THE RINGING WORLD

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CHURCH BELL RINGERS

OUR MOST DISTANT BELLS

FOROR 85 years the bells of Christchurch Cathedral, New Zealand, have rung out Sunday by Sunday giving their message; and the story of the bells is vividly told in "Bobs and Singles," a history of the Christchurch Cathedral Society, written by Patricia Ward, the wife of one of the ringers and a former Master of the Society.

The donor of these bells was Mr. R. H. Rhodes, and his desire was to have eight bells of the same weight as the recently hung ring in St. Paul's Cathedral. Mr. A. Troyte, regarded then as the leading authority, suggested a ring of ten instead of a heavy eight, and to this the Cathedral authorities agreed, but when the sanction arrived Messrs. John Taylor and Co. had already made the moulds for the eight. The two trebles were added as the gift of Mr. E. P. W. Miles. Before leaving England the bells were inspected by Dr. Stainer, organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Mr. Troyte and pronounced to be a magnificent ring.

Gratitude to the donor is expressed by the following inscription on the tenor:

> Through all the ROADS of life, the best
> Welll strive to be your guide;
> And let our notes do your behest
> By tolling far and wide.
> We ve crossed the seas this fair land,
> To do God all the honou; ;
> From clime to clime we ling our chime,
> And tell of Rhodes the donor.

Not to be outdone the story is continued by the following verse on the trebles:

We, two little bells to complete the chime
Were nearly left out too late.
When MILES to the rescue, but just in time,
Added us on to the eight.
The Society of Christchurch Cathedral Bell Ringers was formed on November 19th, 1880, with Mr. T. B. Hall, an experienced English ringer and a member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, as the first Master. Practices were held on the light bells of St. Paul's, Papanui, which had been installed that year. The blessing of the Cathedral bells took place nearly 12 months later, on October 31st, when some 150 people crowded into the ringing chamber having mounted the spiral staircase. The ceremony was performed by the Bishop of Christchurch and Primate of New Zealand (Bishop H. J. C. Harper).
The service of consecration of the Cathedral took place the following day, the architect being Sir George Gilbert Scott. The Mayor declared the day a public holiday, and the bells were rung at intervals from $6.30 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. to 10.30 p.m. The first evidence of change ringing recorded was 120 changes of Grandsire Doubles on August 27th. 1882. and in June of the following year came the first 720 of Grandsire Doubles and on December 16th 1,200 Grandsire Doubles.

In May, 1890, it was reported to the Cathedral Chapter that the ninth bell, used for daily services, was cracked. The architect suggested that further damage might be stopped by having a hole drilled in the metal above and below the crack, then cutting it off from the uninjured metal. The crack was through "clocking." This bell was sent home to be recast and the eighth with it to test the pitch, tuning forks being unknown in those days, The work was most satisfactory and the ninth became the besttoned bell in the ring.

The Society went ahead during the Boer War and scored its first peal-Grandsire Doubles. The arrival in Christchurch of T. W. Biddle from Ballaraat influenced ringing considerably. He was self-taught through reading Jasper Snowdon's books. A personality in the tower was W. Jones, who for 30 years rang the tenor. At the word "go" he would turn his face to the wall and maintain a steady pull. A peal of Bob Triples was scored on the light eight in January, 1903, to be followed later in the year by a peal of Grandsire Triples. That year was notable for its ringing activities, in all 43,000 changes being rung-Grandsire Doubles and Trıples, Bob Minor, Triples, Major, and Caters. Stedman Triples was not introduced until 1908.
The arrival from Birmingham of G. H. Clayton in 1911 had a big influence on the Society and in his reminiscences later in life he comments that he was amazed at the allround competence of the men, who could all ring Grandsire, Plain Bob and Stedman. On various occasions Mr. Clayton was Master, and it was a pleasure for Mr. T. J. Lock and the Editor to meet him in 1965. For many years he seems to have been the mainstay of the Society.
"The Great Adventure" party to visit New Zealand in 1934 consisted of Messrs. W. H. Fussell (Slough), G. Martin, J. Hardcastle (Bradford), R. Maude (Pudsey) and W. Linter (Fareham). The week spent at Christchurch was marked by extensive ringing practices and hospitable entertainment. Two attempts were made for a peal of Bob Major. The first was lost after 70 minutes due to a rope jumping on the fifth, and the second when in sight of home two bells changed course after ringing for three hours and 13 minutes. The band consisted of G. Nelson Sloan 1, S. H. Barnett 2, W. Linter 3, J. S. Wilde 4, C. Charge 5, W. H. Fussell 6, B. Shaw 7, G. Martin 8.

And G. Nelson Sloan was still ringing with enthusiasm when Great Adventure II went to Christchurch in 1965. But Nelson during the interval had travelled far; he had toured England visiting 55 towers and had been elected a member of the College Youths. During the Second World War he kept the Society together, and it is an indication of patriotism that, out of an active membership of 12 , nine served with the Forces and all returned home safely.

Worcestershire and

THE annual meeting of the Worcestershire and Districts Association commenced as usual on Easter Monday with ringing on the ten bells of All Saints, Worcester, followed by the annual service. In the absence of the Association's chaplain, the service, was conducted by the Rector of All Saints' the Rev 3. G. Barnish, M.A., who used the Associations form of service. During the course of the service a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by M J. Fellows 1-2, J. C. Eisel 3-4. J. D. Johnson 5-6, and D. Beacham 7-8.
Following the service, members transferred to the Cathedral Chapter House for the annual general meeting, the Association's president. the Dean of Worcester (the Very Rev. R. L. P. Milburn, M.A.) being in the chair.

