansford, Comdr. Tim Watt and George Pipe. Henry Hodgetts, now 83, mentioned dinners at the Bridge House more than 60 years ago, which were like Lord Mayors' banquets and tickets were only 3s. 6d. each.

Since the last meeting they had elected 32 new members, viz., H. E. McDonald, Victoria, Australia; M. R. Ashmore, Harrow; S. G. Scott, Bracknell; D. Kirk Stedman, Sussex; H. R. Thomas, Brecon; M. T. Johns, Brecon; B. Rogers, Walton-on-Thames; J. R. Dyke, Wallingford; A. M. Faulkner, Woodford; A. D. Sansom, Cranford; D. L. Cawley, Whitstable; M. J. Uphill, Putney; M. C. Hughes, Knowle; C. T. Hills, Willesborough; J. Davidge, Epsom; P. G. Brown, Chelmsford; R. Aldington, King's Norton; T. J. Warner, Olton; R. A. Hunt, Ruskington; F. Shawcross, Ashton-under-Lyne; J. Ker-shaw, Walsden; J. A. Ainsworth, Halesowen; M. J. Hiller, Bradpole; D. F. Moore, Birstall; A. J. Martin, Oxtou; C. Bryant, Whipton; H. Russell, Perth, W.A.; J. Cloughton, Ringwood; E. Hudson, Sharow; K. Fleming, Ampthill; M. Marriott, Bedford; E. W. Harrison, Newcastle upon Tyne.

NOTABLE PEALS

"It has often been said that we are not a peal ringing Society but each year the secretary reports quite a healthy crop of peals. This year we have recorded a total of 32 peals, including some of more than usual interest. In December last there was a peal of Bristol at Westminster Abbey to mark the beginning of the Abbey's 900th anniversary year, and those who know the Abbey bells will appreciate that this was a fine performance, especially by the tenor man, Jack Crampion. There is to be another peal attempt at the Abbey to mark the close of the anniversary year. In March there was a peal of Cambridge Maximus at St. Paul's Cathedral, the first of Maximus there for very many years, to which John and Michael Chilcott rang the tenor in splendid style."

In July, to mark the City of London Festival, three peals of Stedman Cinques were rung simultaneously and for the most part the bands consisted of members who regularly ring in the City.

"In August, at Liverpool Cathedral, there took place what must surely rank as the finest heavy bell performance in living memory, perhaps of all time, the ringing of a peal of Cambridge Maximus with Peter Border on the tenor (Applause.) We are very proud of the fact that the peal was rung for the Society and tonight we would like to offer to Peter and the rest of the band our sincere congratulations."

In October there was a peal of Cambridge Maximus at Manchester Town Hall in honour of the 84th birthday of Lester Gray. "We are delighted to have Lester with us tonight looking as spry and youthful and as cheeky as ever." At St. Giles, Cripplegate, also in October, the Society rang a peal of Spliced Surprise Maximus in four methods, the first to be rung in London.

OBITUARY

The company stood while the following who had died during the year were remembered: H. F. Ashley, Bulkington (joined 1950); James Brackley, Old Woking (1951); Vincent T. Cherrill, Reading (1946); Alfred J. Clayton, Beddington (1900); Peter Crook, sen., Bolton (1924); Peter S. Davis, South Croydon (1952); T. Reginald Dennis, Cambridge (1911); Ernest G. Fenn, Barking (1899); Colin Harrison, Loughborough (1928); William H. Hewett, Camberwell (1915); Leslie C. W. Hunter, Chilworth (1962); John Pinfold, King's Norton (1944); Albert J. Pitman, Port Talbot (1949); Herbert G. Pratt, Croydon (1919); Thomas Rogers, Wallasey (1953); Reuben Sanders, Balham (1916); Kenneth Snelling, Crawley (1936); A. Paddon Smith, Birmingham (1921);

Hobart E. Smith, Ipswich (1942); John W. Ward, Melbourn, Cambs (1930).

After referring to the highly successful meeting in Gloucestershire, arranged by Mr. Leslie Barry, the secretary said that for next year they had accepted the invitation of Tom Chapman to go to Northamptonshire.

GIFT OF HANDBELLS

"During the year we have had the splendid gift of a set of 12 handbells, arranged for tune tapping, in a special case, which are a link with Matthew A Wood, who was Master of the Society over a hundred years ago. We had no knowledge of the existence of these handbells until Mrs. H. K. Nicoll, last surviving daughter of Matthew Wood, now an old lady of over 90, wrote to Whitechapel Bell Foundry to say that she would like to present the bells to the Society. Needless to say we were delighted to accept the gift and the handbells are here tonight for your inspection. They have been cleaned and put into good order by Mears and Stainbank, who have also had a commemorative plaque affixed to the lid. It is interesting to note that the bells were ordered for Mrs. Nicoll by Matthew A Wood, who was Master in 1856 and 1859 from Mr. Arthur Hughes, the then head of the foundry, who was Master in 1907, and that there is a note in the case written by Mr W. D. Smith, who was Master in 1891, 1903 and 1904. Mr. Arthur Hughes and Mr. W. D. Smith were the grandfathers of Bill and Douglas Hughes. We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Nicoll for her gift and to Bill and Douglas for the work they have done."

Concluding, Mr. Prior mentioned the golden wedding of Frank and Elsie Hairs, who were both members of the Society. Never before had such an event taken place and under the present rules there could not be another. Only nine ladies had been elected to membership and Mrs. Hairs was the only survivor. They all hoped they would be present at next year's dinner when both of them would have completed 50 years' membership, each having joined in 1917.

Mr. P. A. Corby proposed "The Visitors and Kindred Societies" and said "bearing in mind the recent article in 'The Ringing World' it had been suggested that a soulful rendering of 'Come into the garden, Maud' would more readily fit in with the mood of the evening than an ill-starred attempt to cover up the blatant and piratical speech-preaching activities of the top brass."