This year it had proved possible to send the annual report to members in advance, thus giving them a chance to read the officers ${ }^{\text {b }}$ reports and accounts beforehand. This, however, did not prompt any members into asking questions when the reports came up for discussion. In his report of the recent Central Committee meeting. the general secretary. Mr. D. Beacham, mentioned that a grant of $£ 50$ had been promised to St. Thomas's, Stourbridge, bell restoration scheme and that arrangements for a one-day ringing course were being considered.

POSTAL VOTES REJECTED

Before proceeding to the election of officers, the president stated that some postal votes had been handed to the general secretary immediately prior to the meeting. The president said that as the rules of the Association did not say this method of voting was permitted. then, in his opinion they could not be taken into account. This ruling was contested but accepted by a majority after a show of hands.
This year there were again two candidates for the office of Association Master, namely Mr. W. B. Cartwright and Mr. M. D. Fellows. Following election speeches and voting by show of hands (a proposition for a secret hallot having been rejected), Mr. W. B. Cartwright was re-elected by 43 to seven votes.
The remaining officers were all returned unopposed, viz.: General secretary, Mr. D. Beacham; treasurer, Mr. G. Westwood; peal secretary, Mr. G. Bowen; chaplain, the Rev.

OUR MOST DISTANT BELLS

Among those who have served Christchurch well is Albert J. Lancefield. His keenness for peal ringing brought results during his two years with the Society and a life membership was conferred on him. The good work of Mr. Lancefield was carried on by Mr. R. H. Idle, who was elected Master in May, 1960, and is still in office. Three days before the Great Adventure II party the first peal on the heavy eight (Grandsire Triples) was rung. Taking part were J. Dunn 1, Miss L. Stevens 2, G. N. Sloan 3, J. Gardner 4, N. F. Reeve S, R. G. T. Bennett 6, R. H. Idle (cond.) 7, C. H. Ward 8.

The Master was invited by Mr. T. J. Lock to stand in the peal of Plain Bob Royal on the Catherral bells by Great Adventure II party. which was successful. The band consisted of Cecil W. Pipe 1. Shirley Burton 2, Arthur G. Mason 3. Rcv, M. C. C. Melville 4, Raymond H. Idle 5. Leonard Stilwell 6, W. Mark Damerell 7. Thomas J. Lock 8. A Patrick Cannon (cond.) 9, Wilfred Williams 10 . This was the first time the 32 cwt . tenor had been turned in for a peal.
With such a tradition behind them we feel certain that Christchurch Society will continue to be one of the big centres of change ringing in the Southern Hemisphere. We can recommend "Bobs and Singles" for a place on a discerning ringer's bookshelf. The price is 7 s . 6d. post free from G. Nelson Sloan. 9, Hanson's Lane, Upper Riccarton, Christchurch 4, New Zealand.

Districts Association

H. L. Davies; librarian, Mr. C. W. Cooper. The auditors, Messrs. R. W. R. Sheppard and A. D. Cook, were also re-elected. Mr. A. J. Brazer was elected as the Association's fourth representative on the Central Council.
The remainder of the business concerned two motions to alter the rules. The first was to correct an omission when the rules were revised last year by making it clear that only paid-up ringing rembers were entitled to vote at meetings and this was passed nem con. The second sought $t 0$ limit the duration of the Master's term of office to three years and also make him ineligible to stand again until a further three years had elapsed. This motion, however, was rejected by a large majority.
The remainder of the day was spent ringing at Stoulton. Pershore, Strensham. Ear's Croome and the Cathedral. At Pershore, owing to the restricted access to the "bird cage " ringing chamber, a one-way system had been devisel following our experiences the last time this tower was available. Unfortunately this did nothing to prevent a broken stay and a broken rope!

PEAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

The peal secretary reported that 62 peals were rung by 155 members in 31 towers; of the peal ringing nembers 77 were resident and 78 non-resident. Six members rang their first peal and there were three new conductors.
Peals worthy of note were the non-conducted peal of Cambridge Surprise Major at Brierley Hill; the peal of Grandsire Triples ${ }^{\text {at }}$ Clent, in which the librarian and the new "freeman," Mr. C W. Cooper, rang at the age of 80 ; and, at the other end of the scale, the peal of Bob Minor at Stoulton, which Andrew Jopp (aged 13) conducted, with his brother Paul (aged eight) ringing the second.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

Marlborough Branch Meeting

There was an excellent attendance at the Collingbournes on March 18th, when the Marlborough branch met at St. Andrew's, Collingbourne Ducis, or its monthly meeting. Members were particularly pleased and honoured by the presence of the Master of the Guild (Rev. R. N. Longridge) and visitors were also welcomed from East Ilsley, Hagbourne, Portsmouth, Wroughton, Purton, Stratton St. Margaret and Cossingham (Som.).
The Guild service was conducted by the Rector (Rev. G. F. Kidd). The Lesson was read by the Master, and Mr. Colin Ward was the organist. Tea, in the nearby schoolroom, was much enjoyed, the company of over 30 being the guests of the local ringers. It was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. R. Ward and Mr. and Mrs R. Barlow, and in appreciation of the hospitality a collection was taken for church funds.
At the business meeting Mr. T. A. Palmer (hon. secretary) presented the balance sheet for 1966, which showed a credit balance of $£ 82 \mathrm{~s}$. $9 \mathrm{~d} .$, an increase of some $£ 2$ on the year's working. Details of the last Guild committee meeting were given by the Rev. Roger Keeley and it was decided to organise a strong contingent to attend the Guild Festival, at Melksham.
Mr. Fred Read (vice-chairman and ringing master), who presided, thanked all who had contributed to a most enjoyable meeting, and extended a warm welcome to the Master and visitors. The Master suitably replied.

April meeting, Shalbourne with Great Bedwyn (provisional); May, Pewsey. Ringing was then resumed on the heavier six at Collingbourne Kingston.

Llandaff and Monmouth Association

THE 74th annual general meeting was held at Llandaff on Easter Monday and was attended by about 100 members and visitors
During the af!ernoon the bells of St . John s, During the afternoon the bells of St, Johns, Cardiff, Whitchurch and Llandaff Cathedral were put to good use.
The service was held in the Cathedral, conducted by the Dean, and the organ was very well played by a visiting organist. Mr. Graham Elliott, of Abergavenny. The Dean, in his address, said peonle who offered their services as ringers found themselves tied to commitreenis for both regular practice and Sunday service ringing and this called for a high measure of faithfulness to their local bands as the completeness of any band was so dependent on each and every member being present when required Any such person mus: he dedicated to his Church and should make every effort to take his or her place in congregation at least once each Sunday.
Tea was served by the Cathedral ringers in the adizcent Prebendal Hall and Mr. D. J King thanked them for the excellent tea.

BUSINESS MEETING

At the bu iness meeting the chair was taken by the Dean supported by the Master, Mr L. Jones. The meeting stood in silent tribute to members who had passed away during the year; these included the Dean of Brecon and A. J. Pitman (both vice-presidents), H. Cassells, of Llanbradach, and Mrs. R. Alsop, of Ebbw Vale.
The hon. secretary, M. J. Pryor, in his report, pald tribute to the work of the late A. J. Pitman and Joe Lovett to the Association Once again a member had received recognition from another Society, in that Nicholas W. H. Simon had been elected Master of the Bristol University Society. It was pleasing to note that Tudor P. Edwards had now returned to work in the area and his presence would be a great asset. Geoffrey
J. B. Stickland, a Llandaff ringer. was ordained in September and was now, was orSandfields, Port Talbot. They wished him well in his new calling.

The new badges were proving very popular and a large number had been purchased. The badge had been designed by Miss Sheila Salkeld, of Chepstow. The Monmouth Branch held a very successful film evening in January, when the Washington Film was shown to an when the Washington Film was shown to an audience of nearly a hundred. A grant of $£ 20$ was made to Bedwellty for work on their bells and the ringers there were congratulated on their efforts to raise funds.

The membership at the end of the year was 348: this shows a slight decrease of 15 since the publication of the last full list of members two years ago.

HIGHER STANDARD

The standard of ringing in the area continues to rise and the list of peals rung indicates the very wide range of methods now being. rung. Particular mention was made of good progress at Coity and Lower Machen. Porthkerry and Whitchurch; an all-local band at the last-named tower rang a peal to welcome their new Vicar.
Several ringers passed personal milestones with their peal ringing, but pride of place this year must go to A. William Gibbons, of Bridgend, who rang his first peal at the age of 73 In conclusion the secretary thanked those who had assisted with the production of the report at so little cost, particularly Mr. Iolo Davies and his helpers from Cowbridge Grammar School. who duplicated and stapled some 8,000 copies.

The hon. treasurer's (the Rev. I. J. Richards) report showed a healthy state of affairs due to the fact that none of the Association's officers claimed any expenses for their work either in the area or at Central Council mettings.

The hon. librarian. Mr, L Bainham, reported that the library at Newport was now well established and housed some 30 books as well as bound copies of "The Ringing World " from 1910 until 1916, and arrangements have been made with "The Ringing World " to supply a bound copy at the end of each year. Mr. F. J. Hannington had presented a fine collection of books to the library.

All the reports were adopted and thanks given to the officers concerned.

NEW MASTER

Mr. Iolo Davies, of Cowbridge. was elected Master for the year and installed in office by the retiring Master, Mr. L. Jones. The remaining officers were re-elected to their various posts.
Mr. D. J. Lewis, of Cadoxton, was elected an honorary life member. He started ringing before the turn of the century and in addition to giving loyal service had a son and grandson whose names appear frequently in the peal columns.
A motion to hold the annual general mecting on the Saturday following Easter Day was carried. The next will be held at All Saints' Newport. The 75th anniversary of the Society next year is to be marked by a dinner and social evening on October $12 \mathrm{th}, 1968$.
An appeal to return "The Ringing World" questionnaire was made by the hon. secretary. A show of hands indirated that 40 of the 100 present took "The Ringing World " regularly. The rest were strongly urged to follow their example.
Ringing, which included Surprise Royal, followed at the Cathedral.

OBITUARY

MR. ROBERT BELL

Mr. Robert Bell. of Sunderland, who died ir hospital on March 23 rd, after a short illness, at the age of 61 , had been a merrber of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association since 1927. He started to ring at St. Michael's. Bishopwearmouth, Sunderland. in 1925, and had been the tower secretary for many years. It is largely due to his efforts that there is stil! a change ringing tower in Sunderland He was regular in attendance at meetings and had been chairman of the Eastern District since 1962 . A retiring manner tended to obscure his competence as a ringer, but all who met him knew how helpful he could be. He took part in 26 neals for the Durham and Newcastle Association.

At the funeral service at Bishopwearmouth on March 28th prior to cremation the Rector (the Rev D. N. Goldie) paid tribute to Bob's good work in the belfry. The bells he loved so well were rung half-muffled at the service and -Iso to a quarter peal to his memory on March 30th. The Association was represented by the Ringing Master. Mr K. Arthur.

Bob will be rissed by the Association in general hut by Bishopwearmouth in particular He leaves a widow and two daughters. to whom our sympathy is expressed.

ELSTOW, BEDS.-On Good Friday, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: A. D. Norman 1. Miss S. Y. Fowkes 2. Miss M. F. Pettitt 3, S R. Huckle 4, R, F, Law 5. M. J. Marriot (cond.) 6. Rung balf-muffied for morning rervice.

TRIBUTES TO THE LATE

Mr. T. G. MYERS
By the death of Mr. Tom Myers during the Easter week-end after a trying illness. the South West of England has lost one of its most outstanding ringers, and he leaves a wide gap which will nut be easy to fill.