CAMPANOLOGICAL CAULDRON

In thanking Canon G. R. Dunstan for the hospitality on St. Benedict's Day at Westminster Abbey, Mr. Corby said this would be the last time the Canon would be with them in his present capacity as superintendent of the belfry, Westminster Abbey. He was shortly moving into the wild and uncharted Midlands to become Canon Theologian of Leicester Cathedral. During this special year at the Abbey the lid of the campanological cauldron had been slightly lifted and Canon Dunstan had been able to see, no doubt to his intense horror, that there were a few misguided ringers who offered their loyalty to ringing organisations other than the Society. Alas, at Leicester he would find that the gullible natives had been subjected to the proselytising activities of some who should be nameless, but were not entirely unconnected with the present toast.

"However, from the proper grounding in the true faith that he has received from Harold Pistow, we feel sure he will not become a deviationist and his affection for this Society will remain unsullied."

There were no fewer than 31 counties—English and Welsh—represented that night, including a group of 14 from the Liverpool area, under the flag of leek and crossbones manfully displayed by Tudor Edwards.

In a welcome to the Master of the Cumberlands Mr. Corby said they admired the energy and enthusiasm Mr. Beresford had brought to his task. "I have been honoured by his Society by being asked to compeer a number of remarkable performances in the realm of non-conducted and Spliced Surprise Major and of hearing some really first-class ringing."

Canon Dunstan and Mr. Dennis Beresford replied. The latter spoke of the great privilege the Cumberlands had had this year in ringing at the Abbey and the privilege extended to him of attending a business meeting of the Ancient Society.

"THE MASTERS OF 300, 200 AND 100 YEARS AGO"

This concluding toast was proposed by the Master, who said William Stewkly was elected Master in 1666, having joined the Society in 1658. Among the members in Stewkly's time were Sir Francis Withins, Sir Martin Lomly, Sir Richard Everard M.P., John Brereton (son of Lord Brereton) and Sir Henry Tulse, later Lord Mayor of London.

The year 1766 fell in the period when there were two Societies of College Youths—the "Ancient" and the "Junior." At this period the Junior Society was the more active; but they had no record of the name of either Master.

George Mash was elected Master in 1866. He joined the Society in 1858, and was only 26 years old when he became Master. He was for a long time steeplekeeper at St. Saviour's, Southwark (now Southwark Cathedral), a job which his father James, his son, George, and his grandson, Thomas, also did. He was a man who was respected by all for his good nature and invariable courtesy. He took part in 85 peals, including the first peal on the bells of St. Paul's Cathedral, and was a foundation member of the St. Paul's Cathedral Guild. He died in 1893 at the early age of 53 having been Master of the Society three times.

During the evening a touch of Stedman Cinques was rung in impeccable style by W. T. Cook 1-2, W. Wilson 3-4, M. V. Chilcott 5-6, J. E. Chilcott 7-8, P. A. F. Chalk 9-10, M. P. Moreton 11-12.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATIONLady as R.M. of Rochester District

The Rochester District held its annual general meeting on October 15th in the new £15,000 Church Hall, which adjoins St. Botolph's Church, Northfleet. Previously the Northfleet ringers and friends had entertained the 60 ringers present to tea. In appreciation of this kind gesture the sum of £15 was collected for the Parish Hall Fund.

The Vicar (the Rev. D. Glandfield), who had conducted the service, also presided at the meeting. Members stood in silent tribute to the many District members who had died during the past year. A comprehensive annual report was presented by Mr. T. Barton (District secretary) and adopted. Thanks were accorded to him and to two retiring from office—Mr. B. Trill, Ringing Master, and Mr. D. S. Osenton, District representative.

Miss Joan Haywood was elected the first lady District Ringing Master, Mr. Barton continues as hon. secretary, and Messrs. Ray Finch and F. J. Cheal District representatives. Mr. L. Mitchell (Newington) proposed the vote of thanks.

Letters to the Editor

FORMER COMMITTEE MEMBER'S VIEW

Dear Sir,—The last part of Mr. Howard Freeborn's letter in the issue of the 4th inst. ("any change would probably be for the worse") has been proved true by the new heading of that issue. If this is the committee's start of "improvement" then I dread to imagine what "The Ringing World" will be like in a few years' time. That style of heading would, to my mind, be quite suitable for a supermarket's list of cheap offers, as that particular style looks cheap and is out of place.

Is it another of the committee's "improvements" to relegate the founder's name to the seventh page, or are they going to drop Jack Goldsmith's name eventually? Shortage of space cannot be the reason, as there is over an inch of space to spare on the front page alone.

Apart from local ringers, I have just had the opportunity of meeting some London ringers and the consensus of opinion is "cheap."

If you want to lose more readers then carry on with the "improvements," but I would again quote Mr. Freeborn—"Don't do it"—Yours sincerely, F. I. HAIRS.

PREVIOUS DESIGN

Dear Sir,—May I be allowed to say a little about the proposal for a new design for the front page of "The Ringing World"?

This is not a new idea. As long ago as Whitsundie, 1953, when the Central Council met at Bournemouth, I urged "The Ringing World" Committee to make such a change and, at the same time, I submitted to Mr. J. F. Smallwood a design for this purpose which was drawn by Mr. C. Cullen, who is a ringer and one of the leading commercial artists in London. He is the gentleman who wrote, without charge, in beautiful and dignified lettering, the Ringers' Roll of Honour for World War II.

"The Ringing World" Committee were not keen on accepting my proposal at the time but assured me that the committee had already thought of making a change in the layout of page one, and that such a change would be made soon. That was 13 years ago!

Has this design by Mr. Cullen been considered recently? If not, why not? If it has been considered and rejected I should be glad if the drawing could be returned to me as soon as possible.—Yours sincerely,

HARRY MILES.

UNORIGINAL

Dear Sir,—How can Mr. John Pladdys have the audacity to state that Mr. Whitaker's composition of 720 Stedman Triples is not original when he frequently publishes unoriginal "compositions" of Plain Bob Major? I refer in particular to a recent "composition" of his published on page 670 of "The Ringing World." This "composition" was first shown to me several years ago by my old friend Mr. B. R. Douglas and was as old as the hills when his grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Spriggs, showed it to him!

In any case, who wants to conduct (or even ring!) a one-part peal containing 15 courses of unmusical 468's for the sole purpose of obtaining Queens and Whittington? The composition also possesses the unforgivable fault of having six consecutive calls at Wrong, a step which appears to be only necessary for handbell compositions.—Yours faithfully,

C. M. WILLIAMS.

London, W.C.