As a ringer, whether on a light or a heavy bell, his handling was really superb, and he was equally superb as a conductor, not forgetting the fact that he always expected a very high standard of striking.

His peals, it is believed, numbered 243 and they were rung in many parts of the country and on all numbers of bells. I am subject to correction. but he had completed the circuits in at least four methods, viz., Plain Bob, Stedman. Kent T B and Cambridge Surprise. In addition to ringing peals at Buckfast Abbey, the most westerly 12 in the country, he had also rung a peal on the most northerly 12, at Newcastle on Tyne.
Another of his peal ringing experiences was taking part in the first resident peals of Double Norwich Court Bob Major and Oxford Treble Bob Major, and his passing now leaves me the only survivor of that band.

At the time of his death he was captain at St. Andrew's. Plymouth, and he had served the Guild of Devonshire Ringers truly and faithfully, having bcen the South West Branch secretary for 19 years and during the past 12 months its chairman. He had also been a Central Council representative since 1949, and it was only in recent times that he was elected a vice-presiaent of the Guild.

Tom is no longer with us, hut his memory will always remain with those of us who knew him so well, and I think it would be quite fitting if some form of memorial could te erected in the church he served so faithfully and so well.

From N.W. Branch, Devon Guild.

"We have lost with the death of Mr. T. G. Myers a great ringer who rarely missed a meeting in our Branch and who also visited us on other occasions. He was of a cheerful nature and a great deal of change ringing was learned from him

In association with the Sangwin brothers between 1930 and 1939 he conducted 22 peals in succession without losing one-a remarkable achievement. Mo-i of the peals were rung at Bridgerule tower the fine bells being his favourite eight in the district.

May he rest in peace.-R. Pearce, Sec."

MR. GEORGE CLARKE

With the passing on March 30th, at the age of 81 , of Mr George Clarke, of Clanfield, the Witney and Woodstock Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild has lost its oldest member. He leaves two sons. Until last year he was foreman at the tower, in which he had been ringing for 62 years.

The funeral service was at Clantield on April 4th and was attended by Braseh members and representatives from Faringdon. The Vicar (the Rev. R. J. Siderfin), who conducted the service, spoke well of Mr. Clarke's ringing activities and of the innumerable people he had taught His first peal was rung in 1905, and the first peal by an all-local band in 1907. The Vicar concluded his remarks with "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Later that evening a quarter peal was rung with the bells half-risuffled by Alec Cantwell 1. D. Floyd 2, L. Oliffe 3, T. Hester 4, J. List 5, J. Coggins (conductor) 6, D. Smith 7, A. Hicks 8.

Letters to the Editor

WHY SOME METHODS ARE RUBBISH
Dear Sir-Would it be of any advantage if some person of knowledge were to write an article or series showing just why some methods are rubbish? Why places in 7,8 are so shocking. etc., and what constitutes something worth ringing and why?

If one " invents" a method in these days it is almost certain to have been already invented or is classified as rubbish or both. yet ${ }^{18}$ is fairly easy to produce something short and much more musical than standard methods but which cannot go to an extent. Are they necessarily rubbish because they are not pealable? To the ignorant one would imagine that musical quality was the criterion, and long-drawn out dodging would bc boring. Yet Double Oxford is a standard. Never having heard it rung. I do not know as to its music, but it looks deadly dull !

As to peals. 1 am not a peal ringer, five in 85 years, I think. but I take off my hat to those who are. In my experience they are always extremely helpful to the ignorant, both in tower and correspondence and we would be much poorer without them. Many a country tower only realises what first-class ringing can be when visited by a peal band. Long may peal tours be with us.

WESTCOUNTRYMAN.

IMBER BELLS GOING TO EDINGTON PRIORY

Dear Sir,-Further to my letter on page 148 regarding the disposal of the Imber bells, it was finally decided at the P.C.C. meeting at St. Francis Church, Salisbury, to give the five bells to Edington Priory, which is to become a ten-bell tower.

The Council agreed that it was more important to complete the interior of the unfinished church rather than pay $£ 2,000$ for the recasting and hanging of the bells at present. Als. 3 the bells had been stored at Messrs. Mears and Stainbank's for some considerable time and were taking up valuable storage space, which was another reason pressing for the disposal of the bells.
Meanwhile the interest at St. Francis' has not completely diminished. By gentle persuasion of the writer. one member of the P.C.C. has realised the importance of bells in church worship, who in turn suggested that one bell should be hung in the tower, with the idea that when the church is complete a new light ring of six bells be installed. This was generally agreed. So the sound of bells should come from the tower of St. Francis' Church yet.-Yours faithfully,
N. SKELTON.
P.S.-I fully agree with Allan E. Cook (pag : 200) when he says one tower he had in mind had its bells rehung only four years ago. -N. S.

TEACHING BEGINNERS

Dear Sir.-I must congratulate the writers of the articles for beginners

There is one other thing which I consider most important. that is, when the beginner is ringing rounds should his bell get out of control. he should be able to bring it under control, as this will frighten any be-ginne:-

Triurrph. At last he is ringing a bell by himself. With an intelligent pupil this should be in less than ten minutes.

ANOTHER INSTRUCTOR.

Dear Sir,-I am, unlike Mr. Jones (letter, page 216), apparently "not conforming to modern standards" (T. J. Lock. page 179) since I ring "left over right." Though, Mr Jones. in your argument 1 fail to see any connection between handling ropes and handling cricket bats.
In my tower the instructnor, quite rightly. lets the beginner decide which is his/her strongest and most comfortable way to handle the bell rope. To determine this, the beginner is subjected to a short tug of war, using the tail-end of the rope. The result of this experiment usually shows the beginner to be most comfortable employing "left over right." (I consider this to be right-handed, as do most tug of war teams!)