THE "NEW" "RINGING WORLD"

Dear Sir,—For many weeks readers of "The Ringing World" have been subjected to so much propaganda on the subject that they have been brain-washed into thinking that a change in the journal's title was called for; so much so that they have been led to believe that Mr. Pipe's splendid new design was something they could hardly wait to admire. "The Ringing World" Committee have put in hours of work and travelled hundreds of miles, we are told, in their efforts to produce an improved and attractive "Ringing World," whose increased appeal would boost its sales. What a hoax!

When I saw this first result of their deliberations I was horrified and dismayed. "The Ringing World" now has the appearance of a cut-price third-rate parish magazine, whose founders' aim was to produce, without any regard for the eye of the reader, the cheapest magazine possible. The new type is most unattractive, and the background which we have enjoyed for as long as we can remember has disappeared. Such stark, unrelieved inanity is quite unworthy of both our art and its journal.

What was wrong with the original design?—or did familiarity (only) breed contempt? Perhaps some member of "The Ringing World" Committee would tell us what criticisms had been made to them, or what induced them to foist this abomination upon "Ringing World" readers. Let us hope that this is only an experiment and that it is not intended to be an irrevocable decision.

There must be others besides myself who feel that it was most fitting that the background to the journal of our activities as church bellringers should have been Canterbury Cathedral, the centre and "father" church of religion in these islands, and of the whole Anglican Communion, and that it should be reinstated—or are we to see in its deletion that the committee is recognising the present lamentable trend towards the secularisation of ringing, when the lure of a peal is greater than that of duty to God and His Church?

If this new design is the committee's first step towards the new and more attractive "Ringing World" we have been led to anticipate, then heaven preserve us from the second and subsequent ones.—Yours faithfully,

Stoke Poges.

W. BIRMINGHAM.

RINGER-CHORISTER RECORD

Dear Sir,—In your correspondence columns of August 28th 1966, someone asked if there was anyone who could equal or beat the record of Mr. T. Gascoigne as ringer and chorister mentioned in Mr. J. W. Raithby's letter. I may say that I have been a chorister for 66 years and a ringer for over 65, and am pleased to say still carrying on in both capacities.—Yours truly,

H. JOHNSON.

St. Nicholas' Church, Hereford.

AN OMISSION

Dear Sir,—I believe the composition of Plain Bob Major by Cornelius Charge on page 717 ("Ringing World," October 28th, 1966) is printed incorrectly. Surely three courses called Ws, 3H should be inserted as the 11th, 12th and 13th courses in each part, the two final courses being as printed.—Yours sincerely, Upper Clapton.

EDWARD C. STEELE

UNJUSTIFIED CRITICISM

Dear Sir,—May I through the courtesy of this column raise the matter of touring parties making adverse criticism of the towers they have visited.

I would like in particular to question the remark of "D.R.M." of St. Katherine's Society (page 685), concerning St. James's, Grimsby: "Here two bells proved difficult to handle; investigation aloft showed that an additional frame for the two bells had been strapped to the existing one, an admirable economy but unfortunately the considerable movement of the new fixture failed to justify it."

The admirable economy referred to was part of a major reconstruction of the tower and augmentation costing the economical sum of £5,000, approximately. How any touring party can justify such a remark after only one hour's ringing is beyond me, especially as we have at Grimsby 9- and 10-year-old learners who handle these bells with aplomb. This does not of course mean that our 9- and 10-year-olds are better ringers than the St. Katherine's Society: it just means that each and every single bell in a peal has to be handled in a different manner.

A week or so before the visit of the party named we had had a visit from a Herts ringer well versed in the question of frame movements, etc.—the whole ten bells ringing in peal produced the CONSIDERABLE MOVEMENT of 1/64th of one inch.

May I, with respect to D.R.M., suggest that his remarks about St. James's bells after one hour's ringing are, to say the least, stupid and ill-informed, and that he should in future stick to ringing bells and leave remarks about moving frames, etc., to the people who are experts in this field.—Yours faithfully,

F. KENNINGTON.
Captain and Secretary,
St. James's, Grimsby.

BRISTOL FESTIVAL

Dear Sir,—The organisers of the fourth Bristol Festival were gratified when several people thanked them for an enjoyable day. However, it appears to have been marred by one thing.

At 12 noon a 40-minute service had been arranged at the Cathedral, which was very well supported, the Dean obviously going to some trouble to give a special sermon about ringing. Also at 12 noon a "tall fellow with glasses," who I assume to be Mr. C. Barrie Dove, of Leeds, and "a shorter chap with a bowler hat," who is assumed to be Mr. P. John Hall, of Weston-super-Mare, knocked at the door of the Vicarage of St. George's Church, East Bristol, to ask if they could ring. The Vicar was out, and his wife was doubtful whether she ought to give them the key. However, on being told that they were "University ringers," she did let them have it. In her own words, "It hardly seemed worth it—they only rang for five minutes." St. George's bells were, of course, available as one of the advertised towers from 2.30 to 3.30 p.m.

To make matters even worse, at the social in the evening the prize of a fountain pen was awarded to the person who had rung at the most towers during the day. This was claimed by Mr. Dove with 15. How he had the cheek to take it beats us!

The organisers of the Festival and the officers of the Bristol City Branch take a very dim view of this, and are convinced that such snatch and grab tactics whilst a service is being held cannot do the Exercise much good. However, we shall take all precautions possible to ensure that there is no repetition of this sort of thing during the next Festival.—Yours sincerely,

D. J. HUNT,
Secretary, Bristol City Branch.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION REVIVE ANNUAL DINNER

ALTHOUGH the menu card read "Annual Dinner," it was in fact almost 30 years since the Lancashire Association had held a dinner. The event was revived on October 29th at the Victoria Hotel, Preston, when almost 120 people sat down to enjoy an excellent meal.

On the top table the president and his wife (Canon and Mrs. A. Hodgson) were supported by Canon J. M. W. Adam (Vicar of Preston). Mr. Vernon Bottomley (secretary of the Central Council and president of the Yorkshire Association) and his wife, Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunkerley, Mr. and Mrs. N. Newby, Mr. and Mrs. J. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. F. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. C. Crossthwaite.