Since our present concern is that of handling ropes (and not bats) I feel a corrparison with a tug of war team more relevant. Now. applying this in Mr. Jones' argument. (bis proves nothing.
Finally, it is interesting to note that the majority of "right over left's" have to swap the tail-end from their left hand to their right to tie the rope; also, the more advanced "right over left" ringer uses his right hand to ring single-handed!-Yours faithfully.

London, N.W.
M.C. F.

"LONG TEN"

Dear Sir,-I was interested to read Mr. Cook's letter referring to the "long ten." I came across the practice a few years ago. when I often attended Evensong at Chippenham. Cambridgeshire. I do not recall the name by which it was known there but as far as I can rementer it was ternsinated by the calls "five in" and "four in "at successive treble leads after a suitable length, usually five or ten minutes. These calls in effect produced the other two leads of Grandsire, thus bringing up rounds.

I do not see why this form of ringing should bridge the gap between call changes and method ringing better than normal plain hunting (I am anti-" learning the numbers ") but I think it is more probably of interest in studying the evolution of method ringing. Cannot we learn something of the way our predecessors thought from these old practices? -Yours faithfully,

JOHN A. HARRISON.
Twyford, Berks.

PIPES OF PAN

Dear Sir,-Unlike some of your correspondents. I do not think that any special action is called for by the recent hoaxes. I remain optimistic that the passage of time will take care of this-unless we should happen to be hoaxed by Peter Pan !-Yours faithfully.

Chester-le-Street.

SINGLES IN CAMBRIDGE

Dear Sir,-I have been very interested in reading about singles being used in Surprise methods. Ahout 1930 and just before. we at Kerpston, Beds, rang 720 changes of Cambridge Minor, two singles, Wrong. bob. right, twice repeated. I do not put that in for peal ringing as I was advised by several first-class ringers against doing so; it just was not done! We also put sincles in several Treble Bob methods on practice nights. Were we the first to try that way of conducting on church bells?-Yours sincerely.

PEAL OF MAXIMUS NOT ACCEPTABLE
Dear Sir,-I have been asked by the president of the Yorkshire Association to consider the pasition of the peal rung at Halifax. Yorkshire Surprise Maximus, on December 27th, 1966, and reported in "The Ringing World " of March 24th, 1967, on page 205.
I regret that this peal failed to conform to the rules of the Association and therefore is not acceptable as a performance by the As-sociation.-Yours faithfully.
W. ERIC CRITCHLEY,

Hon. Peal Secretary.

PEALS OP 5040 MAXIMUS

Dear S :r,-The compositions of Londinum Surprise Maximus in your issue of April ?th by Messrs P. Border and R. W Pipe bring to my memory the first two peals of Surdrise Maximus (probably the cnly two) containing only 5,040 changes, both rung at St. Marv-le-Tower, Ipswich.
On April 12th. 1930. in 5.040 New Cambridge Surprise Maximus, the first lead was Primrose, thereby bringing up the Wrong at the first treble lead, cutting out 240 changes. The other on November 26th, 1932. was 5040 Cambridge Surprise Maximus, ca!ling the first course 6ths, Out, 7ths. followed by seven further courses, comoosed and conducted by C J. Sedgley. The former peal was conducted by me.-Yours truly, Ipswich.

Cambridge Univ. Guild's Bright Evening

FOLlowing the Guild's new trend for grabbing tresh colleges, the annual dinner was held in Emmanuel College on March 4th -once again, by chance, the day after the Cardinals Ball. Sadly, many people at the dinner appeared still to be recovering frore the after-effects !
Both peal attempts on Saturday morning were, unfortunately, lost, despite the care taken to ensure that none of the Friday taken to ensure that none of the Friday night's revellers were in the band. Those who did manage to ger up in time rang at St. Bene't's, followed by Great St. Andrew's and then Chesterton where some wandered along down the river in beautiful sunshine to watch the Lent Bumping Races. Meanwhile ringing continued on the 12 at Great St. Mary's, with the glorious bells of the Cathedral Church as a grand finale to the afternoon's ringing.
The dinner in the Old Library in Emmanuel was presided over by Bill Ridgman. After an excellent meal, and during the ceremony of the Loving. Cup, a non-conducted touch of Stedman Cinques was rung on handbells by Hobson 11-12.

The president. after proposing the loyal toast, welcomed the guests and introduced them to the company-Jim Quinney and bis son. Ian (Cambridge Youths), the Vicars of Great Si Mary's and Great St. Andrew's and the Masters of the Oxford and Sheffield University Societies.
The toast of "The Guild " was proposed by Brian Threlfall, who, dismissing reminiscence as boring. took a brief look into the future with a little star-gazing The Master, Stephen Darvill, in replying, waxed somewhat more eloquent.
Agreeing wholeheartedly with Mr . Threlfall that looking back at past activities was a boring topic for a speech, he began in characteristic style by reviewing the Guild activities during the year. Alas, he cried, so indolent, corrupt and incompetent had been the administration, most especially at its head, that regular items in the Guild calendar, such as the outing with Oxford University, had unfortunately been overlooked; definitely many lessons for future Masters were to be learned from this year's. They had, however, enjoyed two outings with Sheffield University, and the ringing standards and social lite continued from strength to strength.
Sunday service ringing had got off to a good start this year, but as winter's icy winds Gegan blowing in from the East many members had shown a reluctance to forsake their hot-water bottles. The formation of a Guild Action Group to drag members forcibly from their beds had. however, considerably improved the situation. Conceming belfry maintenance, the steeplekpeper had devised some brilliant sprung stays, none of which, unfortunately, worked stays, though bits of wood sawn of last year's Rag-foats were doing excellent service at St. Andrew's Proposing the toast of "The Visitors," the secretary, Ellis Thomas, felt he must comment on the arrival of visitors from that terrible place " The North" Several visits in that direction by the Guild this year, plus rumours that there were actually bellringers up there, were slowly undermining the conviction, long held in the Guild, that all the land north of a line between King's Lynn and Aberystwyth was covered by a vast ice cap. and was, therefore, cor.pletely uninhabitable.

Richard Tibbetts, Master of Sheffield University Guild, in replying, rushed to the defence of "The North." producing anti-Welsh anecdotes and cunning misquotes from Rupert Brooke He added that he had not wanted to journey south to the Cambridge dinner initially, but the fluttering eyelids and persuasive charm of his Vice-Master, combined with the lure of a free dinner. had proved too much for a man to withstand I
The company, well wined and dined, then adjourned to the relaxed atmosphere of the College's new J. C. R. bar for the rest of the evening. There we chanced to meet the Emmanuel College Boat Club, who, fresh from their own "end-of-races" Bumps Supper, promptly abducted one of our young lady visitors from. Sheffield the other way round?

MIDDLESEX MEETING AT ST. GILES-IN-THE FIELDS

Holborn's mrst interesting church is undoubtedly St. Giles-in-the-Fields, which tas grown from the chapel of a lepers' hospital founded by Queen Matilda in 1101, the present church dating frome 1734. With its 160 ft . spire it still ${ }^{\circ}$ stands supreme despite the numerous modern buildings which now surround it.
With a meeting in Central London one always looks forward to visitors and on this occasion ringers were welcomed from Bath, Sturry (Kert), Woking and Eling (Hants), to gether with a number from the Greater London area.
The Rector of St Giles', the Rev G C. Taylor, who is also president of the Middlesex Association, conducted the service and afterwards joined the company at tea in the spac:0is vestry.

At the short business meeting Mrs. Sheila Spreadbury (Wood Green) was elected as a ringing member. The very good news was received that Miss Mabel Prockson, a valued and respected member, had left hospital that day and the good wishes of all merr.bers present were extended E.H.K.

SHEFFIELD DISTRICT SOCIETY

THE last meeting of the Sheffield and District Socie!y was held at Conisbrough and pos essed inost of the ingredients of an excc!lent meeting, i.e a pleasant ring of eight. good company. hospitality a high and intetesting standard of ringing, opportunity and progress A few learners in the elementary stages would have been welcome and could have been well catered for. A good number of towers were represented and it was pleasing to have visitors from Uppinghare, Lincs and Beverley.
The writer cannot recall such a large variey of Maior methods heing rung at a meeting. In additicn to touches in the standard. plain and Surprise methods the ringing included five Spliced Surprise Major. seven Spliced Plain Major and touches in four different principles (Original, Forward Treble Bob. Stedman Trinles and Dufficld).

Tea was taken in the Church Hall. followed by Stedman Triples and Grandsire Caters on handbelis by Messrs. N. Donovan, J. J. G. Gilhert, S. Armeson, N. Chaddock and J. Chaddock.
Pudsey and Rutland Major will be special methods for the meeting at Dore on May 6th. when learners will also be especially welcome. A good gathering is desired as the Vicar (the Rev. Garth Heawood. formerly of Norfolk) retires the following week. During his stay at Dore he has been a great encouragement to the ringers. his son and daughter both taking up the art during his incumbency.

SOUTHWELL DIOCESAN GUILD

Newark District

A very successful meeting was held at Southwell on March 18th. This was the first mecting the District had held there since the Minster bells were augmented io 12 , and the primary interest was to fan interest in the Guild's activities in the memhers of the newlyformed band. It was. therefore encouraging to see most of them raking part in the ringing and also attending the husiness meeting.
Almost 50 ringers swelled the congregation for Evensong in the Minster, which was led bv the Provost, the Very Rev. H. C. L. Heywood. Tea was afterwards served in Trebeck Hall by Newark r'ngers and wives. Five of the local band were elected to membership.

Rededication of Wittersham (Kent) Bells

IT was cold and blustery on April 2nd, when the bells of St. John the Baptist, Wittersham, Kent, were rededicated by the Rector (the Rev. E. C. Lucey) during Matins.

The church was beautiful with the Easter decorations, lilies in the Sanctuary, daffodils, primroses and other flowers elsewhere. At the entry to the belfry steps there was a large bowl of multi-coloured polyanthus and smaller jars of the same flowers in little niches on the stairway. In the belfry one was greeted by the sight of red, white and blue sallies suspended above the red floor covering (kindly given by Mrs. Chester Beatty), and two arrangements of daffodils and forsythia.

General ringing for about an hour preceded the service. After singing the bellringers ${ }^{\text {B }}$ hymn the Rector and choir, logether with the family and friends of the man to whom the bells were to be rededicated, and the many ringers present, proceeded to the base of the tower, where the Rector rededicated the bells "to the glory of God and to the memory of Herman Anton Andreae."

Present at the service was his daughter, Lady Mallett (a merber of the local band of ringers), at whose instigation the work was carried out and who was also responsible for having the ringing chamber floor repaired.
The sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Graham-Harrison, a retired clergyman from Northamptonshire, who has recently come to live in Wittersham, and who took as nis two-fold text "They work-to the glory of God," He spoke along the lines that whilst bellringers were members of their own band or team, they wer: also members of the band within the whole Church.

After the service the ringers, numbering about 40 , returned to the belfry for further ringing. The bells have been retuned, turned and rehung in a cast iron frame. with provision for two trebles to be added at a later date, and they now run in a clockwise direction. We were very sorry indeed to learn that the bellhanger from Taylor's foundry, Mr. Fred Thorold, had been ill and absent from work since he lert us last December, and the Rector referred to this during his prayers for the sick

Apart from the local band, those present included the Ashford District secretary (Mr. Alan P. S Berry). former Ashford District Ringing Master (Mr. John Cooper) and ringers from Appledore (Kent). Battle, Sussex. Bethersden. Folkestone. Hothfield. King's College (Cambridge), New Romney. Rolvenden, Sevenoaks. Stone (Kent). Sturry, Tenterden and Winchester School. We were very pleased to receive as non-ringing visitors in the belfry Sir Victor Mallett, Lord Dunboyne and Mrs. Chester Beaty.