Visitors included A. R. Peake, B. Bladon, W. E. Gearing, F. E. Jones, P. Toombs and the Misses A. D. O'Brien and L. M. Weaver (Gloucester and Bristol), A. G. Keen (Salisbury D.G.), T. Lewis and I. Oram (Kent C.A.), W. A. Theobald (A.S.C.Y.), T. N. J. Bailey (Suffolk Guild) and Miss S. F. Chapman (Yorkshire).

In proposing a toast of "The Church," Mr. N. Newby (vice-president) stressed the essential relationship between ringers and the Church, and pointed out how all ringers, not merely in this country but also overseas, were drawn together by a common interest through the pages of "The Ringing World." Perhaps other branches of the Church could learn much from the ringers. He also commented on the large number of young people present—among whom were to be found some of their best ringers.

SINCERITY OF MESSAGE

Replying, Canon Adam said that he was expected to be witty but not too lengthy (both of which he complied with admirably). He recalled how, when he was still a boy, the sound of the bells of Doncaster Parish Church had drawn him to walk two miles to the church. Ever since then he had loved the sound of bells, and today in a world where noise was ever on the increase the sound of bells stood alone in the sincerity of their message. No one who heard bells could mistake their message. They might ignore it, but they could never be in any doubt where the sound came from or what it proclaimed. He thanked all ringers for this act of Christian witness, and urged them to carry on the good work—the wardens would always be glad to pay for any broken stays!

The health of "The Lancashire Association" was proposed by Vernon Bottomley, who hails, of course from the other side of of the Pennines, where tea is "mashed" instead of "brewed." In drawing attention to the privileges of belonging to an association, he emphasised the importance of setting high standards in all that they did. This might make recruitment harder, but he felt that it was often necessary to be ruthless in order to achieve good standards of ringing. In punctuality as well as striking, in attendance as well as progress, they must set the highest standards. Above all, he stressed the importance of the example set by Association officers, tower leaders and secretaries. His advice to all office holders was: "Get out before you lose interest, not when you have lost it."

Vernon was thanked for his toast by the president, who also gave him the best wishes and support from Lancashire in his new job of secretary to the Central Council. It was a great pleasure, he said, to see such a good and enthusiastic gathering as that, the first dinner to be held by the Association for so many years, and he warmly thanked Cyril Crossthwaite and his wife for their work in organising it. He also praised the officers and committee for the excellent way in which they conducted its business.

"PLAY THE GAME"

He then went on to discuss the relationship between ringers and the public. Generally speaking, the public accepted the sound of bells as part of our Christian heritage—but occasions could arise when prolonged and frequent ringing would not be acceptable. He therefore urged ringers to accept this possibility and to "play the game" whenever it arose. Commenting on the relationship between ringers and clergy, he suggested that whenever the Vicar came into the belfry, although he could not be expected to take a rope, he might well appreciate being asked to say a prayer before ringing began. This at least would be something in his own line.

All the speakers were thanked for their efforts by Cyril Crossthwaite and, in proposing the toast of "The Guests," he particularly welcomed Fred Dunkerley, who had done so much for the Association in the past. He was also gratified to see so many eminent visitors, particularly two of the "ton-up" band from Wiltshire.

Throughout the evening Frank Reynolds acted as master of ceremonies in a most able manner and kept the proceedings going at just the right pace.

In between speeches the gathering was entertained to some delightful tune ringing by Nick Newby and his two sons, Nick jun. and Keith.

After the formalities had ended there was plenty of time for the meeting of old friends and convivial fellowship, and the general consensus of opinion was that the evening had been a great success.

SOCIETY OF RAMBLING

RINGERS' ANNUAL TOUR, 1966

THIS year's tour was once again of three weeks' duration, comprising the last week in July and the first two weeks in August.

The first week was mechanised and held in Cheshire. In all, approximately 80 towers were visited. In spite of the weather doing its worst, this week was much enjoyed.

The second two weeks' was to be a cycling one of the West Midlands, the tour stretching from Shropshire to Gloucestershire. After the Saturday most of the mechanised party left, and on the Monday we were reduced to four and then to three! All hopes of a ringing tour seemed ended and a cycling-only tour, with suitable visits, seemed the order of the day. However, three more joined us. We then rang at all the sixes and eights but did not, of course, ring at the tens and twelves unless this coincided with practice night.

The third week was better, with ten members, but with this number it was still an effort to get through the programme. "This is all" was called on the Thursday with one day yet to go. It seems almost impossible that in a space of four years we have fallen from having two separate Spliced Surprise Major bands on tour to this level!

Next year the tour is to be reduced to two weeks, the last week in July and the first in August. The venue will be South East England.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH

Striking at Bishopstoke

The Guild's annual striking competition was held at Bishopstoke on October 29th. Hopes for a record number of competing teams this year were not realised and it was particularly disappointing that last year's winners, St. Mary's, Southampton, had to withdraw at the last minute. Seven teams were in the final line-up—Ringwood, Alton and Fareham to ring Triples, and Eling, St. Mary's, Liss, Kingsclere and Bitterne Park, Southampton, to try Doubles. Mr. C. H. Kippin was the judge, and Canon K. W. H. Felstead, Master of the Guild, acted as belfry marshal.

After the ringing, 80 people sat down to tea in the Church Hall. Before proceeding with the competition business the Master paid tribute to the memory of Mr. George Pullinger. The news of Mr. Pullinger's sudden passing at Cheltenham on the previous Sunday came as a great shock to many present. Canon Felstead recalled that the Guild owed much to the diligence and keenness of George Pullinger, who had held every office open to him in turn, including that of Master and Guild representative to the Central Council. The assembled ringers stood in silence.

Mr. Kippin gave the results of his afternoon's judging, dealing with each team's effort in order of ringing. Ringwood, who rang 252 Double Grandsire Triples with 141 faults, were the winners of the Alliston Cup; Eling (174 faults) were runners-up, followed by St. Mary's, Liss, Kingsclere, Alton, Fareham and Bitterne Park in that order.