THE BELLS

The second, third and fourth are now the only bells existing in Kent by Josephus Carter, and are referred to in "Church Bells of Kent " as three of the finest bells in the county. The whole ring was restored and rehung, and a new treble added. in 1937, the gift of Mr. A. Max Wilkinson, churchwarden, and was rededicated on Easter Sunday, 1938 . The fifth became cracked in August, 1938, and was recast in 1951 by Gillett and Johnston, and was rededicated on May 6th, 1951.

WARWICKSHIRE'S OLDEST CHURCH

News from Wootton Wawen, the oldest church in Warwickshire, is that there is an active young band with 12 of 16 or under. Three have rung quarter peals, nine more are eager to, and one has rung a peal.

FROM DERBYSHIRE

The Chesterfield striking contest to be held at Clowne on May 13 th was discussed at the well-attended monthly meeting at Creswell. North Wingfield, Wingerworth and Creswell are hoping to enter a team for the first time for several years. The contest should prove more interesting than last year. when only four teams competed Mr. D. Davis, the new District Ringing Master, supervised the ringing.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

The Andover District enjoyed the delightful little six at Longparish on April Ist. The Rev. K. S. P McDowall conducted the service, and the ladies of Longparish belfry provided tea The highlights of the evening at Longparish and Barton Stacey were touches of Cambridge Minor and three courses of London Surprise.

CHELTENHAM BRANCH NEWS

The Cheltenham Branch continued its evening prastice meetings at Swindon Village. Lerkhampton and Charlton Kings this year. There has been a change ringing band at the difficult five at Swindon for many vears. and the Church Council is now considering providing a treble. There is a pit for this and no difficulties are apparent apart fror minimum costs.
The neighbouring eight-bell towers are quite a contrast. one light and fast, the other slow and sonorous. There was a satisfactory attendance at both, methods being varied up to Bristol.
Meetings will be further afield a little later as the area is very long and narrow, the most distant necessitating Saturday meetings.

BELFRY GOSSIP

St. Uny Doubles rung at Lelant on April 3rd consists of plain course Stedman. Single, Grandsire Single in quick six. Composition: two singles, 60 changes apart.
"The Child's Guardian," the official magazine of the N.S.P.C.C., has in its March issue a fine picture of a group of students from St. John's College, York, giving a handbell recital in York for the N.S.P.C.C.

The Huntington Guild had a most successful Easter with five tower bell and two handoell peals, all conducted by A. Colin Banton. Also operating in the area was A. Martin Thorley, who conducted another three during the same period.

The Bath and Wells Association at its annual general meeting on Easter Monday abolished the compulsory contribution of 50 . per rope for a peal to The Ringing World." In its place the Association will make a contribution out of general funds to the journal.
Three of the local band took part in the peal of Stedrsan Triples at Liss to honour the wedding of Bernard S Gambrill, the vicecaptain, and Miss Sheila Knox. This was the firs: of Stedman on the bells and our correspondent asks if it was a coincidence that the previous evening's last touch for Evensong. conducted by the bridegroom, contained all "singles."

Mr. Alan R. Pink and Mr. Christopher . Clarke rang their 100th peal together at Daventry on February 25th.

One of those very rare events took place at Haresfield. Glos, on March 19th, when the whole bans rang their first quarter pealGrandsire Doubles. Congratulations to all concerned.

Regarding Mr. John R. Mayne's letter about conductors making sure their notations are accurate, his obsicrvations did not apply to Pendeen Surprise Major, as the correction was published a week before his letter. Regrets that the reference was not deleted.

Which leading composer composed a quarter peal of Plain Bob Triples that was two courses short of the usual quarter peal length? Which leading peal ringer called it on Easter Sunday without realising the error until it was pointed out to him afterwards?

Ringwood Sunday service hand made hiso tory on April 3rd by ringing a quarter of Spliced Surprise Major (London. Bristol, Cambridge. Superlative and Yorkshire). It was the first quarter of Spliced Surprise Major ever rung by resident merribers of the Christchurch District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guld.

ST. ALKMUND'S, DERBY. BELLS RUNG

 FOR LAST TIMEThe bells of St. Alkmund's, Derby, were rung for the last time on April 8th, the day of the annual general meeting of the Derby Diocesan Assoziation. The church passed ove ${ }_{r}$ to Derby Corporation on April 3rd but our correspondent believes that scrvices are being held there until April 26th.
The future of the bells is unknown; an assurance has been given by the diocesan authorities that the ring of eight will not be broken up hut, apart from that, the Vicar and P.C.C. are non-committal.

The views of Derby Association have been conveyed to the Bishop and a letter fromr the Association is going to the local Press as it is hoped that a home for the bells may be found at a Derby church or one in the diocese.
The proposed extension and redevelopment of Derby is likely to make several churches in the centre redundant. Recently St. Andrew's Church was considered to be a liability in view of the population movement. It is suggested that a smaller church be built hut nothing has yet been settled. St. Andrew's houses a ring of ten.

WOMEN RINGERS' TRIBUTE TO

 SUFFOLK M.U. PRESIDENTSt. Mary's, Oftham, Suffolk, bells, augmented to six by Messrs. Taylors in 1959, was chosen by Mothers' Union branches in the Bosmere Deanery for the ringing of a quarrer peal in honour of Mrs. Cashmore, wife of Bishop Cashmore, who has retired after 12 years as president of the M.U. in the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and lpswich.
A change in the band through two experienced ringers becoming expectant mothers necessitated the ringing being lirrited to changes. One of the ropes was taken by $12-$ year-old Judith Atkins, and others participating were Mesdames Joyce Lester. Brenda Lavers. Winifred Lockwood, Janet Perry and Monica Green.