The Master thanked Mr. Kippin for again acting as competition judge.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

Striking Competition

The Oxford Guild once more held its striking competition at Radley, Berks, on October 22nd. As only six Branches were represented the semi-finals were cancelled. Mr. W. G. Wilson and Mr. W. Parker acted as judges.

The results were as follows: 1 Reading (St. Mary's) 234 faults, 2 N. Berks (E. Hagbourne) 44½, 3 E. Berks and S. Bucks (Burnham) 47, 4 Witney and Woodstock (Eynsham) 60½, 5 Oxford City (Headington) 61½, 6 N. Bucks (Stoney Stratford) 147.

The Stoney Stratford band was a very young one, at least three of the members being under 15 years. They had offered to represent their Branch.

The judges in summing up stressed the importance of the 2nd ringer in setting the pace of a band and commented on the fact that most bands lost marks early in the test because of the inaccuracy of the 2nd. A band needed its best ringer on that bell as he had to set (as soon as possible) the speed which was needed by the rest of the band.

Mr. Peter Pearce, in the absence of the Master, thanked the judges, the Vicar of Radley, and the young ringers under Miss D. Pollard for the excellent tea.

ESSENTIAL DETAILS MISSING

Dear Sir—I would like to refer to the report of the peal of Spliced Surprise Major rung at Heptonstall and published on page 677. The Central Council's Decisions, published in the Handbook, state that "reports of peals shall state the number of methods rung and the number of changes from one method to another during the peal." No details of the number of changes were given and I feel that it is an unwise step to start publishing peals in this manner.—Yours sincerely,

D. E. SIBSON.

Mr. WILFRED WILLIAMS' TOUR of the NORTH EAST

By TUDOR P. EDWARDS

THE venue chosen for this year's tour was the North East in the Tyne-Tees area, but a suggestion that it should be a T.T. tour was quickly squashed. The vanguard of the party assembled at the Crown Hotel, Bawtry on the Friday, and included Wilfred Williams, Bill Theobald, Jim Pipe, Ralph Edwards, Ted Jenkins, Tudor Edwards, Ken Hesketh and Leslie Barry. We also had Maryl Crossthwaite and John Fielden with us for the first weekend.

Sprotborough's was our first tower on the Saturday and it was decided to ring Pitman's four-spliced, all the work, in memory of the composer, who had died the previous week.

A quick lunch and we were off to Selby, our next tower. Here we were joined by Pat Cannon and George Thoday, who had just finished a tour of Yorkshire. We also met the remainder of the tour party and also Mr and Mrs. C. H. Kippin, and some of them had a quick ring before we started the peal.

Both the Abbey and the bells are magnificent and a good peal of Cambridge Royal was rung. Afterwards we spent a pleasant evening at Selby and then said goodbye and John and Maryl before travelling on to York, where we were stopping for the night.

PETER AND PAT MEET

On Sunday morning we rang for Matins at York Minster and we are grateful to the Minster band for letting us join them for ringing on the magnificent 12. Then on to Harrogate for lunch and to meet Peter Border, who was suitably congratulated on his performance at Liverpool by the other tenor ringer, from Dorking.

Birstwith's was the afternoon tower and, after a slight detour by some of the band, a peal of London was duly rung. By conducting the peal Peter joined an elite company of conductors including H. Poole, R. F. B. Speed, R. Leale and J. Freeman, who have succeeded in getting Pat through a peal of London.

After the peal we returned to Harrogate and had the pleasure of joining the local band for ringing for Evensong on the delightful if somewhat loud bells at the Parish Church. Then on through appalling weather to Stockton-on-Tees where we were to stay for the following three nights.

The Parish Church at Stockton was our first tower on the Monday morning and the method chosen was London Royal. However London did not seem to go, and Cambridge was quickly substituted. This proved to be a wise decision and a very good peal was rung on the grand ring of ten. Bristol was rung at St. Cuthbert's, Darlington, in the afternoon, in spite of the conductor. After finding Wilfred, who had somehow got lost after the peal, we returned to Stockton to meet Stan Mason, who had just arrived.

An advertisement for a well-known brand of kitchen appliance which we were to see quite a few times during the week, and stating that "Cannon is the world's best cooker," was the cause of much amusement amongst all bar one of the party.

PUBLICITY

Following the peal of London at Ormesby the following morning, Wilfred was interviewed by the B.B.C. and the interview was broadcast a number of times during the following days. We were also the subject of an article in the local Press, in which it was stated that Peter had rung Liverpool Cathedral tenor to 75,280 changes. On reading this, Peter said that 5,280 was enough for him.

The afternoon peal was at Skelton-in-Cleveland and a peal of Yorkshire was rung on the bells which although relatively quiet inside the tower are by no means quiet outside, and it was very pleasing to be complimented by a lady living immediately beneath the tower on the quality of the ringing. In the local hostelry afterward we were able to listen to Stan's tape recording of Wilfred's interview, which had been broadcast while the peal was in progress, and also to a recording of part of the peal. Stan was to take recordings of most of the peal attempts and it is helpful to listen to and constructively criticise ringing immediately on completion of a peal.

Wednesday morning saw us at West Hartlepool, where we received a very warm welcome from the local incumbent and also had a group photograph taken by the local Press. Because of the awkwardly placed clock case the smaller members of the band were placed round the back end, and a good peal of Cambridge Royal was rung.

A HIGHLIGHT

A hurried lunch and we were on our way to Newcastle for one of the highlights of the week—a peal at the Cathedral. The peal was to be rung in the evening and, after booking into our hotel, we made our way to the tower. A number of the party were a little late in arriving at the tower due to the evening traffic, but we were soon away ringing Cambridge Maximus on the fine bells. A good peal was rung without incident and a pleasant hour was spent afterwards in the "Post Office" in the company of some of the local ringers. We were all quite taken by the friendliness and atmosphere of this hostelry and we were to visit it time and again during our stay in Newcastle.

The week so far had been highly successful with 100 per centage success in our peal attempts. Leslie's score sheet at this stage was also quite impressive—no peals, nine new towers and ten new breweries. However, things were not destined to proceed as smoothly for the next day or so.

London Royal was going quite well on the pleasant ten at Gosforth the following morning, but after approximately three-quarters of an hour's ringing the stay on the second fell out with a loud crash and the peal was lost in the resulting confusion. This was our first failure of the week and Bill remarked that it was the first time this week his prayers had been answered.

SECOND FAILURE

Following a leisurely lunch hour we made our way to Fenham for the afternoon attempt. The bells and all connected with them are a fine example of the best of the bellfounders' work and the only possible complaint is that they are a little loud in the tower. We started off ringing London but our efforts did not match our surroundings. Cambridge was substituted but this was not to be our day, as after about an hour's ringing an irate local gentleman entered the tower and that was the end of the attempt.

That evening we had a ring on the heavy six at Wylam, just outside Newcastle, thus enabling Pat to complete all the ringable bells in Northumberland. Afterwards we met Jack Fielden, who was on holiday at Whitley Bay, and a pleasant time was had by all discussing the relative merits of two well-known bell foundries.

The Watch Tower at Morpeth was the venue on Friday morning and Bristol the method. Before starting, Eric went up to the bell chamber to fix the shutters over the louvres as the tower is right in the centre of the busy town. The ringing went very well but with nearly two-thirds of the peal completed a loud banging on the trap door of the ringing room and the efforts of someone to get in nearly resulted in the conductor being lifted off her feet. This caused a momentary lapse of concentration and the peal was mis-called. Unfortunately the louvres had not been completely blocked and the ringing was causing considerable inconvenience to local office and shop workers, and it was probably best that the peal had been lost, so that no further trouble was caused by continued ringing.

On the way to Whitley Bay for the afternoon attempt we had a ring on the grand, if extremely noisy, six at Cramlington. A number of the party who arrived at the tower early were conveniently situated near the local turf accountant's, and a certain horse with Welsh connections proved quite profitable.

Our run of ill luck continued at Whitley Bay, where eight-spliced was lost after an hour's good ringing. After the attempt we said goodbye to Peter, who was off to collect his family, and also to Mike Maughan, who had joined us for a number of peals during the week and was now off on Tom Lock's tour.

FIFTH SUCCESSIVE LOSS

Bishopwearmouth's was the Saturday morning tower, and again ill luck was with our efforts, for with four courses of Lincolnshire rung a large piece of plaster came away from the wall in the room above the ringing chamber and in the resulting confusion the peal was lost.

Five successive losses—and we were beginning to wonder if we would ring another peal during the week. As we had time to spare we were able to have a short ring at Sunderland Parish Church. We at last broke our series of bad luck by ringing a good peal of Yorkshire Royal on the fine Gillett ten at Roker in the afternoon.

Sunday morning saw us joining the Cathedral band for ringing for Matins. The apparent difference between the Cathedral bells when they are rung to Cinques as compared to Maximus is quite remarkable and there were quite a number of the party who wished we had rung Cinques earlier in the week.

After a farewell visit to the "Post Office" for lunch we set out for Blackhill, where the afternoon attempt was scheduled at the Roman Catholic Church. However, on arrival we found that recent damage to the tower made ringing impossible, but as compensation we were able to have a short ring on the interesting eight at Blackhill Anglican Church.

We then started retracing our steps to York and a number of the party made a slight detour to visit the magnificent Cathedral at Durham on the way. For Evensong we rang on the extremely fine eight at Northallerton.

During the course of a pleasant evening spent at the hotel at York Wilfred was presented with a gift as a small token of our thanks for arranging yet another tour.

All too soon our final day was with us. In the morning we rang a College Youths peal of Bristol in the semi-darkness of All Saints' Pontefract. Then the long journey to Hull Parish Church for a peal of Stedman Cinques on the fine 12 with Pat ringing the tenor in his own unmistakable style.

Thus ended another of Wilfred's tours—good company, good bells and good ringing. We would all like to express our gratitude to Peter Rock, Eric Harrison, Eric Critchley and all the others who helped to make the tour a success. Our thanks also to all the local ringers and incumbents.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION Northern District

For the first time for many years the District visited Royston on October 29th; it was an evening meeting under the direction of Mike Trigg and over 40 people attended during the two hours the bells were available. The number of young people present was most encouraging and it is hoped they will attend more District meetings in the future.

The evening's ringing finished at 8.45 p.m., when most of those present made their way to the Star, Melbourn, mine host being Ben Scoot, one-time Baldock ringer and a good friend to the District.

OBITUARY

MR. W. H. HEWETT

An Appreciation.

Dear Sir,—To those who have frequented the ringing chamber of St. Margaret's, Westminster, even at any time during the period of the last 60 years, the absence of William H. Hewett will be keenly felt. It has rightly been said that the great reputation at St. Margaret's, after his taking over the leadership from another London stalwart, the late James E. Davis, was due to Bill Hewett.

His quiet disposition did not reveal how much he had done for such a long time, for not only did he regularly maintain Sunday service ringing in this famous ten-bell tower, but adequately fulfilled the responsibility of arranging ringing on these bells for State and Parliamentary occasions in addition to innumerable society weddings. Really, his duties have been unique in the annals of campanology.

William H. Hewett was a very respected member of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild. His membership commenced in 1905 and his first peal—at St. George's, Camberwell, on April 21st, 1906—was rung for the Association. This and many other of his peals were rung under the conductorship of the late William Pyc.

After conducting thousands of people around the streets of London in his taxi-cab and conducting scores of ringers along the paths of various methods. Bill has truly earned his rest. T. J. L.

MR. GEORGE PULLINGER

An Appreciation

It was with great regret that I read of the tragic and sudden death of George Pullinger. During my residence in Hampshire I had the privilege of ringing with George at his own tower at Bishopstoke and at the far-famed tower of North Stoneham, the latter tower then having only eight bells.

It was a pleasure to see the masterly way he handled his bell through a peal, with only one arm. And almost 50 years to the day of his death I can well remember ringing my first peal of Double Norwich at Bishopstoke where George faultlessly rang the third. This peal was conducted by his old friend George Williams. H. BADGER.

MR. DONALD THOMPSON

With the death of Mr. Donald Thompson at the age of 88 years on October 31st, St. Paul's, Bedford, lost one of its most faithful ringers and its chief link with the past.