IN NORTHERN IRELAND

A proitable week-end in Northern Ireland was spent at the beginning of Aprii. Peals were rung at Hillsborough. Carrickfergus and Holywood of two Spliced Surprise Major conducted by Robert C. Kippin, and Yorkshire Surprise Major by George E. Thoday.

ROCKETS AND BELLS ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Unusual features at St. Mary's. Bathwick, on Easter Saturday, were the ringing of a quarter peal for the first Communion service and the firing of reckets from the church tower to denote the commencement of the service. Fr. Beaumont, of 20th Century Mass fame, devised the service.

SUDBURY'S PLIGHT

"It seems a shome that this town with se many hells chould so seldom hear one of the most famous counds of England," says the Sudbury Group Magazine.
The towers at St. Gregory's and St. Peteris have been declared unsafe for their bells to be rung but All Saints has the finest ring of hells for miles arnund, with a 25 cwt . tenor. "However," concl des the report, "the town cannot ruster eight - ngers and the bells are silent for most of the year."

PROMISING YOUNG DEWSBURY

Ruth Richardson has recently taken part in her first quarter peal of Double Norwich before celebrating her 12 th birthday. Ruth was taught to handle a bell by Jeanne and Vernon' Bottomley two years ago and rang her qualifying 720 for the Yorkshire Association in December, 1965. She has become a reliable and steady ringer. Stedman is at present her favourite method. She is a neat handler and os ever present and never late.

Ruth has joined wholeheartedly in the present Dewsbury project to train a band to ring the hells of neighbouring Cleckheaton. which have been silent for many years, and it is gratifying to hear her drawing her pupils' attention to handling faults.

She is a very busy young lady-amongst other activities is her membership of the local Gir! Guide Con:pany. Her crop of badges includes the bellringer's, of course.

A USEFUL PAMPHLET

Based on its unique experience of 80 years of accident risks. the Ecclesiastical Insurance Office Ltd has produced a useful "Stop Accidents!" pamphlet calling attention to accidents arising from churches and halls.

Of church bells, it is stated "Church bells are seldom in other than careful and competent hands. Accidents happen when rules are broken or when inspection and maintenance fail. Bell accidents are serious. Some of the worst have resulted from failure effectively to keep visitors out when the bells are up."

A picture calls attention to "Dark steps are a danger." and asks "Consider controlling lights by key or time switch. When steps are hidden behind a door, keep it locked when practical and show a warning notice." Even experienced ringers with rany towers to their credit have been known to slip on dangerous stairs."

The E.I.O. gave helpful assistance to a lady who slipped when visiting a church last Christmas and fractured her ankle. She is still incapacitated and E.I.O. are standing by her. It cannot be over-emphasised the importance of bellringers being protected for the modest premium of one shilling a year paid by the P.C.C. in their cover with EI.O. The inquiry is well worth while.

BELLRINGING INTRODUCED TO A FRENCH GIRL
"And what do we do tomorrow?" Francoise, my pen friend, asked me on Saturday night. "Go ringing, of course," I replied automatically.
"Ah, yes, you have written to me abous this, I have not understood."
1 was appalled-surely my French wasn't that bad? "You know, ringing, like this. .."" I gave a vivid demonstration of my hobby. upsetting a tea cup and a vase of flowers in the process, but she didn't know.
Thus Sunday morning found us arriving at Lanchester Church, gaily making introductions and running lightly up the stairs to the ringing chamber. At least I was running lightly up the stairs before 1 realised that all 1 could hear of Françoise was a grunting sound several stairs lower.
"You have many, many stairs." she complained. I acquiesced without bothering to rub in the fact that there are only 35 . Soon we clambered into the belfry. "What's this? Françoise asked, grabbing at a sally, and thanked us profusely for the French Hag we had wrapped around it for her benefit.
And so, on that memorable day, we gave Francoise her first ringing lesson in a mixture of French and English which was a travesty of both languages - "Pullez la belle, plus hard," "All quatre fingers sur la corde," etc. etc.
She learned quickly and before long I could take her to visit other towers, which she seemed to like (a) because of the young masculine ringing specimens in the area; (b) because of the teas; and (c) because of speeches which usually referred to her presence in a complimentary manner.
One speech made by a noteworthy local ringer (no names mentioned. Mr. Tyson), following a cricket match, ringing and a truly magnificent tea, bound all three together as typical of England, and included the following remark: "They may have De Gaulle, but they've nowt like this!" And Françoise sadly agreed.

CALL CHANGERS JOIN SCIENTIFICS IN STRIKING CUNTEST

A striking competition in which call change ringers competed with change ringers took place at Clyst St. George on April Ist. Each of the nin: teams was required to pull out the bells from a "set" position, to ring a set Fiece taking at least 10 minutes and then to set the bell: again.
The rea break was followed by a dignified service taken by the Rector (the Rev. D. H. Large). The Rev. J. G. M. Scott made some useful comments before announcing the results and presenting certificates to the first three teams.
Re ults: 1 Withycombe A (Grandsire). 60 fauts; 2 Otterton (call changes). 79; 3 Whimple A (call changes), $90 ; 4$ Pinhoc B (call changes), 98; 5 Pinhoe Á (call changes). 99 ; 6 Withycombe $B$ (call changes), 117: 7 Lympstone :Plain Bob) 121 ; 8 Colaton Raleigh (call changes), 126; 9 Whimple $B$ (call changes), 130.

Six teams came from towers owing their main alleg ance to the Devon Association The competition was organised by the Guild of Devonshire Ringers (Aylesbeare Bran. $h$