At the age of 17 Don rang his first peal on the tenor of the old ring of eight in 1895. It was at ringing the tenor behind that he excelled until only a few years ago, his more recent ringing being confined to hunting the treble, which he could still do very well if the other bells kept right.

During the last few months he had been eagerly awaiting the rehanging of the bells and sadly, missed this by only a few weeks. He last rang at Bromham only eight days before his death, and a quarter peal was rung there as a tribute to him on the eve of his funeral.

MR. E. RUCK

Mr. E. Ruck, the sole surviving founder member of the Kent County Association, died on November 6th, 1966, within seven months of his 100th birthday.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The Southern District had an enjoyable meeting at St. John's, Shildon, on October 22nd, with a good attendance, which included the Association's president, Mr. W. Tyson. An enthusiastic band of beginners at St. John's, under the leadership of Mr. George White, has made many improvements to the belfry, and everything in the tower was in excellent order.

From rounds and call changes for learners to Bristol, Lincolnshire and Spiced Surprise Major, there was a good variety of ringing at all stages.

At the meeting which followed tea, the Association's Ringing Master, Mr. Kenneth

PETERBOROUGH GUILD
ANNUAL DINNER

THE 1966 annual dinner of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild was held in the Assembly Room at the Town Hall, Northampton, on October 22nd. The chair was taken by the president, the Rev. Ernest G. Orland, and he was supported by the Rt. Rev. A. R. Graham-Campbell (Assistant Bishop), Mr. E. A. Barnett (past secretary of the Central Council) and Mrs. Barnett, Messrs. H. Peacock (Ely Diocesan Guild), J. H. Bluff (Guild Master) and E. Billings (Guild secretary).

The toast of "The Church" was proposed by the Guild Master, who spoke about ringing being the most fascinating of all sports. Bishop A. R. Graham-Campbell replied and in his preface spoke of the only sad faces at a dinner belonging to those who had to make a speech. He went on to say how grateful he was to have been asked to speak about the Church at this dinner, especially in view of the present day criticism of the Anglican Church as "a noble ruin." He made the point that people had been saying for over 300 years that the Church of England was dying, but it nevertheless had shown a tough vitality and, for a "falling" Church, it had learned the trick of rising again.

In conclusion, he stated that ringers had a real place in the life of the Church—the Church existed for the worship of God, and ringers called people to church and reminded those who were unable to go of the Church's message; and, further to this, that ringing should be an act of worship in itself.

Mr. E. A. Barnett proposed the toast of "The Peterborough Diocesan Guild" and began by saying how fortunate the Guild were in its choice of secretary. He mentioned that the Peterborough Guild was unique in that the Rutland Branch was formed in 1933 and this was reported at the time in "The Ringing World" as the last part of England coming under the wing of organised ringing. He thought that the Guild was fortunate in covering the whole of the Peterborough Diocese and not being divided by different ringing bodies within its own boundaries.

The president of the Guild replied, quoting the objects of the Guild. He stated how well they had been carried out—especially the first three, but continued on a more sombre note, speaking of the perennial problem of maintaining and furthering the art of change ringing, and of the difficult task of training learners to be good and faithful members of a band. He concluded his remarks by suggesting that more activity should be undertaken by the Guild as a whole in this field.

The toast of "Our Guests" was proposed by the Guild secretary, who explained how he tried to invite each year guests who were representatives of all the various aspects of organised ringing. In reply, Mr. H. Peacock, of the Ely Diocesan Guild, mentioned that three of his Guild's towers were within sight of Peterborough Cathedral. He expressed the thanks of all the guests for the hospitality they had received.

A very successful evening was rounded off by the entertaining act of Mr. N. Ayris, magician.

Arthur, outlined the scheme for scrapping he Association's present four Districts and substituting three. Under the suggested division, the Southern District would lose Brancepeth (eight) and would gain West Hartlepool, with two eights and a ten-bell tower. This met with general approval, but Mr. Arthur stressed that the proposals he had outlined had not yet been finally determined.

Next year's programme of meetings was settled, and there was further ringing until 8.30 p.m., when the Shildon ringers served refreshments, and some of the keenest stayed on for handbell ringing. E. P.

BELFRY GOSSIP

In the peal at Coddington, Notts (page 732) the name of the ringer of the fifth was inadvertently omitted. He was J. Edward Brown. Apologies.

With a peal of Maximus at Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, on November 5th, Geoffrey W. Randall completes the Cambridge circuit of Minor to Maximus.

The Society of Rambling Ringers are reducing their tour next year to two weeks—the last week in July and the first in August. The venue will be South East England.

The peal of 12-Spliced Surprise Major rung at Ashton-under-Lyne on October 12th was a memorial peal to Mr. Peter Wycherley's mother-in-law.

The last ring on the bells of St. Andrew's, Headington, Oxford, before being dismantled, was on October 30th, when they were rung half-muffled in sympathy with the victims of the Aberfan disaster.

Corrections.—The peal at Erith, Kent, on page 730 was 5,184 Yorkshire Surprise Major and not London, as printed. The handbell peal at Halling, Kent, on page 732, should have Stuart Sandford ringing 9-10.

To the list of strange requests at weddings must be added an incident at Thurnby, Leics, when the ringers were asked by the best man to stop ringing because the bridal group could not hear the photographer's instructions.

In aid of a new sixth bell at Blaby, near Leicester, a choral evensong was held on October 29th. A Northampton ringer who attended and rang on the five states it was "good music and singing of the very highest order."

ROPES CUT AT MORPETH WATCH TOWER

Four of the eight bell ropes in Morpeth Watch Tower have been severed by vandals. Three were cut immediately above the sally and one about a foot above. The ropes were installed last April and the damage is estimated at £22.

A spokesman at the Morpeth Borough Surveyor's Department said (as reported in the "Newcastle Evening Chronicle" of November 1st): "It is sheer wanton and wilful damage, done, we assume, by youths who have nothing better to do. It has certainly not been done by children. This is obvious from the height at which the ropes were cut."

The clock tower door was locked as usual, but the vandals found a way of forcing it off its hinges. The door has now been fixed more securely and a new lock fitted.

NEW SPICED MAJOR RECORD

Another advance has been made in Spiced Surprise Major. Anthony R. Peake's band rang at Malmesbury Abbey on November 5th a peal in 110 methods. This is the greatest number of Surprise and Major methods yet rung to a peal, and included nine methods not rung previously. Congratulations to all.

DIAMOND JUBILEE OF HIS FIRST PEAL OF STEDMAN

Few ringers live to have the distinction of Major J. H. R. Freeborn, of Cambridge, and formerly of Oxford. On October 29th he rang in a peal of Stedman Cinques to mark the 60th anniversary of his first peal in the method. This was a Cambridge University Guild peal at Saffron Walden. The peal was also to celebrate the Major's 79th birthday, which took place the previous day.

NEVER BEFORE

Recently we have recorded a number of very young ringers scoring their first peal. This week from the private campanile of Mr. A. A. Jopp, at Stoulton (tenor 107 lb. in C) comes a peal of Plain Bob Minor in which eight-year-old Paul Jopp was ringing his first peal and his brother Andrew (aged 13) was conducting. To Andrew's query, "Is this a record for two brothers aged eight and 13 to ring their first peal and first as conductor respectively on their own bells?" we would reply "Unquestionably."

ELUSIVE STEDMAN

Among the many who have found success at Stedman elusive is Mr. A. R. Sage, of Clevedon. He selected a party to ring a quarter at Calne Parish Church on November 1st in honour of the silver wedding anniversary of his daughter, Mrs. Gwendoline Turner. With one exception the band came from the Chew Deanery Branch: the quarter was lost after 35 minutes. A similar misfortune befell Mr. Sage's party on April 19th, also at Calne (Mr. Sage's old tower). To the ringers who made these special journeys Mr. Sage extends his sincere thanks.

FIRST PEAL ON BELLS SINCE 1911

The peal at St. Thomas', Salisbury, is the first of Stedman on the bells since George Williams took a band there on Easter Monday, April 14th, 1911, and conducted Thurstan's peal.

There have been a number of attempts including a special endeavour five years ago to mark the jubilee of the 1911 peal, but all have been unsuccessful. It is inconceivable that the band who rang so long ago would have imagined that it would take so long for others to emulate their achievement!

UNUSUAL

The new bell for St. Mary's (R.C.) Church, Flint, weighs seven cwt. and was cast by O'Byrne of Dublin. It stands on four large pillars.

This bell, writes D. H. B. M., may not interest change ringers as such, but I think this is a fine example of modern bell foundry art and shows what can be done, especially for new churches on new estates. The parish priest, Fr. J. P. Donnelly is on the left and his curate, Fr. A. Edwards, on the right.

FROM THAMESIDE TO CENTRAL AFRICA

A letter to the "Daily Mirror" asking for an old bell for the little church to be opened at Palanye, Botswana, Africa, on Christmas Eve, has been responded to by Burrell and Co., chemical colour manufacturers of Millwall, London. They have offered a 3 cwt. bell recast for them in 1892, and also to pay the shipping cost. Burrells believe that the original bell was used as a work bell during the construction of the famous "Great Eastern" steamship built there in the 1850's.

PEAL CONCENTRATION IN HERTS

During the past month Hertfordshire has seen an invasion of ringers each Saturday for the purpose of ringing two eight-bell peals. The arrangements were carried out by Mr. Martin Press. Five attempts were successful, only one attempt being lost halfway. One ringer was heard to comment that this was the "Press Peal Month": indeed it was. Our thanks to Martin for organising this unusual peal tour! and to all incumbents for the use of their bells.

LICHFIELD DIOCESAN FESTIVAL

In September, 1960, the first Lichfield Diocesan Festival was held in North Staffordshire, and on September 17th it was again the turn of the North Staffordshire Association to be hosts to the other two Associations in the Diocese of Lichfield—the Shropshire Association and the Stafford Archdeaconry Society.

This year the festival was centred on Uttoxeter and included some towers in the "Churnet" and "Dove" valleys. Ringing started in Cheadle, where there are two churches with bells and both having the same dedication—St. Giles. The Parish Church has a ring of six with a tenor of 14 cwt. in F, and the Roman Catholic Church a typical ring of eight bells—14 cwt. It is perhaps fortunate that the two rings are tuned in the same key of F, as the bells are within earshot of each other.

After lunch, ringing continued at Mayfield (a ring of six) in a church which some people had difficulty in finding; Ellastone (a tricky six); Alton (a new Taylor eight) and perhaps the best ring of the day; and Leigh (also a recently cast ring with six bells).

The annual service was held at Uttoxeter and was followed by a three-course meal in the Church Hall. Evening ringing was at Uttoxeter (an octave with the tenor slightly out of tune), Rocester (a good light eight rung from the ground floor) and Alton, where a course of Glasgow was rung.

Thanks are due to our friends in North Staffordshire for their organisation of this festival, and to incumbents and tower captains.

Whilst an enjoyable day was had by all, it should be remembered that this was a diocesan festival, and perhaps next year a more representative gathering of ringers will be possible. J. H. A.

RINGING MASTER MARRIES TOWER SECRETARY

October 22nd, the last day of British Summer Time, was marked by the wedding of two Little Aston ringers, Michael W. Fairey and Anthea C. Richards. The bridegroom is Ringing Master at Little Aston and also Ringing Master of the Stafford Archdeaconry Society. The bride is secretary of the Little Aston ringers.

The Vicar, the Rev. H. H. Follis, officiated at the choral service, the bridegroom having been a member of the choir for many years. The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. C. L. Richards, wore a full-length white satin gown with fur-trimmed sleeves. Her long shower veil was held in place by a white rose. The matron of honour was her sister, Mrs. Annette Corner, who had flown from Geneva for the occasion. Mr. Neil Fairey was best man to his brother.

The local band, many of whom had been taught to ring by the bridegroom, rang before and after the service. Some 75 guests attended the reception at Penns Hall Hotel, Sutton Coldfield. Despite a frantic search, the familiar green Austin Cooper car could not be found and the newly-weds got off to a rather rapid start to their married life.

KNARESBOROUGH ACTIVE

We are pleased to hear of activity at Knareborough, Yorks, where the bells have rarely been fully rung. The band is composed of old and new ringers and it is hoped to have eight-bell ringing for Christmas.
